

Window Breaking Leads Bust Phils

By FRED DROWN
United Press International
The Cincinnati Reds are beginning to look like those famous "window breakers" of 1957—except that they're also getting the pitching.

A long-shot National League pennant shot, the Reds have won six of their last seven games scoring a total of 35 runs compared to 10 for the opposition. They've had four different pitchers go nine innings and Tuesday saw three of their "fringe" pitchers combine in a 5-0 shutout of the Philadelphia Phillies.

In addition, Manager Mayo Smith saw Gus Bell blast out two homers and Ed Bailey hit one—all off Robin Roberts who staggered through his second nine-inning job of the spring.

Jim O'Toole, the rookie hope of the camp, Willard Schmidt and Bob Mabe were the pitchers who collaborated in Tuesday's three-hit shutout—second in four games for the Reds. O'Toole, a 6-foot left-hander who won 20 games for Nashville last season, held the Phillies hitless and walked one in four innings. Schmidt yielded a sixth-inning single to Roberts and Mabe a double to Jim Hegan and a single to Willie Jones in the eighth.

Pierce, Friend Win
Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox and Bob Friend of the Pittsburgh Pirates indicated they are approaching top form in other significant performances.

Pierce, the White Sox' likely opening-day pitcher, yielded five hits in seven shutout innings as the Sox topped the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-1. The Cardinals scored their only run off Bob Shaw when Bill White homered—his third in as many games since traded by San Francisco. General

Manager Bing Devine blasted the Cardinals after the game "for carelessness and failure to go all out."

Friend was banged around for 15 hits but managed to last the distance for the first time this spring, as the Pirates downed the Detroit Tigers, 6-5. A ninth-inning run produced by Dick Groat's double and Danny Kravitz's single was the margin of victory for the Pirates who are 11-11 for the spring.

The Kansas City Athletics beat the New York Yankees, 4-2 the Baltimore Orioles scored an 11-inning, 9-8 win over the Washington Senators, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the Milwaukee Braves, 9-2, the Chicago Cubs out-slugged the Boston Red Sox, 11-6, and the San Francisco Giants rallied to beat the Cleveland Indians, 7-5, in the other exhibition activity.

The Athletics tagged rookie John Gabel for two runs and three hits in the ninth and Art Houtteman held the Yankees at bat in their half of the final frame. Art Dittmar pitched the first eight innings for the Yankees and gave up nine hits.

Bob Nieman, Gus Triandos and Bobby Avila hit homers and Roy Sievers drove in five runs and belted two homers in the Baltimore-Washington slugfest. Nieman finally broke it up in the 11th when he singled with the bases filled.

The Dodgers softened up Bob Buhl with four runs in six innings and went to town with a five-run eighth against Juan Pizarro to raise their spring record to 11-7 and lower Milwaukee's to 5-14. Wally Moon led the Dodgers' attack with 3-for-5 and lifted his spring average to .447.

John Goryl and Earl Averall homered and Ernie Banks drove in two runs to lead a 16-hit Cub attack on Tom Brewer and Bob Monbouquette. Bill Renna hit a grand-slam homer and Jackie Jensen also homered for the Red Sox.

The Giants scored two runs in the eighth on a homer by Orlando Cepeda and rallied for four more in the ninth with the help of Jim Davenport's two-run double to square their spring record at 10-10. The Indians slipped to 9-12.

Fish Pond Again at Sportsfair

Talent trout farm will again furnish a fishing pond for youngsters at the Crater Lions Sportsfair, according to Clifford McGinty, general chairman for the event.

This year the pond will be located outside the armory, sponsored by Gilman Dairy under big plastic bubble.

Harry Ringland and Homer Morris, owners of the trout farm, expect to keep between 300 and 350 hungry trout in the pond at all times during the fair. It is not feasible, they said, to keep more than this number in the pond as the fish need plenty of fresh water and oxygen.

Trout to be planted in the Sportsfair pond will not be fed for two days prior to the fair. Ringland and Morris explained that the fish will travel better from the farm to the armory better on an empty stomach and will also be more eager to take the bait offered by young anglers.

Salmon eggs and beef liver are the preferred foods: the fish prefer the liver, but the salmon eggs are easier to handle for feeding purposes.

The trout farm has been situated four miles above Talent on the Anderson Creek road, for two years, in what the state game commission has designated as one of the best natural locations for a trout hatchery in the state.

McGinty reports that big crowds of eager youngsters are expected to "limit out" during the fair April 10, 11 and 12, at the Medford armory.

