

Cepeda, Lollar Blast Giants, White Sox Into League Leads

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The potent bats of Orlando Cepeda and Sherman Lollar have the unbeaten San Francisco Giants and Chicago White Sox off and running today in starts that take the edge off perfect get-aways by the favored pennant contenders.

Neither the Milwaukee Braves nor the New York Yankees has lost a game but a look at the standings shows that each has ground to make up. The Giants' three-game sweep of the St. Louis Cardinals gave them a half-game edge on the Braves and the White Sox' three-game wrap-up of the Detroit Tigers earned them a one-game lead over the Yankees.

Standings at this stage of the race don't mean much, of course, but the point is that two strong contenders—not too heavily favored defending champions—have made the most of the few games played so far.

Cepeda, the National league "rookie of the year" in 1958 when he hit .312, delivered the key blow in a 6-3 victory Sunday after driving in four of the Giants' five runs Saturday night. The Giants had rallied to tie at 3-3 on Willie Mays' two-run triple but the score was still tied when Cepeda went to bat with two out and Jim Davenport on base in the ninth.

Turley Wins Opener
The 21-year-old native of Ponce, R.R., snapped the tie with a triple that put the Giants ahead, 4-3, and Felipe Alou followed with a homer that gave them their final margin of victory.

Lollar, who is hitting .533 and has driven in five runs in three games, drove in two runs Sunday as the White Sox beat the Tigers, 5-3. Lollar had three hits in each of the White Sox' first two victories and has made eight safeties in 15 tries.

The world champion New York Yankees finally got underway after two rain-outs and beat the Boston Red Sox, 3-2, on World Series hero Bob Turley's two-hitter and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-3, in the only other games.

Al Worthington, who took over in the eighth inning, picked up the San Francisco victory after lefty Mike McCormick yielded three runs and six hits in seven innings. The Cardinals scored all their runs in the first inning aided by errors by Alou, Cepeda and Andre Rodgers but Vinegar Bend Mizell couldn't hold the lead against the hard-hitting Giants.

Siebern Homers
Lollar singled home a White Sox run in the first inning and then scored on rookie Norm Cash's first major league homer but the Tigers pecked away at Dick Donovan until they drew even in the bottom of the fifth. The White Sox took the lead right back in the sixth on Jim Landri's triple and Lollar's single and added an insurance run in the eighth on two errors and Al Smith's sacrifice fly.

Norm Siebern, playing his first game at Yankee Stadium since his losing duel with the sun in the fourth game of the 1958 World Series, homered in the eighth to get the defending world champions off to a successful start. Turley didn't yield a hit until Pete Runnels doubled in the seventh and wasn't touched for the second Red Sox hit until Vic Wertz singled with two out in the ninth. Singles by Siebern, Yogi Berra, Gil McDougald and Marv Throneberry produced a 2-0 Yankee lead in the first inning.

Don Demeter's two-run seventh-inning double put the Dodgers ahead, 4-3, and a double by Gil Hodges and a single by Ron Fairly produced an insurance run in the eighth. Johnny Klippstein, who pitched the middle three innings, gained credit for the winfall though Clem Labine finished up. Labine allowed two hits and one walk and struck out one in his three frames.

SF Shows Flag Fever

San Francisco—UPI—Cynics might say that it is a little early but it looks as though San Francisco is suffering from a severe case of pennant fever.

The undefeated San Franciscans returned home last night and were met by a host of dignitaries and an estimated 5,000 fans.

Today, the tempo increased with the team slated to get a hero's welcome in a gala parade through downtown San Francisco.

Big Salute
Twelve thousand balloons, 1,000 pounds of confetti and plenty of ticker-tape were to be showered on the team, as pom-pom girls, college bands and the leather-lunged Foghorn Murphy saluted the Giants.

The parade was to end on the steps of City Hall with Mayor George Christopher presenting each Giant with a set of cufflinks.

The first home game is Tuesday with a full house and a near certainty at Seals stadium as the Giants host the Chicago Cubs. Jack Sanford is to make his debut on the hill for the locals.

Yanks Assign Bob Martyn to Richmond Club

New York—UPI—Tom Carroll, a $40,000 "bonus baby" from Notre Dame, who had been unable to gain a starting job with the New York Yankees, was regarded as the key man today in the latest player swap between the Yankees and the Kansas City A's.

Carroll and outfielder Russ Snyder of the Yankees' Richmond farm club of the International league went to the A's in exchange for infielder Mike Baxes and outfielder Bob Martyn.

The Yankees immediately cut their roster to 29 players by assigning Baxes and Martyn to Richmond. Baxes hit .212 in 79 games for the A's last year while Martyn hit .261 in 95 games, mostly as a pinch-hitter.

Norm Siebern Pays Off Debt

New York—UPI—Solemn Norm Siebern says he's simply paying back a debt he owes Casey Stengel.

Siebern's initial payment took the form of an eighth-inning home run that brought the Yankees a 3-2 opening game victory over the Red Sox in a frigid 42-degree temperature Sunday at Yankee stadium.

