

Giants Virtually Tie Lead After Beating Cards 3-1

United Press International
Laugh when you mention the "sophomore jinx" because that's what Orlando Cepeda and the San Francisco Giants are doing.

Cepeda, the National League "rockie of the year" last season, certainly can afford to giggle with a cool .385 batting mark and a red-hot hitting streak of nine straight games.

So can the Giants, now on the threshold of first place and making a legitimate pitch at the pennant in their second year at San Francisco.

The Giants climbed into a virtual tie for the lead with the Braves when they beat the Cardinals, 3-1, Sunday.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli subdued St. Louis on eight hits for his third straight victory. Cepeda started Bill Rigney's crew on their way to victory when he doubled off loser Larry Jackson in the second inning and rode home on Felipe Alou's single. He added a single later in the game. Willie Mays drove in two of the Giants' runs.

Tribe Loses First
Cincinnati poured it on for a 12-5 win over Philadelphia while Los Angeles wallowed Chicago, 8-3. The Milwaukee-Pittsburgh game was postponed because of the cold weather.

In the American League, Kansas City handed Cleveland its first defeat of the season after six straight victories, 4-3, but the Indians still retained first place. The Red Sox scored a 5-4 decision over the Yankees in 12 innings and the Orioles and Senators split a doubleheader, Baltimore winning the opener, 7-5, and Washington taking the nightcap, 4-2. Cold weather caused postponement of the Detroit-Chicago game.

Frank Robinson slammed his third homer and drove in four runs as the Reds mauled the Phils. Cincinnati put together two four-run rallies. Snider Homers
Wally Moon's single with the bases loaded broke a 3-3 tie and opened the gate for a five run rally in the eighth inning that powered the Dodgers to their triumph over the Cubs. Lefty Johnny Podres held the Cubs to four hits and was backed by a 12-hit attack that included a homer by Duke Snider. The homer was the 332nd of Snider's career and moved him to 10th place, ahead of Hank Greenberg, on the all-time major league list.

Pinch hitter Zeke Bella of Kansas City was the man who burst Cleveland's victory bubble. Bella came through with a ninth-inning double with the bases loaded off Herb Score, who had held the A's scoreless until they came up with four runs in the ninth.

HOLDS TWO TITLES
Milan, Italy—UPI—Dulio Loi of Italy, the European lightweight champion, added the European welterweight title to his laurels Sunday when he outpointed fellow countryman Emilio Marconi in 15 rounds.

extra innings with a ninth-inning homer.
Home runs by Harmon Kilbrew and Jim Lemon helped the Senators to their nightcap victory over the Orioles after Baltimore had stretched its winning streak to four games by winning the opener with a six-run rally in the seventh inning.

Jets Outlast Bisons 15-14

United Press International
The Buffalo Bisons and the Columbus Jets will be giving International league scorekeepers nightmares whenever they meet this season, if Sunday's doubleheader is an indication of things to come.

The Jets outlasted the Bisons, 15-14, in the nightcap of their twinbill after the Bisons had taken the opener, 10-8.
