Orioles Post Best Exhibition Record

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press International

Maybe this is the year the Baltimore Orioles' young movement will pay off – at least with a first division berth.

Picked to finish sixth in the American league race, Paul Richards' upstarts wound u, with the best record among all major leage teams in the spring exhibition standings.

The training season doesn't officially end until today but the Orioles clinched the combined Grapefruit-Cactus league championship Tuesday by downing the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3, with the help of a grand-slam homer by Gus Triandos.

The Orioles, who open the American league season Thursday at Washington, completed their spring tuneups with 16 victories in 24 outings for a .667 percentage.

Best in NL

The Los Angeles Dodgers can wind up with the best training record among National league teams by beating the Milwaukee Braves tonight in their final prep at Jacksonville, Fla. They lost a 5-4 verdict to the Braves in the same city Tuesday night and now have a 12-9 spring record against major league opposition.

Perhaps the biggest flops of the exhibition season were the New York Yankees and the Braves – last year's World Series rivals. Going into today's final tuneups the Yankees had a 14-12 record and the Braves were stumbling along with a 10-15 mark.

Only 2,018 fans turned out at Baltimore to watch the Orioles turn back the Phillies with a five-run burst off Ruben Gomez in the first inning. Successive singles by Willie Tasby, Bob Boyd, Bobby Avila and Gene Woodling produced the first run, then Triandos cleaned the bases with a homer into the left-field bleachers.

Boston Blows Chance

Hank Aaron's two-run single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning enabled the Braves to down the Dodgers before an overflow crowd of 12,203 at Jacksonville. Los Angeles scored all its runs off Bob Buhl in the opening farme.

The Boston Red Sox blew their last chance to catch the Orioles in the exhibition standings when they dropped an 11 inning 8-7 verdict to the Chicago Cubs at Victoria, Tex. The Red Sox went ahead 7-6 in the top of the 11th on a homer by Dick Gernert but the Cubs rallied for two runs in their half of the inning, including a pinch homer by Alvin Dark.

The Cincinnati Reds edged the Yankees, 3-2, on a lead-off homer by Gus Bell in the 10th inning, and Jim Bolger's pinch single in the ninth inning carried the Cleveland Indians to a 3-2 triumph over the San Francisco Giants in Tuesday's other exhibitions.

The Yankees, playing before 8,432 at Savannah, Ga., opened a 2-1 lead in the sixth inning on a two-run homer by Yogi Berra but the Reds tied the score in the eighth on a walk and singles by Frank Robinson and Del Ennis. Bell's game-winning homer came off Yankee rookie Ed Dick.

A crowd of 3,683 at Des Moines, Iowa, watched the Indians score all their runs off Mike McCormick in the ninth inning. Bolger's single drove in catcher Dick Brown, who had tied the game earlier with a two-run double. Bob Schmidt homered for the Giants in the seventh inning.

Red Raider Bill Pilots In Track

Ashland–Raider cindermen of Southern Oregon college play host to University of Portland on Saturday at 1 p.m.

The local cindermen seek their second straight win after beating Shasta junior college last week.

A number of surprises came last week. Two of them were Sid Smith in the hurdles and Byron Kile in the high jump. Smith had a second in the lows and a third in the highs. Kile gained a first in the high jump.

Smith will team this week with Scott Peterson in the hurdles. Ed Susee will pair with Kile in the high jump.

Clarence Baker and brother, Stuart, will team in the 220-yard dash. The former will run in the 100 and the latter in the 440 in addition to broadjumping.

Swingle In 440

Chuck Swingle will also be in the 440 where he was second last week by about four inches. Both the Bakers, Swingle and Jack Johnson are slated for the mile relay.

Johnson is a runner in the 880 and possibly in the mile. Norm Pawlowski, Ike McCarley, Ed Susee, and Dick Gustufson are among the entrants in the mile and two-mile runs.

