

Medford Residents Elected To Grand Council Offices

Eugene—Mrs. Joe Rogers, Independence, wife of the Polk county representative to the Oregon legislature, elected grand guardian of the Oregon bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, at the 35th annual session of the group here this week end.

Walter Johnson, Portland, was named associate grand guardian. Other new officers included Vice-grand guardian, Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Portland; vice-associate grand guardian, L. R. Manning, Medford; grand guide, Mrs. William Sult, Medford; grand marshal, Mrs. Louis A. Maulding, Nysa; grand inner guard, Cecil Brown, Portland; grand outer guard, Russell Forrest, Salem.

Several Rogue valley bethel members were given grand bethel appointments during the session and Miss Sharon Blickenstaff, junior past queen of Medford Bethel 14, was awarded a scholarship. Miss Blickenstaff will receive $250 to be used at any college of her choice. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Blickenstaff, 21 South Orange street.

Grand bethel appointments were Miss Suzanne Rogers, Bethel 56, Shady Cove, grand bethel junior princess; Miss Ellen Ward, Central Point, Bethel 38, grand page; Miss Diane Evernham, Medford 14, grand representative to Australia; Miss Sara Vandenberg, Ashland 22, grand representative to British Columbia; Miss Deanne Miller, Grants Pass 13, representative to Manitoba in Canada; Miss Sandra Piper, Kerby 38, representative to New Mexico.

More than 100 bethel members, guardian council members and grand officers from this area went to Eugene for the session.

Mystery Model Feature of Show

A "mystery model" will again be a featured attraction of the Kiwanian Dames fashion show, luncheon and card party to be held Monday, May 4, according to Mrs. Merle E. Foland and Mrs. Boyd E. Budge, chairman.

Assisting with the show, to be held at Rogue Valley Country club, will be Mrs. William T. Clark and Mrs. John H. Pletsch; decorations, Mrs. Raymond S. Wise, invitations, Mrs. L. Paul Walker, door prizes, Mrs. Frank A. Benesh; hostesses, Mrs. Thomas C. Anderson, models; Mrs. Lawrence W. Buonocone, tallies and favors; Mrs. Robert G. Little, menu; Mrs. Curtis Butterfield and Mrs. Arthur M. Savard, publicity.

Commentators for the style show are to be Mrs. William A. Singler and Mrs. Paul J. Dix. Mrs. Emerson T. Anderson will furnish the music. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Foland, Spring 2-2349, or Mrs. Budge, Spring 3-3849.

Kiwanian Dames are invited to a "coffee and talk" social hour from 10 a.m. until 12 noon at the home of Mrs. William T. Clark, 545 Pierce road, April 15.

April Dance Set By Lively Rogues

Lively Rogues Dance club will hold the April dance at Rogue Valley Country club Thursday, April 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Host couples for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John Norman Hillyer. Mrs. Clifford Aldrich will be in charge of decorations.

Miss Ethel Reid To Be Speaker

A travelogue is planned for a meeting of Jackson County Retired Teachers' association at Girls Community club Monday, April 13, at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Ethel Reid will speak of her tour of Mexico. The committee is Mrs. John C. Deaver, Miss Jane Snedcor, Mrs. H. J. Fleischer and Mrs. J. S. Richardson.

ATTENTION! Magnavox Owners

Tune 95.3 megacycles on your FM band each evening for Hi-Fi Music on Medford's New F.M. Music Station

Phone us for adjustments if reception is not perfect.

SP 2-5702

PURUCKER'S

FM RADIO CITY

617 E. Main • Ph. SP 2-8992

Where you find the clothes you love to live in

If you haven't seen our new sports corner, come in and take a peek!

Scene stealers... our picture-pretty formals with bouffant skirts that whirl you into the spotlight!

See Our Wonderful Collection

jean hart's

It's a date!

JUNIOR FROM FORMALS

jean hart's

Miss Roberta Wade (Ferebee Photo)

Roberta Wade, Phillip Nichols Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Wade, Eugene, announce the engagement of their daughter, Roberta Maurine, to Phillip Arden Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Nichols, Klamath Falls.

