

Surprising Indians Knock Out Sixth Straight Win

By United Press International
 Joe Gordon's surprising Cleveland Indians won their sixth straight game and widened their American league lead to two games Saturday when they buried the Kansas City Athletics, 13-4, amid a flurry of four home runs.

Giants Nip Cards 8-1

San Francisco—(UP)—Jack Sanford weathered a rocky first inning Saturday and went on to pitch a one-hitter while hurling the Giants to an 8-1 victory over the Cardinals.

Stan Musial broke the big right-hander's spell in the seventh inning when he pinch-hit for first baseman Bill White and sliced a single to left field. "The Man" promptly was erased when Chuck Essegian, another pinch-hitter, grounded into a double play.

Sanford, who won his first of the season to match one defeat, didn't seem destined during the first inning. He walked the first three batters who faced him, threw a wild pitch and hit third baseman Ken Boyer during an exhibition of wildness in which the Cards scored a run without a hit. That came home when White hit a sacrifice fly to Willie Mays in deep right center, scoring Gino Cimoli from third.

Those three walks Sanford gave up in the first inning were his total for the day and the only other man after Musial was Joe Cunningham, who was safe in the third inning on a wild throw by shortstop Andre Rodgers. Sanford struck out four batters, including Manager Solly Hemus, who came up as the last hitter in the ninth and swung at a third strike. Sanford's other victims looked at called strikes.

Jackie Brandt helped keep Sanford's one-hitter intact when he backed up against the left field screen with two down in the seventh and pulled in a long fly by Hal Smith.

Orlando Cepeda smashed his fifth home run in four games and Willie Mays, who took batting practice this morning while trying to fight out of a slump, drove in three runs while getting two singles in four times up.

The loss went to Lindy McDaniel, his first of the year who gave up seven hits and four runs during the six and one-third innings he worked. Cepeda hit his blast in the sixth inning off Lindy McDaniel, who lost his first of the season.

Then after two were out, Rodgers clouted his first home run of the year into the left field stands.

McDaniel was taken out in the seventh and replaced by Howie Nunn, who was the first of three Cardinal relief pitchers to work. The Giants exploded for four runs off relievers Phil Clark and Bob Gibson in the eighth inning.

ragan had three hits apiece to help curveballer Don Ferrarese to his second victory. Ferrarese gave up nine hits, including a homer to Roger Maris.

Set down on two hits Friday, the New York Yankees snapped back with 18 hits Saturday to overwhelm the Boston Red Sox, 16-7.

Three Hit Homers
 Hank Bauer, Bill Skowron and Andy Carey all homered in the slugfest, during which Elston Howard slammed five singles in six times up. Jackie Jensen hit a pair of two-run homers for Boston. The Yankees jumped on loser Ted Bowsfield for six runs in the second inning and poured it on from that point. Duke Maas was credited with the triumph although Jim Coates hurled the last two innings.

Jerry Walker, 20-year-old right-hander held the Washington Senators to eight hits while pitching the Baltimore Orioles to their third straight victory, 6-1.

Southpaw Chuck Stobbs was the victim of four unearned runs in the seventh when

Padres Hit Beavers With 5-0

San Diego, Calif.—(UP)—Veteran, righthander Bud Podbielan shut out the Portland Beavers here Saturday on three hits as the San Diego Padres scored their first victory of the Pacific Coast league season, 5-0.

Podbielan went all the way in registering his shutout while Portland starter Glenn Cox lasted seven innings.

Rookie catcher Ken Retzer was the hitting star for the Padres with a home run and a double, driving in three runs. His homer came in the first inning with one aboard and he doubled in Red Graber in the third.

Rudy Regalado, the former Cleveland infielder, hit two doubles for San Diego and led the 11-hit Padres attack with three hits.

Seven of the Padres' hits were doubles as they stopped Portland's two-game winning streak.

The teams play a double header tomorrow with Russ Heman and Jack Striker scheduled to start for San Diego while Marty Kutyna and Ken Johnson hurl for the Beavers.

NCAA GROWS
 New York—(UP)—The National Collegiate Athletic association, founded here in 1905 by 13 colleges and universities, announced today it has added nearly twice that number since the beginning of the 1958-59 college year to boost its total membership to a record 541. Walter Byers, NCAA executive director, reported that the association's membership rolls list 498 colleges and universities, 30 allied conferences and 13 affiliated associations. Twenty-five new members have been added since last Sept. 1.

Pirates Hit 1st Victory; Phils Win

By United Press International
 Jack Sanford limited the St. Louis Cardinals to one hit—a pinch-hit single by Stan Musial in the seventh inning—Saturday when he hurled the San Francisco Giants to an 8-1 victory.

