Annual Guest Day Held By Wednesday Study Club

Wednesday Study club observed the annual guest day April 12 when members and their guests met at the Girls' Community club. Mrs. Hazel E. Flurry, president, presided and introduced the guests and speaker.

Mrs. Mark Goldy spoke of her extensive tour of Mediterranean countries which she illustrated with colored slides showing many strange and exotic places. Of particular interest were pictures of ancient ruins depicting the high level of culture these people had attained, particularly in stone work and building crafts. The architecture of the mosques and minarets, statuary, murals, and marine scenes of the blue Mediterranean were shown. Also shown were many street scenes.

Following the program, refreshments were served at a table centered with a white and yellow floral arrangement made by Mrs. J. W. Jacobs. Mrs. O. H. Breneman and Mrs. L. K. Doty poured. The club room was decorated with lilacs and camellias by Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Mrs. Jack Swem and Mrs. M. M. Morris.

Officers Elected

Mrs. Nell Faulkner was elected president of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club Thursday evening at a meeting at the Girls' Community club.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Lola Milhoan, first vice-president; Mrs. Norma Burroughs, second vice-president; Mrs. Donna Edmonds, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellen Lynner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ann Palmer, treasurer; Mrs. Thelma McIntyre, auditor; and directors, Mrs. Margaret Preston and Mrs. Muriel Shortridge.

Mrs. Veve Redmond and Senior Capt. Violet Ricken were initiated into the organization.

During the business meeting delegates and alternates to the state convention to be held in Medford in May were elected. Delegates include Mrs. Faulkner, Mrs. Milhoan, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Burroughs with alternates, Miss Voda Brower, Mrs. Edmonds, and Mrs. Lynner.

A potluck dinner was held earlier in the evening.

Betrothal News Announced Here

Puyallup, Wash.—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Bartrum of Puyallup, formerly of Ashland and Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice Lillian, to Ronald Dihel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dihel, Stevenson, Wash.

The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Central Washington college at Ellensburg and is presently completing army service at Fort Lawton in Seattle.

The bride-to-be attended public schools in Ashland and Medford and Central Washington college. She is employed in an engineering office of Boeing Aircraft corporation, Seattle.

She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Myrtle Bartrum and grand-niece of Edwin and Jesse Cornell and Mrs. Hazel Flurry, all of Medford. Her great-great grandfather, Charles Coker, was one of the early settlers of the Rogue valley. Coker Butte was named for him.

Their marriage is planned for May 24. The couple plans to vacation in Moptana and Washington before he assumes a position as high school instructor this fall.

Eagle Scouts To Be Honored

Ashland-Alpha Phi Omega plans an Eagle recognition banquet at the Commons building of Southern Oregon college May 1 at 8 p.m. It is for all Eagle Scouts living in the Crater Lake Area, no matter when or where the badge was earned.

Reservations must be before Monday, April 27. For reservations or questions write Alpha Phi Omega, Britt Box 365, SOC, Ashland, or the Boy Scout office, 500 East Main street, Medford, or call SPRing 3-7371 in Medford.

The $2 registration fee may be sent with the reservation, or paid at the dinner, it is stated.

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Shady Cove - Trail - Mrs. Delvin Elder of Eagle Point was hostess at her home April 10 for a bridal shower honoring Miss Doris Darrohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Darrohn of Shady Cove. Her wedding to Eldon Elder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Elder Jr. of Shady Cove will be an event of June 6.

Candles and bells provided the theme of the decorations in the rooms. Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Allan Whitehead, Medford, Mrs. Donald Elder, Gold Hill and Mrs. Russell Elder, Shady Cove.

Present were the honored guest, her mother, her sister, Mrs. Lee Maloy, of Prospect; and relatives of the bridegroom-to-be, including his mother, his aunt, Mrs. Edgar Vanderlip and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Russell Elder, all of Shady Cove; another sister-in-law, Mrs. Arleigh Anderson, Trail; his grandmother, Mrs. Gilbert Elder Sr., Medford; aunt, Mrs. Jesse Elder, and cousin, Mrs. Donald Elder, Gold Hill and Mrs. Allan Whitehead, Medford, also an aunt.

