Juvenile Code Bill Passes House

Salem - (UPI) - A bill completely revamping the Oregon Juvenile Code passed the House and was sent to the Senate Monday.

Rep. George Layman (R-Newberg), said the bill HB159 was one of the most far-reaching to be passed on by the 1959 legislature.

He said the bill was the product of extensive research by the Interim Committee on Judicial Administration and that relative few changes had been made in it by the House Judiciary Committee which studied interim recommendations.

Under the bill, juveniles would go only to juvenile courts in the county where they reside. The court would then have a set of procedures fully outlined whereby the cases could be handled.

Morning glory seeds may live five to 10 years.

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that STERLING on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS.

The A.B.C. is a cooperative and non-profit association of 3,450 publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations.

Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment - on the basis of well known standards, known values.

At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show: How much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other facts that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars.

This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report!