Miss Wade was graduated from Southern Oregon college, Ashland, last June and is presently teaching at Wilson school in Medford. She is a past president of the Theta Rho Assembly of Oregon.

Mr. Nichols served four years in the United States Air Force, attended Oregon Technical institute and is presently employed by Montgomery Ward company.

A June wedding is planned.

Spring Festival Planned by Units

A spring festival to be sponsored by five valley home extension units will be held May 20 at the Phoenix First Presbyterian church parlors using the theme "bustles to bikinis."

The festival will compare home management of 50 years ago with the present. It is one of a series which will replace the usual large festival for all units.

Committees from various units met last month to formulate plans. Represented were Phoenix, Griffin Creek, Oak Grove, Medford, and Willamette. The group will again meet April 21 at the church when each unit will report on exhibits and demonstrations they wish to provide.

Women's Group To Hear Attorney

John Dellenback, Medford attorney, will speak at the monthly meeting of Jackson County Republican Women, Oregon Federation of Republican Women's clubs, at 12 noon Monday, April 20, at the Red Cross building.

Mr. Dellenback has been active in Republican party work in the area, serving as this year's chairman of Jackson County Lincoln club activities. He is a member of the YMCA board of directors, and is a leader in the Presbyterian Men's club.

The meeting will be a sack lunch affair, with dessert and beverage to be sold by the organization. Baby sitting will be provided.

Members of the Young Republican club are invited to attend.

During the business session, final plans will be made for the annual silver tea to be held May 18 at the home of Mrs. Miller Huggins.

Miss Ethel Reid To Be Speaker

A travelogue is planned for a meeting of Jackson County Retired Teachers' association at Girls Community club Monday, April 13, at 1:30 p.m.

Miss Ethel Reid will speak of her tour of Mexico. The committee is Mrs. John C. Deaver, Miss Jane Snedcor, Mrs. H. J. Fleischer and Mrs. J. S. Richardson.

ATTENTION! Magnavox Owners

Tune 95.3 megacycles on your FM band each evening for Hi-Fi Music on Medford's New F.M. Music Station

Phone us for adjustments if reception is not perfect.

SP 2-5702

PURUCKER'S

FM RADIO CITY

617 E. Main • Ph. SP 2-8992

Where you find the clothes you love to live in

If you haven't seen our new sports corner, come in and take a peek!

Former Medford Resident Queen of Nile Daughters

Mrs. Gordon Corum, former resident of Medford now living in Eugene, was installed queen of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, Saturday, April 4. The ceremonies were held in the new North Eugene High school. The gymnasium was transformed into a setting of elegance with large palms, tall varied colored fronds of pampas grass, and rich Oriental throws and rugs.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Medford, the retiring queen, gave the address of welcome. Taking office with Mrs. Corum were Mrs. C. W. Wray, Coquille, princess royal; Mrs. Arthur Peters, Ashland, princess Tirzah; Mrs. Chester Stonecypher, Klamath Falls, princess Badoura; Mrs. Charles W. Cook, Medford, recorder; Mrs. Ralph McKay, Medford, banker.

Installed into appointive offices were Mrs. Jacqueline Allen, Grants Pass, marshal; Mrs. Gladys Kelley, Cottage Grove, princess Nydia; Mrs. F. C. Crafts, Eugene, princess Zenobia; Mrs. Murray S. Gardner, Medford, princess Zora; Mrs. George Witters, Cottage Grove, princess Zuleima; Mrs. Ben Stone, Coos Bay, musician; Mrs. William Schei, Medford, lady of the keys; and Mrs. Guy M. McFarland, Selma, lady of the gates. Four appointive officers were unable to be present and installation will be held for them at the first business meeting of the temple. They are Mrs. R. D. Copland, Grants Pass, princess chaplain; Mrs. C. A. Palo, Myrtle Creek, princess Zuleika; and the two attendants, Mrs. C. A. Barnhart and Mrs. Eben Miller, both of Gold Beach.