Women to Hear Missionary Talk

Mrs. Sterling Sorenson of Grace Memorial Episcopal church in Portland will speak at a luncheon of the Women's auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church Friday noon, April 24.

Because of the expected size of the meeting, it will be necessary for women planning to attend to make reservations by calling the church office, SPRing 3-3111, before noon April 22.

Holy communion will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Mrs. Sorenson and her husband worked for three years as medical missionaries at a British-American School in Liberia, and recently returned to the United States. She will show slides to illustrate her talk.

A baby sitter will be on duty from 12 noon.

Miss Sonja Peterson Elected to Office

Salem—Miss Sonja Peterson of Medford was recently elected chaplain of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music honorary.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson, and is a graduate of Medford High school. At Willamette, Miss Peterson is a junior majoring in piano. She has held the Nancy Black Wallace music scholarship, among others, and is a past president of Mu Phi Epsilon.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Gathright

Gathright-Taylor Rites Held at Home of Bride

Miss Dana Taylor became the bride of William F. Gathright in a ceremony held Sunday, April 5, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Taylor, 515 West Eleventh street, Medford. The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. William Piper, pastor of First Christian church at six o'clock in the evening.

Forty relatives and close friends attended the wedding and reception.

Arrangements of ivy with carnations and white stock made up the setting for the ceremony.

The bride wore a blue chiffon over tulle gown fashioned with cap sleeves, close fitting bodice and bouffant ballerina length skirt. Her hat was of white flowers. She wore a pearl necklace and her bridal corsage was white carnations with pink rosebuds.

"For something old" the bride carried a white lace heirloom handkerchief, which had been loaned to her for the occasion by a friend, Mrs. Leo Webster, Medford.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Leonard McMahan, Gold Hill, sister of the bride. Mrs. McMahan wore a spring-print frock, with white accessories.

Lanny C. Taylor, brother of the bride, served as best man for the bridegroom.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cover and centered with the wedding cake, encircled with pink rose buds and lily of the valley. White tapers in crystal holders flanked the center arrangement. Mrs. McMahan and Mrs. Georgia Wilson, Gold Hill, made and decorated the wedding cake. Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Cave Junction, sister of the bride cut and served the cake. Mrs. McMahan presided at the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were Miss Virginia Foco, Chula Vista, Calif., Miss Gayle Wheeler and Miss Colleen Dunn. Mrs. Donald Hayes took charge of the gift table and Miss Sharon Roberts the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Taylor wore a white frock with pink and black polka dots and white accessories.

Of interest is the fact that the newlyweds selected the bride's mother's birthday anniversary for their wedding day.

Among the guests were the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Taylor, 424 King street, Medford, who celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary last February.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. She came to the Rogue Valley with her parents to reside 12 years ago.

Mr. Gathright, attended schools in Long Beach, Calif. and is a graduate of Sternberg High school, Manila in the Philippines. He served four years in the United States Army with the medical corps during which he was stationed at Letterman general hospital, San Francisco, in China and the Philippines. He also served two years with the Merchant Marine corps.

He is employed by Pacific Fruit company and the newlyweds will reside in Medford.

School Reports 100 Per Cent PTA Enrollment

Hoover School Parent-Teacher association has attained 100 per cent family membership, according to an announcement at the April meeting by Mrs. Emerson Anderson, president. The number represents 181 families.

James Akerill was in charge of a square dancing and tumbling demonstration during the meeting and the fourth grade chorus, directed by Mrs. Marjorie Blaar, sang. Poppy posters from seven Medford schools were displayed in the gymnasium. Scott Harrison of Jefferson school was the winner.

Room count was won by Mrs. Esther Fiegel's fourth grade.

Mothers of children in the second grade were hostesses.
