British Alarmed By Montgomery's Plans for Trip

London – (UPI) – The British press reacted with undisguised alarm today to Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery's plans to talk over East-West affairs with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

"Every time Monty blunders into politics he makes an ass of himself," the tabloid Daily Sketch said in a front page editorial. "This time he can do untold damage to the West as well."

A huge headline advised: "Monty! The Sketch says to an old and meddling soldier—fade away."

'Terrible Harm' Seen

The Daily Herald screamed in huge headline type: "Come off it, Monty!" Its front page editorial warned that any "meddling" might do "terrible harm" to East-West relations.

Montgomery, 71, who has often been in hot water with the newspapers for his outspoken views, is retired from active army life and has no official government connection. His trip is planned for April 28.

The New Chronicle slapped a headline across the top of its front page today which said "Monty Shakes America," but the story didn't give the impression the United States was unduly shaken up.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

Washington–Gen. Thomas S. Power, head of the Strategic Air Command, warning the United States must impress upon Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev the fact that he cannot attack this country with impunity:

"I think the minute he thinks he can strike this country with impunity, we will 'get it' in the next 60 seconds. The only thing to keep him honest is full knowledge of what will happen to him."

New York–Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher (D.-N.J.), expressing confidence this country will not bow to the Soviet ultimatum to get out of Berlin by May 27:

"I am confident we will be there this May 27 and the next May 27. The honor of the United States is being tested on this issue."

Norwalk, Conn.–Alva I. Cox Jr., director of the audio-visual and broadcast education division of the National Council of Churches, expressing approval of a jazz Mass at St. Paul's church on the green:

"But the music is so bad I hope the experiment is not judged on the quality of the product."

London–Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, expressing unconcern at adverse British newspaper criticism of his impending visit to Moscow to talk over East-West affairs with Soviet Premier Khrushchev:

"I am always being criticized. I am used to criticism. I should feel unhappy and think there was something wrong if I were not being attacked in some way."

Wall Street Chatter

New York–(UPI)–Amott, Baker & Co., in its investment letter, calls attention to a noticeable pick-up in the volume of common stocks being offered to the public through secondary offerings by holders of large blocks, observing "if it is advantageous time for large holders to sell shares, it may not be the proper time for others to purchase them."

Standard & Poor's notes that dividend actions in March were again predominantly on the favorable side; says increases and resumptions in the first quarter outnumbered the omissions and cuts in rates by a ratio of almost 6 to 1; "thus 1959 is off to a good start toward establishing a new record high in aggregate cash dividend payments."

Joseph E. Granville of E. F. Hutton & Company says current studies of market timing indicators suggest that the immediate term outlook is highly uncertain, a tendency toward still lower levels still predominating.

Granville notes, also, that the thing to be watched for now is a wholesale shift out of the low-priced stocks. A rush to get out of the low priced speculative issues, he points out, might even foreshadow a wider change in the overall market sentiment.

Iron Age, metal working authority, cites aluminum producers who are ready to tap the European Common Market where per capita consumption is expected to double. Aluminum has most experience in world markets, it notes, but Reynolds Metals already is partners with a German manufacturer.

Three student teachers from Southern Oregon college are at our school. David Wisely is working with Dick Merriman; Mrs. Virginia West is with Mrs. Angelia Thompson, and Ted Buck with Mrs. Precia Medley.

The students in the fifth grade are making safety posters. Posters always have a slogan. These are going to be sent for judging in the safety contest.

The second and third grade students put on a second performance of "The Great Decision" April 2 in connection with the crowning of the king and queen of the Pear Blossom Festival.

All fifth and sixth grade boys and girls have been playing baseball. They challenge teams from other rooms and play their games during the noon hour. The boys of the fifth and sixth grades who are on the school baseball team have been practicing. They practice at night after school.

Hugh Shurtleff's fifth grade won the PTA room attendance prize at the last PTA meeting. The class hasn't decided what to buy as yet.

"It's Poppy time again," so the sixth grade boys and girls made poppy posters. Some of them are to be sent to a contest. They worked hard to get them in on time.

Hungarians Given Amnesty Promise Said Betrayed

United Nations, N.Y. – (UPI) – Six thousand Hungarian refugees who accepted Communist promises of amnesty to return home have been executed, imprisoned or shipped to Russia, the International League for the Rights of Man reported.

The Communist double-cross was charged in a report handed to United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold last Friday by Roger Baldwin, chairman of the league, a private agency with consultative powers at the United Nations. The report was released Sunday night.

21,000 Accepted Offer

It said that about 21,000 persons accepted the Communist offer of amnesty and returned home since the 1955 revolt. About 6,000 of them were sent to prison or shot. Some skilled technicians were shipped off to Russia, the report said.

"All those who have returned and are presently in prison or internment camps had received previously at the Hungarian legations of the countries where they were a 'letter of amnesty' promising them complete forgiveness. This letter, however, did not have any meaning once they arrived in Hungary," it said.

Short Freedom

The report, prepared by the Hungarian National Revolutionary committee in exile, and approved by the league, said most of the returnees were allowed their freedom for about five or six weeks after they returned home.

Then, it said, the Communists called them in for questioning about their part in the rebellion. The returnees were asked to turn informer and those that refused were jailed, it said.

Senate Committee Disapproves of Bill

Salem–(UPI)–The Senate state and federal affairs committee has voted against Senate Bill 94, which would increase basic school support money. The bill had been approved earlier by the Senate education committee.

The bill would increase the basic school support from $105 to $120 per census child. It was sent back to the ways and means committee with the recommendation that it not be passed.

ARE YOU SAFE FROM POLIO?

The 1959 polio season is almost here . . . yet millions of Americans have not had any shots. What about you?

Polio isn't licked! In fact, paralytic polio—especially children's cases—increased slightly last year over 1957 among those not polio-protected.

Play safe . . . your neighbor's polio shots will not protect you. Remember—polio strikes all ages. See your doctor or health department NOW . . . before it's too late.

Courts Recognize Value Due For Services

Sadie, a young woman in North Carolina, married a man she considered to be her finance. She lived with him for about two years and during that time loaned him $200 and cared for him during an illness which took his life.

Upon the man's death, Sadie discovered that he had already been married for several years to another woman. This meant Sadie's so-called marriage was void.

Could Seek Damages

According to the laws in North Carolina at the time, Sadie could seek damages from the man who had wronged her.

The courts have come to recognize that it was necessary to provide a legal remedy in cases of this sort. The courts now feel there is an implied promise on the part of the person enriched by his misconduct to pay the injured person the reasonable value of the benefit bestowed.

If this were not the case, say the courts, a person could become unjustly enriched at the expense of an innocent person.

The North Carolina court held that Sadie was entitled to recover from the estate of the deceased the reasonable value of her services, and, of course, the money she had loaned the deceased. From this recovery would be deducted the value of benefits received by her, such as room and board.

Can Revoke Contract

Another example of reasonable compensation for services where the court finds unjust enrichment involves a ditch-digger. A man is employed to dig a ditch at a stated price per linear foot. The land is represented as not more than 10 per cent rock. The digger discovers, however, after digging 50 feet that the land is over 50 per cent rock. He is entitled to rescind or revoke the contract and receive the reasonable value of his services.
