

4-H CLUB NEWS

Westside Hayburners
4-H Horse Club
The Westside Hayburners 4-H Horse club held their monthly meeting at the home of Penny Sampert, March 14. Roll call was answered by naming the parts of a saddle and bridle.

Special reports were given at the meeting by Hether Rode, Craig Wright, Barbara Read, Marilyn Bretzold, Clint Gibson, Judy Bradshaw, Bonnie Cheney and Penny Sampert. The members will give reports on breeds of horses and ponies at the next meeting.

The club planned and held a ride March 19.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Linda Smith.

Table Rock Packrats

The Table Rock Packrats met at the home of Mrs. Everette Brown, April 6.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Glenna Brown. The minutes were read and approved. We then went to work. The younger girls showed one of our leaders how to make a portfolio, for practice.

While some of the younger girls were showing how to make a portfolio, other younger girls were having the holes drilled in their portfolio. The older girls were working on their projects. Carol Myers was absent with the measles. The meeting was adjourned.

The Busy Stitches and Stirrers 4-H club of Evans Valley met at the home of Kathy Johnston. We worked on our goals and program of work for this year. Marilyn Deckard demonstrated how to make a flat fell seam, after our leader explained the advantages of it in such articles of clothing as pedal pushers and pajamas.

Kathy and Marilyn served refreshments of ginger bread, applesauce and whipped cream.

Five members attended a workshop meeting on April 4 at the Frost home.

Our leaders, Mrs. Frost, gave us several important pointers on bread making. Marilyn Deckard and Maryeda Frost demonstrated mixing, kneading, and molding the loaves. Others making two loaves of bread were Kathy Johnston, Sharon Martin, and Jeanne De Roboam.

After lunch we had our business meeting, followed by singing. Two new members enrolled are Kathy Simer and Barbara De Roboam.

While the bread was baking, Kathy Johnston cut out her dress and we sewed.

We judged the results and everyone went home happy to have home-made bread for supper.

Maryeda Frost, Reporter.

April 2 the Eagle Point Breadmakers were host to the first and second year cooking club. The combined meeting was held in the high school home economics room.

Demonstrations were: cake by Bonnie Smith; brownies by Susi Carroll and Frances Huffman; plain muffins by Norma Noble, and cocoa by Ellen Hay and Lauramay Noble.

The business meeting was called to order by President Izora Hayes of the visiting cooking club. Mrs. Noble, leader of the Breadmakers, and the junior leaders, Bonnie Smith, of the Shady Cove cooking club, and Norma Noble of the Breadmakers, were introduced to club members. During the meeting, the 4-H members discussed a combined parent tea to be held in May.

The next meeting will be held April 16, in the high school. The first and second year club will be host to the Breadmakers.

Little Chef's Cooking Club
March 4, the Little Chef's cooking club had a short meeting and went to Fluhrer's Bakery and saw the process of making bread. They gave us cupcakes.

The next meeting was held April 10 at the home of Terry Newcomb. A demonstration on how to make no-bake cookies was given by Terry Calhoun. Her partner, Dianne Davy, was sick. The second demonstration on the proper way to measure and prepare muffins was given by Jeanette Nougier, the junior leader of the Kitchen Maids. We played games and had refreshments. The next meeting will be April 24 at Terry Newcomb's home. A demonstration will be given by Joan Eslinger and Marcy Miller and four of the girls will make muffins.
