Spring Topcoats Make Style News This Year

Spring topcoats—lighter than ever in weight, but just as warm as the heavier versions of past seasons—are making style news right now. These new topcoats weigh scarcely more than a Spring suit, yet they give all the warmth needed in nippy weather, hold their shape well, and many boast a built-in resistance to wrinkling. The new styling also features shorter lengths this Spring. And there are new colors and shades that give the latest models a truly new look.

Newest Models
Among the newest models is an adaptation of the split raglan style that is now seen so much in rainwear. They're tailored for a set-in sleeve effect when seen from the front, while having the easy-fitting raglan sleeve look at the back.

Designers of the new shorter length coats indicate they will prove to be a boon on car-driving occasions or for men who do a lot of walking. Lengths have been shortened by as much as three inches in some models. Aside from its practical features, the new length boasts what the designers call "better balance" in appearance.

Variety of Fabrics
But whatever length is to be preferred, topcoats for this Spring will be found in a superb variety of fabrics, including silky gabardines, luxurious shetlands, rugged tweeds, durable covert cloths and classic polos.

Complementing the new "Continental" suits are topcoats tailored for the same trim, slimming effect and other detailing inspired by what's

DRY LOGIC
Blacktown, New South Wales, Australia—UPP—A new measuring table for drinkers was displayed at the annual Seventh-day Adventist Bible conference here. It read:

2 pints equal 1 quart; 1 quart equals 1 argument; 1 argument equals 1 fight; 1 fight equals 1 cop; 1 cop equals 1 arrest; 1 arrest equals 1 judge; 1 judge equals 30 days.

Prints Assist Lingerie Look

Interesting colors and prints and feminine trims help to make lingerie look very fresh and pretty this spring.

Flowers "bloom" everywhere. Floral accents are embroidered on pastel slips, peignoirs and sleepwear, while flowery prints team with harmonizing solid colors for a new look in sleep sets.

These prints are characterized by a delicate air, inspired by Oriental watercolors or English gardens.

Other prints are bright and bold, sometimes with an opalescent effect. They include over-blown blossoms, space prints over pigment white stripes and scattered fruits in flat black outlined technique. All are effective designs for dusters, on glazed or plain percales or cotton satins.

Embossed cottons and flocced and printed nylon sheers for robes make use of such new ideas as allover lace effects and patterns that suggest Swiss applique.

Baby doll pajamas appear in flowery cottons with lace accents. Flaring trapeze skirts stem from high waistlines and bustline borders in gathers, tiers or bias cut styles. They are often topped by very short coats.

Bustlines continue to be accentuated on waltz and full length gowns, though they usually have ribbon belts, midrifts and piping at the natural waistline.

Spring Suits Give Endorsement to Checks in Fashion

Creating fashion excitement in new shades and silhouettes, spring suits give a special endorsement to checks. In all sizes from mammoth to minute, and in all colors, checks enliven a variety of styles, and bid fair to make the checked suit one of spring's favorite ideas.

Among the new shapes offered, in checks and, of course, solids and other prints, are the suit with short (just below the waistline) and lightly fitted jacket, the suit with the short-short (rib cage length) jacket, and the demi-fitted costume suit with matching blouse and jacket lining. Looking especially new is the suit with fitted jacket, now making a comeback by popular demand.

A compromise silhouette is the fitted-effect suit jacket, which indents slightly at the waistline and has a belt or half-belt.

Leather belts return as an important part of many suits, and fur trimmings put in a spring-suit appearance.

Heightened Waistline
Extremely high-waisted effects are bypassed in favor of jackets that hint at a heightened waistline through belting, seaming or gathers.

Variations in fit are confined mostly to jackets, which range from easy and unfitted through semi-fitted to fitted. Skirt silhouettes generally

DESIGN FOR COPYING

Hollywood—UPP—The design of Andra Martin's two-piece bathing suit in "Up Periscope" was so pleasing to a bathing suit manufacturer that he will copy it for production and sale. He doesn't even care that Miss Martin can't swim a stroke.

ets—a neutral hue on one side, a lively pastel on the other—are particularly adept at expressing spring's interest in color and neutrals.

Aside from the suit-with-blouse costume, there are, in suit departments, coat-dress costumes, coat-skirt costumes, and jacketed dresses.

B.B. FORMER SLAVE

Hollywood—UPP—Screen "sex kitten" Brigitte Bardot played a slave at the age of 16 in "Helen of Troy."
