

Rickover Wants More Killer Subs

Washington—UPI—Adm. Hyman G. Rickover wants the United States to go into large-scale production of nuclear-powered "killer" submarines to fight the Soviet undersea threat.

Rickover, father of the atomic submarine, said the high-speed killer sub is the "best means that we have right now" to protect this country against missile-launching Russian submarines. He said the nuclear-powered submarine "definitely is far enough advanced to be placed in large-scale production."

Peters Hollow, Tenn.—UPI—Folks here are just about ready to concede that farmer Ray Lowe has chickens that lay the toughest eggs in town. Lowe, 63, won Peters Hollow's annual Easter egg fight Sunday for the third time in the last four years. He had the only uncracked egg left after 200 "contestant" bashed eggs against each other.

What Is The Law?

The reader is cautioned not to apply these cases to his own problems without an attorney's advice, for differing facts may change the outcome.

Court Can Provide For Funds Until a Divorce Suit Is Tried

Amy and John have come to the parting of the way and both are extremely antagonistic.

John has threatened to sell his stocks and bonds, and wire the "other woman" to meet him in Argentina to take his money and settle in South America where he can live happily forever after. And before he goes, John threatens to flog Amy.

Plans Divorce

Such treatment is hard on Amy, who has become accustomed to living in a manner she does not want to become unaccustomed to because of lack of currency. She plans to sue for divorce, but how can she be assured of enough money to enjoy it? How can she get support money until the suit can be tried? How can she prevent her husband from selling all he has and skipping?

The court has broad powers to protect Amy from all the dire consequences she fears. After the suit has commenced, the court may order the husband to pay the Clerk of the Court sufficient money for Amy to employ an attorney and to support her and the children during the pendency of the suit. The Court may restrain the husband from molesting Amy or the children. It may restrain John from disposing of his property except with court permission.

May Be Judgment

Should John fail to pay money to the Court clerk as ordered, the delinquent amount may be entered as a judgment; execution may be issued upon John's property, and it may be sold to raise the amount of money John failed to pay.

All these things may be done through proper action by the attorney before the divorce suit is heard on its merits.

So Amy may have considerable help in preventing John from doing the things she fears.

Navy Will Bounce Messages Off Moon

Washington—UPI—The Navy will begin sending radio messages between Washington and Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, this year by bouncing them off the moon, the publication Washington Science Trends said today.

The publication, which has made reliable forecasts in the past, said the Navy now was testing and evaluating its plan to use the moon as a "passive relay station."

Using the moon to reflect radio signals, Science Trends said, "is expected to provide greater reliability and anti-jamming capacity."

Elizabeth Taylor, Fisher in Nevada

Las Vegas —UPI— Actress Elizabeth Taylor, 27, and singer Eddie Fisher were both at this desert gambling resort today—Fisher to work, Miss Taylor to rest and, gossips say, the two of them to wed.

The actress and Fisher, 30, recently divorced by actress Debbie Reynolds, arrived here by train Sunday along with Miss Taylor's three children, a nurse and a valet and Fisher's secretary.

Fisher, declining to comment on reports that he planned to wed Miss Taylor, said he was here to open a month-long engagement Wednesday at the Tropicana hotel.
