Grange News

Lake Creek

Members of Lake Creek Grange had as their "honored guest" Mary E. Moore, Medford, a charter member of the Grange. Mrs. Moore served in many offices while living at Lake Creek. She was our first "lady master"; quite a distinction at that time. Since she is now living at Medford, she is not able to attend very often. Her grandson, C. W. Abbott, also a former member, drove her to the meeting.

The meeting was the 31st anniversary of the Grange. Master Merton Bradshaw was our projectionist, showing the pictures that were taken of the 25th anniversary of our Grange.

We were very pleased to have as our guests Mrs. Willie McLean, Gold Hill Grange; Mrs. Millie Walker, Live Oak Grange, and Mrs. Jake Brown, Mrs. Paul Force, and Mrs. Lottie Cincaid, Eagle Point Grange.

Faye George, educational committee, reported on an article by James Conant, ex-president of Harvard. He stated that our schools fit children for citizenship. High schools train children to enter into work. The G&E 4-H Sewing club of Eagle Point will be our guests at the May meeting. The girls will conduct their meeting, just as they do at a regular 4-H meeting. These demonstration meetings are a requirement for their year's work. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

The next meeting is May 8 at 8:30 p.m.

Ellyn Charley,
Secretary

Eagle Point Grange

At a recent meeting of the Eagle Point Grange, third and fourth degrees were conferred on 18 new members and two members, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fulton, of the Butte Falls Grange.

The drill team, under the direction of Ray Harnish, consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bitterling, Mrs. Beryl Hickson, Robert Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Vestal, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davies, Verne Matthews, Mrs. Augusta Perry, Mrs. Agnes Hubbell, W. E. Davies, Clifford Moore, Mrs. Ethel Coy, Mrs. Ray Harnish, Mrs. Lenn Hickman, Mrs. Paul Force and Mrs. Dwight McCorkle at the piano.

C. C. Hoover, community service chairman, reported that on April 4 a group of approximately 200 Campfire Girls from Medford, Ashland, Eagle Point, Talent and Phoenix engaged in a tree-planting day sponsored by the Eagle Point Grange. Hoover estimated that 1,250 golden weeping willows were planted along a three-mile stretch of Whetstone creek and around several of the lakes in the Camp White area.

The display table contained a Land Grant Deed to Oregon City, Ore., dated in October, 1874, and signed by Ulysses S Grant. The document was loaned by Miss Ruby Stowell. Also on exhibit were two silver goblets which were presented as a wedding gift to Mrs. Lottie VanScoy's mother in 1875.

Several guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Orie Moore, Mrs. Wilmia Van Gordon, Mrs. Mabel Christianson, Mrs. Stevie McMahan, and A. E. Sims of Roxy Anne Grange; Mr. and Mrs. H J. Arnold, Mrs. Kizzie Edmonsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fulton of Butte Falls Grange; and Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Maxine Hammond, and Mrs. Velda Mang of Central Point Grange.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. J. Clifford, Mrs. Lottie Cingcade, Mrs. Arthur Kent, and Mrs. Ethel Coy.

Mexican Blasts In To Finals

Jacksonville, Fla. —UPI— Pancho Contreras of Mexico upset second-seeded Jack Douglas 6-2, 8-6, to forge his way into the finals and a shot at teammate Mario Llamas in the men's singles semi-finals of the Masters Tennis tournament Saturday.

Contreras overwhelmed the former Stanford quarterback with amazing cross-court placements and steady returns.

Douglas made a stab at recovery in the second set, pushing ahead 4-3, but Contreras came back with three straight games, mainly by taking advantage of his opponent's mistakes.

Llamas earlier beat Warren Woodcock of Sidney, Australia, 6-3, 4-6, 13-11 in a battle of endurance. Llamas' superior physical condition seemed to give him the victory.

Marta Hernandez of Mexico and Christine Mercelis, Brussels, Belgium, captured the first finals event of the tournament. The pair won the women's doubles championship over Laura Lou Kunnen, Clearwater, Fla., and Marie Martin, Australia, 6-0, 7-5.

The schedule was held up a couple of hours because of a slight rain that softened the surface of the composition courts.