Acquired in a key winter deal with the Philadelphia Phillies, Sanford yielded the Cardinal run in the first inning on three walks, a wild pitch and a hit batsman but carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning. Then Musial, batting for Bill White, sliced a single to left field. He promptly was erased when Chuck Essegian hit into a double play.

Jackie Brandt helped Sanford, who had a 10-13 record last season after a brilliant 19-8 rookie campaign, when he backed against the left field screen with two out in the seventh to haul down Hal Smith's drive. Sanford struck out four including manager-player Solly Hemus to end the game.

Hits Fifth Homer
 Orlando Cepeda hit his fifth homer in four games and Willie Mays, who took a morning session of batting practice, drove in three runs with two singles in four tries.

The Pittsburgh Pirates finally won their first game of the season, 11-5 over the Milwaukee Braves, and the Philadelphia Phillies walloped the Cincinnati Reds, 14-9, in other National league day games.

Bob Buhl, bothered with a sore arm last season when he won only three games, was tagged for four runs and five hits in 1-13 innings as the Pirates won their first game and handed Milwaukee its first loss of the year. Juan Pizarro, one of Buhl's four successors, was hammered for seven more runs in 2-3 innings. When Law slammed a two-run homer and Smoky Burgess a three-run homer for the Pirates.

Gene Freese, obtained in a trade that sent Hemus to the Cardinals as manager, hit a pinch grand-slam homer for the big win in the Phillies' 15-hit assault on six Cincinnati pitchers. Ed Bouchee had three hits and Wally Post, Chico Fernandez and Jim Hegon two each for the Phillies. Johnny Temple and Frank Robinson had two hits each and Jerry Lynch hit a three-run homer for the Reds.

Chicago was at Los Angeles in a night game.

Washington Slams Out 2-1 Victory
 Pullman, Wash.—(UP)—Third baseman Pete Hanson drove a home run into center field to give the Washington Huskies a 2-1 win over Washington State in a Pacific Coast Conference opener here Friday.

Hanson's blow came in the eighth inning and snapped a 1-1 tie.

Sacramento—(UP)—Sacramento State college, defending tennis champions of the Far Western conference, dusted off San Francisco State 6-1 on the courts Saturday, and then beat Chico 7-0.

Three Youths Lodged For Using Automobile
 Three Medford youths, two 14 and one 16, were lodged in Jackson county juvenile detention home yesterday afternoon in connection with the unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, Medford police reported.

Police said the trio, first questioned about alleged breaking and entering at Jackson school yesterday morning, were taken into custody in connection with taking a car from the used car lot of Courtesy Chevrolet, 227 East Ninth st., on several occasions last week. The breaking and entering complaint proved to be unfounded, police said.

Army scientists are using noise to stop noise. New earphones cut out unwanted background noise in the field—gunfire, plane noise, etc. These phones have tiny microphones built into them. These microphones create a sound equal in intensity to the background sound but opposite in phase. In effect, the sound waves collide and kill each other.

Boivin Probable 1961 Candidate For Senate Post

Salem—(UP)—Sen. Harry Boivin (D-Klamath Falls) said Friday that he would probably be a candidate for president of the Senate in the 1961 session.

Sen. Boivin was unanimously elected president pro tem of the Senate in the present session, a new position created at the beginning of the 50th Legislative session. In session, a new position ally presides over the Senate whenever the president is absent.

Back in 1937, Boivin was a speaker of the House and has served in five House sessions and three Senate sessions.

During his lengthy legislative experience he has served on all the important committees of both Senate and House and thus is equipped to preside over the Senate with an unusual amount of knowledge.

The only other name to come up as a prospective president of the Senate is Sen. Alfred Corbett (D-Portland).

In the House, the only candidate for speaker for the next session is Norman Howard (D-Portland).

Some friends of Rep. Al Flegel (D-Roseburg) are urging him to enter the speaker-ship race, but so far he has refused to give any definite answer.

WRONG PEN
 New York—(UP)—A search was under way yesterday for a statue of the last Inca, Atahualpa, believed to be somewhere in the United States.

For 100 years a statue supposedly of Atahualpa has graced the plaza of Cuzco, Peru, but it really is one of Powhatan, father of Pocahontas, shipped to Cuzco by mistake by a Philadelphia foundry.

Lillie Moore House Doomed

Roseburg—(UP)—The historic Lillie Moore house here is doomed. Officers of the Douglas county Historical society have decided cost of moving the 101-year-old structure is too much.

Razing work will probably start this week. The site of the quaint structure will be made into a parking lot.

Mrs. V. J. Micelli, president of the society, said it would cost at least $3,500 to move the house to a site near the fairgrounds.

The site was acquired by the society recently and Mrs. Micelli said it will still be used for historical purposes.

She said there was some hope of saving parts of the house, like panels and fixtures.