Past Queens Preside

The installation ceremonies were conducted by past queens of Zuleima temple.

Gardeners Plan District Session

Mrs. H. A. Rolley of Corvallis will speak on "Flower Show Practice" at the annual spring meeting of the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, to be held in Ashland Friday, April 17, at the Women's Civic Clubhouse in Lithia park.

Hostesses will be the Ashland Garden club and in keeping with Oregon's Centennial celebration, will wear old-fashioned attire. Anyone attending is invited to wear traditional Centennial dresses.

The morning business session will begin at 9:45 o'clock. Reservations for luncheon at 12 noon should be made with Mrs. Clarence Mathes, telephone MUrdock 5-8441, not later than April 15.

Queen Ann introduced her family to the assemblage, including her husband, Gordon, and their two daughters, Melissa and Annette; her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luman of Medford; her husband's parents, Mr.

and Mrs. R. E. Corum; and her sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Saunders. Melissa served as crown bearer during the coronation ceremonies and Annette as flower bearer. Annette also played two piano numbers during the course of the evening's program.

Mrs. Gerald Saunders sang two special numbers for her sister, "My Task" by E. L. Ashford and "May You Always" by Markes and Charles. An unusual feature of the program were the piano selections by F. T. Crafts. One number "Rondo of Little Anne" Themes" he composed for Queen Ann.

Jewels Presented

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Gordon Corum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luman, Medford, is the newly installed queen of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile. Mrs. Corum replaced Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Medford, in ceremonies held April 4 in North Eugene High school. A large delegation of temple members and friends were in Eugene for the event. (Fehly photo)

and Mrs. R. E. Corum; and her sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Saunders. Melissa served as crown bearer during the coronation ceremonies and Annette as flower bearer. Annette also played two piano numbers during the course of the evening's program.

Mrs. Gerald Saunders sang two special numbers for her sister, "My Task" by E. L. Ashford and "May You Always" by Markes and Charles. An unusual feature of the program were the piano selections by F. T. Crafts. One number "Rondo of Little Anne" Themes" he composed for Queen Ann.

Jewels Presented

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

To Hawaii
Mrs. Carl vonder Hellen, Eagle Point, and Mrs. Horace Thompson, Phoenix, left yesterday morning for Portland from where they flew to Hawaii by Pan-American Airways. They plan to spend two weeks in the islands.

Mrs. Irene Shirley To Be HEC Hostess
Roxy Ann Home Economics club will meet Wednesday, April 15, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. L. Irene Shirley, 2681 Buckshot road. Mrs. John G. Niss will be co-hostess.

LANDSCAPING

That is our business
No job is too large

Let us help you with your landscaping

We have a complete line of quality trees and shrubs to choose from.

WE GUARANTEE TO PLEASE
Contractors and Gardeners
SEE US --

ORNAMENTAL NURSERY
1/2 Mile East of Central Point at the Bear Creek Bridge Phone NO 4-1703

It's from Brophy's Medford

Medford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

Why Wind Your Watch?

With a Rolex Oyster Perpetual* you need never wind your watch. Just the natural movement of your wrist keeps it going. Because it's a Rolex it's uniquely accurate. Rolex invented the self-winding rotor mechanism and brought it to perfection. Time and again tests prove Rolex by far the finest.

*Waterproof—Self-Winding

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.

Mrs. J. E. Moorehouse was the general chairman in charge of the arrangements. Membership in Daughters of the Nile is based upon Shrine relationship. Its purpose is to assist with the work for crippled children. Members contribute directly to the children in the hospitals through sewing projects and through sending toys and "goodies" at various times through the year. Last year $1380 was contributed to the Convalescent Relief fund that is used to take care of "outpatients."

Mrs. Arnold presented the past queen's jewel to Mrs. Rice, and Mrs. Travis welcomed her into the ranks of the past queens and gave her a life membership in Zuleima temple.