

Stan Leonard Takes 2-Stroke Lead in Masters Golf Tussle

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Augusta, Ga. (UPI)—Canadian Stan Leonard, who will only own up to 44 years but probably is closer to 50, led the field into the second round of the Masters golf tournament today—the first foreign player ever to do so.

His three-under par 69 Thursday over the rain-soaked windswept Augusta National Golf club course was two strokes better than anyone else as the 68 professionals and 19 amateurs generally found the elements too tough for them.

Only three players outside of Leonard, a six-time Canadian PGA champion who has been a playing pro for 22 years, broke par.

They were defending champion Arnold Palmer, Jackie Burke and the veteran Chandler Harper, all of whom came in with one-under-par 71's. There were only five players at par—demonstrating how tough the course played Thursday except for Leonard. Leonard ignores wind.

Raiders Gain Pair From Shasta Club

Ashland—Southern Oregon college opened the 1959 baseball season with a pair of 11-1 and 3-0 wins over Shasta junior college yesterday at Redding, Calif., and tomorrow goes on the road again for a doubleheader against Chico State.

Humboldt State college will then host the busy Red Raiders in another doubleheader Sunday in Arcata to close out a six game series in a four-day period.

Coach Ted Schopf expressed great pleasure at the play of the men of SOC, defending Oregon Collegiate conference champs. They were charged with only two errors in the twin bill.

SOC banged out 12 hits in the first contest and five in the second with Phil Sword topping all players with four hits in six trips. One was a double.

Larry Maurer batted in three runs in the first game and had three for four from the plate while LeRoy King pushed across three runs and went three for seven.

Maurer scored the first run of the opening game when he came all the way in from second on a single by King. Maurer had gotten on base on a fielder's choice and moved to second when Sword walked.

Gordie Carrigan opened the second inning with a single to left and pitcher Dave O'Olivo bunting was safe at first when the first baseman for Shasta bobbled the ball. Chuck Nevi then singled home

Carrigan scored the run in the seventh after getting on by the third baseman's miscue. Speelman set down a bunt and Carrigan moved to second. Carrigan, the speedy Raider shortstop, drew a throw to second on the part of the Shasta catcher and raced to third untouched. Then he stole home.

Patterson Video Bouts Arranged

New York—(UPI)—Home television viewers, some of whom may have forgotten what Floyd Patterson looks like, will be treated to at least three future fights involving the heavyweight champion within the next 15 months.

The first will be Patterson's defense against Britain's Brian London at Las Vegas, Nev., May 1, which will be televised nationally by NBC on its regular Friday TV series. The same network also plans to televise another Patterson fight "before next Christmas" and a third heavyweight title brawl "before June of 1960."

EASY SPUR CHOICE

Hallandale, Fla.—(UPI)—A snappy clogging in his final workout established Easy Spur as the likely favorite today for the $100,000 added Florida Derby, Saturday at Gulfstream Park. Easy Spur, owned by Jim Norris' Spring Hill Farm, worked a half mile in 47 1/5 seconds yesterday in an impressive drill for the weekend classic. Eight other three-year-olds are expected to oppose Easy Spur.

Vancouver Clips Portland 7-4

Brawley, Calif.—(UPI)—Bonus catcher Jim Pagliaroni and Jim Dyck hit home runs to lead the Vancouver Mounties to a 7-4 victory over Portland in an 11 inning Pacific Coast league exhibition training game.

The additions and subtractions left the Dodgers with 30 players, two over the opening day limit.

Pagliaroni's homer came in the 11th frame to give the Mounties the winning edge but they went on and added two more runs. Dyck's homer in the fourth inning was good for three runs.
