Hamlin Motors is Franchise Dealer For Triumph Here

The appointment of Hamlin Motor company as a franchised Triumph dealer in Medford was recently announced by Dorothy Deen, executive vice president of Cal Sales, western importer-distributor of the British line.

Triumph models include the TR3 sports roadsters and hardtops, the new sedan and the Triumph estate wagon.

A 100-horsepower, 110 miles per hour car, the TR3 is now second in national sales in the sports category, it was reported. The Triumph is well known in racing and rallies, as well as in economy runs. TR3 ran first, second, third, fourth and fifth in the 1956 Alpine Rally. At Le Mans it averaged 74 miles per hour during the grueling run, with a gas consumption average of over 34 miles per gallon.

Triumph sedans and estate wagons, recently introduced in the United States, have world wide distribution and are sold and serviced in 105 countries. They are said to provide up to 40 miles per gallon and cover up to 60,000 miles before a major service is necessary.

All the British-built Triumphs sold here have American fittings to simplify service anywhere in the country, Hamlin Motors reported.
