APPLEGATE VALLEY
Trees Planted at Church

By MAUDE ZIEGLER
Applegate Valley - Through a county-wide Grange tree distribution program, the Ruch Community church has received over 100 young trees which are being planted on the church grounds and at the parsonage, according to the pastor, the Rev. Earl Best. Port Orford cedars have been planted across the front of the church property, with Chinese Elm and Russian olive trees alternating at the sides of the plot. Redwood trees also will be added.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Adams, who have resided at Ruch for several years, are making their home in Medford.
With the appearance of first warm days, conversations drift to trips and the popular Ashland loop drive which opens in early summer. Some who have visited in the Swiss Alps say that this drive into the Siskiyou compares favorably with the Alps.

The ladies' missionary group is an active organization of the Ruch church, and on Sunday quilts and clothing that have been made were on display in the basement.
Much of the clothing is distributed locally to needy families, and surplus items are sent to mission centers in United States. A number of women of both Ruch and Provolt churches went to Cave Junction Thursday to attend a ladies' missionary rally.
Youth fellowship meetings at Ruch are held at 5 p.m. on Monday now, and include supper and baseball games. Choir practice is held at 7 p.m. on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tracy of Gold Hill are new residents of the community, Tracy having charge of the B R ranch for C. D. Kendall. Mrs. Tracy's children, Carol and Burrell McCall, are enrolled in the Ruch school in the sixth and seventh grades.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, who formerly were on the B R ranch, have leased the Glenn Travis home near Copper.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kenyon of Medford have purchased the Madeline mining claims 1 and 2 in the Beaver creek area from Mr. and Mrs. Vance Howlett of Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon expect to use the property as a vacation spot.

Mrs. Charles Williams has resumed employment with the Copeland lumber company in Medford.

Mrs. Glenn Travis was elected president of Ruch Parent Teacher association at the April 3 meeting. Other officers elected were George Redhead, vice president; Mrs. Stanley Larson, secretary; and Mrs. Harlan Cantrall, treasurer.

A wide variety of questions from school patrons on effects of consolidation were asked Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of Medford schools, who spoke at the meeting.

The problem of "how can my boy participate in after-school activities when he has to be home to milk the cows?" or "Is this type of consolidation going on throughout United States, and does it centralize or decentralize population?" were typical questions discussed.

The 4-H Cooking club in the Ruch area has become so popular with youngsters that with an enrollment of 14 members, the club has been divided into two groups. Mrs. Fred Straube is leader of the project and two meetings a month are held at her home.

Miss Alena Mekenken, county health nurse, visited Thompson creek and other areas of the valley Wednesday, in preparation for the pre-school clinics to be held in Applegate and Ruch schools May 7.
