Police Break Up Indecent Photo Source in Oakland

Oakland, Calif. (UPI)—Police said today they had broken up the source of a nationwide indecent photograph and motion picture ring that allegedly used 40 East Bay housewives, college girls and secretaries as models.

Two men were arrested on Wednesday on charges of violating the indecent photograph and motion picture section of the state penal code. They were Douglas Deal, 38, Berkeley, owner of Domingo Studios in Berkeley, and Leonard J. Ackerman, 48, Oakland, owner of Ackerman Film Laboratory in Berkeley. Reels of Film Seized

Officers said they seized at Ackerman's laboratory 1,000 reels of film, several lockersful of photographs and a small quantity of pornographic literature.

Also found was a card file with the names of 40 part-time models including their telephone numbers, measurements and types of pictures they would pose for.

At Ackerman's laboratory police seized a mailing list of customers all over the nation. Also taken were brochures describing prices of photos and film.

Girls Go To Police
Lt. Ted Brown of the Oakland vice squad said the case came to light after two girls, who posed for pictures in an Oakland motel room, went to police.

Brown said he would describe some of the film and photos as pornographic. Some of the movie film was in color with sound. Both men admitted their parts in the operation, but said they were producing art, not pornography, according to police.

Ackerman and Deal were released on $500 bail.

Legislature Topic At Crater Lions

Activities of the present session of the state legislature were discussed by Gerald Latham, Mail Tribune business manager, at a luncheon meeting of Crater Lions club Tuesday at Ping's Gardens.

Latham described House Bill 528, creating a state power commission, and House Bill 514, which would change basic school support from $105 to $125 per census child. He also spoke briefly on taxation problems at the local level.

Cliff McGinty, general chairman for the coming sports fair, gave a brief report on the second annual fair to be held April 10, 11 and 12.