"I owe Casey a whole lot," Siebern said quietly, without attempting to dramatize. "I don't see how anyone can get any lower than I was after what happened in the World Series, but he stuck with me and you can bet I'm going to give him a little extra."

Siebern's appearance in left field at Yankee stadium Sunday was his first there since he butchered up the fourth game of last year's World Series and helped Milwaukee take a three-games to one lead in the classic.

Zaharias Open Win by Rawls

Beaumont, Tex.—UPI—Pretty Betsy Rawls, who combines athletic ability with brains, has carried off the biggest share of the loot from the Babe Zaharias Women's Golf open tournament.

The Spartanburg, S. C. golfer, a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Texas, played two fine rounds Sunday—firing a two-under-par 71 and then a par 73—for a first money of $997 with a 54-hole total of 217.

Louise Suggs, of Sea Island, Ga., finished second with 218. Marlene Bauer Hagg of Pittsburgh was third with 220. Tied for fourth, all with 224s, were Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis. and Mickey Wright of Bonita, Calif.

Two Shot Men Better Record

Honolulu—UPI—By the time the 1959 track season has ended, the current world shotput record of 63 feet 2 inches should have been shattered.

At Tempe, Ariz., Saturday, Dallas Long broke the mark unofficially four times in an exhibition with a top put of 64 feet 6 inches.

Bill Nieder of the San Francisco Olympic Club also bettered the record in an exhibition here Saturday. A slim crowd of a thousand watched the former Kansas star hoist the 16-pound ball 63 feet 8 1/2 inches. Nieder's best before that was 61 feet 9 inches.

Officials say that Nieder's put will be submitted as a new world mark.

Seattle Noses Portland 6-5

El Centro, Calif.—UPI—First Baseman Frank Kellert singled home Jack Bloomfield with none out in the 12th inning Sunday to give Seattle a 6-5 win over Portland.

Bob DiPietro's two-run single capped a three-run Portland rally that tied the game in the ninth.

Chuck Churn, Seattle's second pitcher, was the winner. Marty Kutyna, the third Portland pitcher, was the loser. Ted Tappe led the 14-hit Seattle attack with three singles in four trips.

It was the Rainiers' 12th Sunshine League victory against eight defeats. Portland's exhibition record is now 7-13.

Konopasek Pacing MH In Batting

Ray Konopasek rapped out eight hits in 12 times at bat during last week's four-game road trip and leads the Medford high baseball team in batting with a rousing .541 average.

He has 13 hits in 24 times at bat, including four doubles, and has six runs batted in.

Following Konopasek in average is Calvin Dean with .434. Ken Jensen ranks third with an even .400. Jensen leads the team with nine RBIs in its 10 games so far. Mike Parsons, batting .388, has eight RBIs. Cal Dean seven, and Lowell Dean .318, six, along with Konopasek. Jerry Anderson has batted .357.

Cal Dean, with four doubles, shares the lead in that department with Konopasek and Parsons has three triples. Parsons and Ken Durkee each have homers.

7-2-1 Record
Medford with a record now of seven wins, two losses and a tie has a .291 team batting average. Twenty-five of the 70 hits have been for extra bases, including 13 doubles, 10 triples and two homers.

Dennis Barr heads the pitching with three wins and one loss, Tom Laurence is 2-1 and Pat McLaughlin and Herb Wheeler each 1-0.

Konopasek had three doubles and a triple in the two games with Springfield Friday and two with North Eugene on Saturday. Cal Dean was 4-11 with two doubles for three games. Jensen hit 5-11 and Anderson 3-10 over the week end. Jensen drove in five runs and hit two doubles. Anderson had two triples.

The Black Tornado will play Ashland here Friday and will go to Yreka, Calif., on Saturday.

Oregon Staters Nab Twinbill

Corvallis—UPI—Oregon State won its 12th and 13th baseball games in a row here Saturday by sweeping a doubleheader from the University of Portland, 3-2 and 4-2. The first game went 13 innings.

The Beavers pulled out the first game on Gary Baker's double which scored Kim Bradshaw which had walked. Gary Moore was the winning hurler, allowing 11 hits.

Oregon State wrapped up the second game scoring three times in the first inning. Again it was Baker driving in two runs with a single. Another scored on a wild pitch.

Wally Panel drove in both Portland runs with a home run.

SPORTS

Fete Slated For Dodger Ball Team

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Dodgers returned home today after a strenuous spring training session in Florida and playing the first two games of the 1959 National league season.

The Californians split with the Chicago Cubs, beating the hosts Sunday 5-3 and losing Saturday in the opener 6-1.

Tonight the Dodgers will be hosted by the Los Angeles baseball writers at a gala affair in the International ballroom of the Beverly Hilton hotel in nearby Beverly Hills. And Tuesday the team will open up the home season with a game against the St. Louis Cardinals at the coliseum.

Stars Galore
Roy Campanella, former Dodger catcher paralyzed 15 months ago in a near-fatal auto accident, and the Cardinals' Stan Musial will be honored tonight at the annual Dodger dinner.

Art Linkletter will emcee the affair and songstress Dinah Shore and singer Frank Sinatra will be among the celebrities entertaining. Mayor Norris Poulsen also will be on hand along with some 1,400 fans.
