

GOLD HILL Ex-Resident Breaks Hip

By MRS. CLYDE KELL Gold Hill — Former resident Mrs. Lloyd (Amy) Smith, now of Edmonds, Wash., was admitted as a patient Sunday, March 22, to the Lynwood Manor home at Lynwood, Wash., where she is recovering from a broken hip, according to information given by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lawrence Smith. Friends here may address their cards and letters to the nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gribble have returned to their home here after a three week's vacation to Guyman, Okla., and Junction City, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith were guests in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Sardine Creek road, last week and also at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Skyrman, Central Point. Sp 4 Smith and his wife are on Fort Ord, Calif. He is on duty there with the U.S. Army.

Other guests in the Lawrence Smith home were three of their grandchildren, Jan, Debbie, and Stevie Pettet. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pettet who have been residing at Corvallis, while he attended Oregon State college. He completed his schooling this term, and the couple are on a short vacation to Eugene, Calif. From there they will go to Coos Bay, where they will make their home while he is employed for the State Forestry Service.

The Pettet's baby daughter, Laurie Ann was cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burnette while her parents were getting the new home ready for the youngsters.

Mrs. Rex Allison has been ill at her home here the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hodge arrived in Gold Hill Monday, March 23, from their home in Eugene, for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell. He has returned north, but Mrs. Hodge remained for a longer visit. They are former residents of this area and Grants Pass.

Harry Newham returned to his home here Saturday, March 21, from the Osteopathic hospital in Medford, where he had been a patient for several days following an accident.

Mrs. Jack R. Graves is now employed at Cogswell's Market. She and her husband are recent newcomers to southern Oregon, from Fort Worth, Texas. They reside on Secom Ave. in Gold Hill with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves, also newcomers from Lorena, Texas. The J. H. Graves are parents of Mrs. Edith White and Jack R. Graves is her brother.

Mrs. Earl Moore, Gold Hill, and Mrs. D. C. Mapel and son, Steve, Central Point, returned to their homes Saturday, March 21, following a vacation to Chico, Calif., where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Edwards and three youngsters, Karen, Doug and Brad. Mrs. Edwards is a daughter of Mrs. Moore and a sister of Mrs. Mapel.

Mrs. S. N. Saville and her son, A. G. Saville, of Fullerton, Neb., arrived at Medford airport March 25, where they were met by Mrs. Saville's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dickenson. Mrs. Saville who is 92 years old, will remain at the Dickenson home on Sardine Creek for an indefinite visit. Her son, who is a brother of Mrs. Dickenson, planned to leave for his home in Nebraska March 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Stembridge and daughter, Debbie, of Medford, were visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dickenson, Wednesday evening, March 25.