Gordon Clayton will be in the 100, 220, broad jump, and the javelin while in the pole vault it will be Jack Kopacz and Larry Derry.

In the discus and shotput Pedro Colley leads the entrants for the Raider cindermen followed by Len Dobry, Dave Lockard, Noble Adamack, and Stan Gribble.

ARE THERE FISH IN THE SALTON SEA ?

After unsuccessfully trying to plant striped bass, silver salmon and anchovies in the Salton Sea, fish experts finally found that Corbina, a game fish from the Gulf of California, would thrive in the below-sea-level lake of the Imperial Valley.

Dan Ferris Frowns on New Drug

By GARY KALE

New York –(UPI)– A new drug which might help athletes break world records was frowned upon today by a high official in amateur sports.

Dan Ferris, honorary secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic union, said any athlete found using a drug would be ineligible for any competition under AAU rules.

Unusual fatigue-inhibiting properties of the new drug–known as t-h-a-m–was discovered by two government scientists, who said physiologists believe it would enable athletes to establish new speed records in long distance running and swimming and other type competition. Its previous usage was limited to making soaps and detergents.

Ferris, who has been connected with amateur athletics for over 50 years, emphasized that neither AAU nor International federation rulings permit anyone to enter an event under the influence of a drug.

"Drugs to stimulate athletic prowess are nothing new," Ferris said. "I've been hearing reports of their usage for the past four or five years."

Dr. Robert Galambos, chief of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research's neurophysiology department, said physiologists venture guesses that a man could knock 10 seconds off the world record for the mile.

Daytona Beach Speedway Temporarily Off-Limits For Roadster-Type Cars

Daytona Beach, Fla. –(UPI)– The new Daytona Beach International speedway has been temporarily put off-limits for roadster-type racers following the death of two of America's top big car drivers.

Speedway president Bill France said a 300-mile race featuring Indianapolis type cars scheduled July 4 would not be held. Instead, he said, there would be a substitute 250-mile late model stock car race.

Racing director Henry Banks of the United States Auto club said in Indianapolis the big car race was tentatively switched to Raleigh, N.C.

Banks said Daytona would not be used by roadster-type cars pending "research and development."

Teague, Amick Die

Veteran driver Marshall Teague and 1958 "rookie of the year" George Amick were killed in accidents on the fast 2½ mile asphalt track which opened here only last February.

Both Banks and Pa Purcell, executive director of Nascar, said the two-million-dollar track cannot be blamed for the accidents. But both said the track was "engineered far ahead of the automotive industry."

"We couldn't condemn Daytona as being dangerous," Banks said. "It's a fine track, but it's still way ahead of the equipment now available."

He said speeds of better than 170 miles per hour and 20 m.p.h. winds created a dangerous situation which racing experts believe will be solved only by engineering methods.

Celts Win Third Time

Minneapolis, Minn. –(UPI)– The Boston Celtics have four more chances to win the one game which will bring them their second National Basketball association championship in three years.

All that stands in their way are the Minneapolis Lakers, a team the Celtics have beaten 21 times in a row, including three straight in the NBA best-of-seven championship series.

The Celtics get their first chance to take the crown on Thursday night at Minneapolis. If the Lakers should win, the series will move to Boston Saturday.

The Celtics won, 123-110 at St. Paul auditorium Tuesday night and only a late Laker rally kept the score respectable. The Celtics went ahead, 23-19, in the first quarter and were never headed. At times, they led by as much as 23 points.

Tom Heinsohn led Boston scoring with 26 points, Bill Sharman broke his own consecutive free throw record of 55, and lanky Bill Russell pulled down 30 rebounds, but most of the dressing room talk was about guard Bob Cousey.

Cousey put on one of his greatest ball handling exhibipoints and picking the Laker defense to pieces with deft passes.

Also with Green Bay is Jim Shanley, the former Oregon back. Tackle Gary Raid of Willamette was drafted by Green Bay after last season.