Gonzales, Hoad Lead Pro Tour
Augusta, Ga.—(UPI)—Pancho Gonzales, the defending professional tennis champion who fell behind in the opening matches of this year's pro tour, caught up to pacemaker Aussie Lew Hoad Tuesday night when he defeated Australian Mal Anderson, 6-4, 8-6.

Ashley Cooper upset Hoad, 6-4, 6-2 in the opening match plays before an estimated crowd of 1,500 fans at Bell auditorium.

Gonzales and Hoad now lead the Jack Kramer tour with identical records of 16 victories and seven defeats. Cooper has won eight matches and lost 14 while Anderson has a 5-17 record.

Eddie Machen Stops Opponent
Sacramento, Calif.—(UPI)—Heavyweight Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., shuffling along the well trodden comeback trail, scored a ninth round technical knockout Tuesday night over Clarence Williams of Hollywood.

The unranked Williams carried the battle to Machen throughout the first eight rounds and might have won on points but for Eddie's sudden awakening.

Bettors Favor Venturi, Wall In Masters Golf Tournament

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Augusta, Ga.—(UPI)—Ken Venturi and Art Wall were the betting favorites and Sam Snead, as usual, the gallery favorite as the field of 76 professionals and 14 amateurs took their final tees today for the 23rd Masters golf tournament, starting Thursday.

Venturi, because most of the pros think he has the best game "from the tee into the cup" was the 3-1 betting choice with Wall, the leading money winner on the PGA circuit this year, the second choice at 4-1.

The 46-year-old Snead and the 48-year-old Jimmy Demaret, only golfers to win the Masters three times, were quoted at 5-1 along with Cary Middlecott, Arnold Palmer, last year's winner, was listed at 6-1.

"This no longer is an old man's game," explained 57-year-old Gene Sarazen, who won the Masters back in 1935—the second year that it was played. "We old timers can't take it on the greens any more. And putting is a good 60 per cent of your game."

"We can stay in there with players like Venturi from tee to green, but when it comes from the green to the cup we lost out. Ken is a fine putter. He should win."

Venturi is only 27. He's won a lot of tournaments but none of the big ones like the Masters.

Wall is 35. He is the most consistent player of the year and he has everything it takes to win. A lot of players like him because of the added experience he has over Venturi.

But it is surprising to talk to old-timers other than Sarazen. They all like old Slammin' Sammy.

"For the last few weeks he's been playing the best I've ever seen him play," said Lew Worsham, who won the U.S. Open back in 1947. "You name any player in the field and I'll take Snead head to head."

Ashland—A marathon start for the Red Raider diamond crew of Southern Oregon college when it opens against Shasta junior college in Redding tomorrow in a double-header which will provide the first two of six ball games to be played in four days in California cities.

On Saturday the 15-man travelling squad will move to Chico for a doubleheader against Chico State college and on Sunday the Raiders play a pair of games against Humboldt State college in Arcata.

Eight lettermen will take to the field when the Raiders open against the Knights of Shasta in the games that were postponed due to wet grounds Tuesday. Gordie Carrigan will be at shortstop as the only non-letterman where he has taken over for the missing Willie Jones.

Ray Weinhold will be in left field. He was a reserve last year in the outfield and one of the main individuals in the pinch hitting department.

LeRoy King will be back in center field and Phil Sword will be in right.

6 Tussles For Raiders In 4 Days

Medford Senior high has no rivalry with another school this week but will have an interclass meet on Saturday. Crater and Ashland highs travel for a meet at Klamath Falls on Saturday.

Frosh Relays on Friday On Medford High Track

First big track event of the current season at the Medford high stadium is set for Friday afternoon.

Southern Oregon Freshman relays are scheduled with the first contest to be at 3:30 p.m. Seven schools are expected to enter. North and South Junior highs of Grants Pass, Crater, Ashland and Klamath Union highs and McLoughlin and Hedrick Junior highs of Medford.

Eleven events are on the slate with five track and three field relays. Pole vault, discus and javelin will be individual events.

Grants Pass, with just a single junior high in 1958, won the crown last year.

Mesa, Ariz.—(UPI)—Sam Jones, new addition to the San Francisco Giants staff, went against the Chicago Cubs today for his first start in a Giant uniform.

The hot-shot hurler from the St. Louis Cardinals is expected to help San Francisco into pennant contention, and some experts have already predicted the Giants are it for the 1959 National league crown.

One of those experts was Cleveland Indian Manager Manager Joe Gordon who said in Tucson Tuesday that Jones and hurler Jack Sanford could make the difference.

"I like the Giants to win the pennant," Gordon said. "The club has always had the potential in my book."

