

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Franklin Stokes

Presbyterian Rites Wed Couple in San Francisco

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Phyllis Lea Watkins to Jimmy Franklin Stokes, the ceremony having taken place March 20 in St. John's Presbyterian church, San Francisco. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd P. Watkins, 701 West Jackson street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stokes, Thomsville, Ga.

The double-ring ceremony was read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Lloyd Carrick. Seventy-five guests attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes are living at 677 Seventh avenue in San Francisco. The bride is a senior nurse at French Hospital School of Nursing and the bridegroom is in the United States postal service.

For the wedding the bride wore an Angelo gown of hand-sheared Chantilly lace made with Sabrina neckline, basque waist and very full skirt of tiered lace. Her elbow-length nylon veil was held by a hand-beaded cap designed and made by the bride's mother. The bride carried a single white orchid on a white satin nurse's Bible with staphenotis streamers. Her pearls were the bridegroom's gift.

Mrs. James O'Donel (Evelyn Watkins) of Yerba Buena island, San Francisco, was matron-of-honor, and Miss Eleanor Liebbrand, Denver, Colo., childhood chum and roommate at French hospital, was bridesmaid. They wore ice blue brocaded satin sheaths with nylon cummerbunds and pouff bows and floating back panels. Their picture hats and mitts matched their gowns and they carried cascades of white carnations. The earrings they wore were the bride's gifts.

Sharon and Kathleen O'Donel, small nieces of the bride, were candle bearers. They wore blue nylon dresses and picture hats and carried white tapers with white carnations and blue ribbons.

Lt. James H. O'Donel was best man for the bridegroom and Donald Elgin and Paul Gfeller seated the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins gave their daughter in marriage. Urns of white stock, white and blush carnations were arranged with tall candelabra to decorate the church.

The reception was held in the church. Mrs. Donald Elgin, Miss Linda Hart, Miss Nancy McNamara and Miss Suzette Negri, all classmates of the bride, assisted at the reception.

The bride's mother wore a dress of rose nylon and lace with flowered hat and pink accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid and her pearl earrings were a gift from the bridegroom. The bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the wedding, and Mrs. E. H. Judd, aunt of the bride from Portola Valley, Calif., substituted for the bridegroom's mother.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. Chester L. Bourne, the bride's uncle and aunt, and Richard Bourne, Medford; Mrs. J. W. Watkins, grandmother of the bride, Phoenix, Ore.; Miss Judy Johnson, Ashland.

The newlyweds made a wedding trip to Reno, Nev., and Lake Tahoe, the bride wearing a spring suit of raw silk with matching accessories and olive green coat. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The bride lived all her life in Medford before going to San Francisco to enter school; she is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Southern Oregon college. Mr. Stokes served five years with the United States Signal corps.

A number of parties preceded the wedding. The bride was honored February 14 at a party given by Mrs. Joseph Beach and Mrs. William French at the former's home in Medford and March 5 Miss Liebbrand was hostess for a shower at the O'Donel home. Guests were student nurses of French and San Francisco General hospitals. March 13 Mrs. Walter Wilson, Medford, was hostess for an absentee shower for the bride-elect. March 18 Lt. and Mrs. O'Donel entertained at a family dinner.

Both are Medford High school graduates. The bride-elect is also a graduate of Good Samaritan Hospital of Nursing, Portland. She attended Oregon State college and is currently completing work at the University of Oregon Medical school in nursing education.

Mr. Fry attended Southern Oregon college and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is a junior dental student at the University of Oregon Dental school, Portland, and is a member of Delta Sigma Delta, dental social fraternity.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Annual Easter Luncheon Is Largest Spring Event

Largest social event of early spring was the annual Easter Monday luncheon of St. Anne's Altar society of Sacred Heart Catholic church, held at Rogue Valley Country club last week. Four hundred women attended the traditional party.

Decorations were keyed to Oregon's Centennial year, and the color theme was lavender and white. Each table was centered with a bouquet of wild flowers in milk glass goblets, and a miniature surrey with fringe on top and paper lace wheels stood on the piano in the main dining room. It was filled with purple hearth.

In the reception hall of the clubhouse an old-fashioned scene had been arranged. Barbara Ann Hochstatter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hochstatter, dressed in old-fashioned clothing, was seated in an antique rocking chair. Nearby stood an old table China tea set and nosegay of purple flowers.

Mrs. Vincent P. Nicoletti and Mrs. James J. Dunlevy were co-chairmen in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Ronald R. Caperna and Mrs. Robert S. Ashenbrenner supervised decorations. Mrs. Nicoletti welcomed the guests.

Reception hostesses were in old-fashioned attire. They were Mrs. Donald C. Jackson, chairman, and Mrs. R. A. Naumes, Mrs. Paul W. Haviland, Mrs. Jack Rentz, Mrs. Elbert C. Williams, Mrs. Thomas L. Teutsch, Mrs. Elbert M. Nelson, Mrs. Robert F. Rickman, Mrs. Alvin R. Coats, Mrs. W. C. Judy, Mrs. Herbert A. Dungey, Mrs. Dean W. Pruett and Mrs. Edward C. Nave.

Entertainment was provided by The Shadows, a group of students from St. Mary's academy. In the group are Paul and William Smith, sons of the Jack R. Smiths; Gary Miksche, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Miksche; Thomas Newcomb, whose parents are the Paul Newcombs; Michael Feiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Feiss, and David Mansfield, son of the John Mansfields. Their Centennial costumes includes striped vests.
