

Global Explorer Discusses Bridges With Other People

"Are Americans building silver bridges or walls with the primitives of the world," Philip Geary, global adventurer and explorer, asked members of Rogue River Valley Knife and Fork club at a Wednesday evening dinner meeting at the Rogue Valley Country club.

"The silver bridges are modern jet airplanes," the speaker explained, but added that psychological bridges were also necessary.

"Americans need an education which will enable them to step into any corner of the earth and be able to see a reflection of the native's faces in theirs."

Primitive Conditions

Speaking on "Fun Among the Primitives," Geary mentioned that two-thirds of the population of the world are either primitives or are living under primitive conditions.

"Because of the speed of modern communication we are closer to these people than ever before," the speaker said. "We can learn much from them."

Geary told of his visits to the ancient Santals of India and the Kagabas of Colombia, primitive tribes who few have ever seen. He told of their customs and compared many to customs of other countries.

Geary told of a religious mask in which there were no eyes, nose or mouth. When asked about this, a native told him that it was a holy mask to represent a holy spirit.

"Who knows what He looks like?" the native replied.

Man Released From Prison Must Return

Salem — Robert Benjamin Merrill, who was released from the Oregon state prison last year, will have to be returned to prison, the state Supreme Court decided yesterday.

Merrill was serving a 20-year sentence for assault with intent to rob in Jackson county. He was released on a habeas corpus order May 29, 1958, an order which was appealed to the state high court by the attorney general.

Merrill appealed in the Circuit Judge George Duncan on the basis the law under which he was sentenced was invalid because it provided a greater penalty than the law for simple robbery.

Original sentence was in November, 1954. He was paroled Jan. 19, 1954, and returned as a parole violator April 15, 1954.

Justice William Perry said the high court held the legislative intent was to include armed robbery and the assault with intent to rob in the same class of crime.

Salvation Army Speaker Scheduled

Brigadier Harold Barry, staff secretary of the western territory of the Salvation Army, will speak Friday, April 17, at 7 p.m. at the annual meeting of the Medford Advisory board of the local corps at the Girls Community club.

He will speak on "The Salvation Army in Perspective." Senior Capt. William Rickson will present the annual report of the activities of the Medford corps and Murray Gardiner will be installed as chairman of the board.

Other officers to be installed will be Veri Walker, vice chairman; O. P. Taylor, treasurer, and Joe Naumes, secretary.

The Rev. Richard Jones, accompanied by Mrs. Jones, will sing several selections.

Tavern Singing Bill Passes Senate

Salem —UPI— House bill 404 permitting patrons of beer taverns to sing was passed by the Senate Wednesday with only five votes registered against it.

Sen. Andrew Naterlin (D-Newport), who carried the bill in the Senate, said "I feel that juke boxes blaring in the taverns makes a great deal more disturbance than would a group of jovial customers harmonizing."

The bill now goes to the governor for signature. Voting against it were Sens. Ed Ahrens (R-Turner), R. F. Chapman (D-Coos Bay), Dan Dimick (D-Roseburg), Walter Leith (R-West Salem) and Francis Ziegler (R-Corvallis).