San Francisco showed a bit of that potential Tuesday when it downed Gordon's club, 7 to 5, with the help of homers by Orlando Cepeda and Bob Schimidt.

The Giants trailed 4 to 3 going into the ninth, but busted out with one of their specialties—a last minute rally that netted four runs and the win.

Johnny Antonelli started for San Francisco, but was pulled out of the contest after two innings because he could not "get loose." He was replaced on the mound by Stu Miller, but Dominic Zanni, who came on in the seventh, collected the win.

Track Aspirants Total 30 at IV
Cave Junction—Coach Wes Peters yesterday was looking for competition this week end for his Illinois Valley high track and field squad.

A meet scheduled with Glendale on Friday has been called off because of weather and field conditions at Glendale. The Cougars are having all their meets away from home this spring because of their own track situation.

There are four lettermen for the cinder and field sport at IV among 30 third-clads. They are Mike Hanby, who was fourth in the A-2 state meet pole vault; John Davis, who was fourth in the district mile; Grant Dickey, who was fourth in the district dashes, and Don Pincher, mile and half-miler in 1958 who will compete in the javelin and weight events this season.

Among a squad members, also, is Dan Slanaker, who was with the squad part of the 1958 season but did not letter. He had a top javelin toss of 186 feet last year.

A good number of freshmen and sophomores are on the IV squad.

The Cougars will vie in the Little Rogue relays at Phoenix on April 11 and in the Hayward relays at Eugene on April 17. Annual meet for the Rogue league and sub-district Rogue league will be May 9 at Ashland. The full district meet is set for the following week end at Roseburg.

Harman Choice Of SL Hawks
Cincinnati—(UPI)—Lee Harman, Oregon State's stellar all-coast basketball guard, was picked in the fourth round of the National Basketball Association draft yesterday by the St. Louis Hawks.

Another Oregon Stater, Dave Gambee, was picked by the Hawks last year but was out this season after undergoing an appendicitis operation.

Harman was selected ahead of several taller Pacific Coast stars.

Doug Smart of Washington was picked by Detroit in the seventh round; Chuck Curtis of Pacific Lutheran was picked by Detroit in the eighth round; Walt Torrence of UCLA was picked by New York in the eighth round and Bruno Bojn of Washington was chosen by Detroit in the 10th round.

Mike Moran, former Eugene, Ore., high school star who played at Marquette, was picked in the sixth round by St. Louis.

Freese Sparks Portland Nine
El Centro, Calif.—(UPI)—George Freese slammed out three of Portland's 15 hits to pace his team to a 7 to 5 victory over the Seattle Rainiers Tuesday in a PCL spring training exhibition game.

The Beavers scored their hits off of three Seattle pitchers. Seattle players Ted Tappe and Dee Fondy each hit solo home runs.

Gene Conley Traded To Phillies; Lopata Goes To Milwaukee

Bradenton, Fla.—(UPI)—Manager Fred Haney today named Felix Mantilla to open the season at second base for the Milwaukee Braves and claimed the acquisition of Stan Lopata gives the National league champions "catching second to none in the league."

Haney's big decision on his perplexing second-base problem followed the announcement of a six-player deal in which the Braves obtained Lopata and infielders Johnny O'Brien and Ted Kazanski from the Philadelphia Phillies for pitcher Gene Conley and infielders Harry Haneybrink and Joe Kuppe.

Asked how the acquisition of O'Brien affected his second-base plans, Haney replied: "We traded a bench man for a bench man." Kazanski, who received a $100,000 bonus from the Phillies in 1951, is being sent to Louisville of the American association "on a temporary basis."

Mantilla is a 24-year-old native of Isabela, P.R., whose "lack of incentive" often has been criticized. He hit 221 in 85 games last season. Cottler, an unheralded rookie not yet on the Milwaukee roster, has been the surprise package of the spring for the Braves.

"Conley is the big man in the deal for us," said General Manager John Quinn of the Phillies. "He is a good gamble because he's a lot better than his 0-6 record last season and he can be a good pitcher for four or five years."

"I like Koppe very much," said Phillies' Manager Eddie Sawyer. "This means Valmy Thomas is our first-string catcher and Jim Hegan will do a lot of our secondary catching."

Fix Gives Up LC Hoop Post
Portland—(UPI)—Eldon Fix has resigned as head basketball coach at Lewis and Clark college. He will remain as athletic director and track coach.

Jim Goddard, assistant coach, will take over the head basketball coaching job. Fix held the head coaching job for 13 years.

Fix said he was turning over the basketball job to Goddard "to help even up the coaching responsibilities among the various members of the Lewis and Clark staff."
