

Presentation Of Folk-O-Rama Set for PTA

In keeping with the Oregon Centennial spirit, Mrs. Dena DeKorte's fifth grade class will present the timely play, "Folk-O-Rama, U.S.A.," for the April meeting of the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher Association Thursday, April 23, at 2 p.m. in the school gymnasium. The play deals with folklore of the different sections of this country.

Students taking part in the presentation are Jack, Richard Howley; Jannie, Teresa Gardner; Spirit of America, Christiann Ayers; Capt. Ichabod Paddock, Ted Bennett; Capt. Stormaloug, Douglas Black; Uncle Remus, Kraig Parsons; Joe Magerac, Tom McGraw; John Henry, Gloria Rasmussen; Johnny Appleseed, Dane Hill; Spadebeard, Rhonda Hess; Pecos Bill, Charlotte Martin; and Davy Crockett, James Westerfield.

Members of the Southern Chorus are Lynn Taylor, Sandra Rupp, Kathy Schroeder, Mike Myers, Janice Main, Elizabeth Hoyer and Beverly Bienn. Announced will be Margaret Gemaeich and stage manager is Freddy Hobbs.

Following the program a short business meeting will be held in the cafeteria and refreshments will be served by the mothers from Mrs. Gander's first grade room, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Humphries and Mrs. Roger Westerfield.

Talk on Courts Set Saturday; Women Invited

Any woman interested in information about the court system of this state and nation is invited to attend the next meeting of Medford League of Women Voters. It will be held Saturday, April 25, at the Red Cross building at 12:30 p.m. and speaker will be Miss Noreen Kelly, Medford attorney.

Miss Kelly will discuss organization of the court system, from the smallest to the largest unit. This talk coincides with the league's May study which is on the administration of justice in Jackson county.

Election of officers will be held during the business session.

It is pointed out that the league is open to any woman. The organization informs women about government on all levels, and trains them to participate actively in government.

Luncheon will precede Saturday's business session and program.

Members and guests should make reservations for the luncheon by phoning Mrs. Homer Marx, SPing 2-6845.

Gold Hill Gardeners To Meet on Friday

Gold Hill - Gold Hill Garden club will meet Friday, April 24, at 1 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Ferd Jones, Sixth avenue.

Mrs. Jones, program chairman, said the lesson for this month will be on the care of cactus. The meeting was postponed from April 17 because of a death in the family of a charter member.

Mrs. Gervas H. Southall will be co-hostess.

Episcopal Women Take New Home

Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese of Oregon is now the official title of organized Episcopal women in the state. The new title—the group was formerly known as the Woman's auxiliary, was adopted at the recent diocesan meeting held in Portland.

Church women in the various parishes are expected to follow the trend, first established by the national organization, and women of St. Mark's Episcopal church here will vote on the matter in the near future.

Among valley Episcopal women attending the diocesan meeting were Mrs. William Clegg, Medford, diocesan secretary, and Mrs. Leo Hoag, Prospect, president of the southern Oregon deanery. Representing St. Mark's church women were Mrs. Francis Olds, Mrs. Allen F. Perry, Mrs. Fred Morlan, Mrs. Roger C. Smoot and Mrs. Roy Rickard.

Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Ashland, is the new thank offering chairman for the diocese. Mrs. Douglas P. Elliott, Portland, is president of the state group.

According to the Episcopal newspaper, the Churchman, a total of 372 delegates from Oregon's 70 parishes and missions attended the 71st annual meeting, the largest number ever to be present for the convention.

PTA Unit Announces Officers

Mrs. Alva Wright was elected president of McLoughlin Junior High School Parent-Teacher association at a recent meeting of the unit held at the school. Elected to serve with Mrs. Wright were Mrs. A. L. Nash, vice-president; Mrs. Jean Shepherd, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Underwood was re-elected treasurer. Officers will be installed at the May meeting. Mrs. Bill Rambo, retiring president, presided.

Many parents were present to meet with the counselors and home room teachers for the various grades. Principal Glenn Linn gave a special welcome to parents of sixth graders who will be entering McLoughlin Junior High school next fall, and other parents whose children will be enrolling from the newly consolidated districts, Ruch, Jacksonville and Griffin Creek.

Mr. Linn stated that the enrollment at McLoughlin is 800 this year and is estimated to be around 1075 in the fall. This will necessitate greater plant utilization and the addition of a seventh period. School will take up at 8:10 a.m. for the first period classes and dismiss at 2:30 p.m.; another group of classes will begin the second period at 9:02 a.m. and dismiss at 3:20 p.m. All athletic practice will begin after the seventh period.

Mr. Linn stated that a new hand-book had been prepared for distribution to all parents and the students, and that parents should find it helpful in becoming acquainted with the general policies and curriculum of the school.

Counselors from Medford Senior High meeting with ninth grade parents were Miss Josephine Kirtley, Mrs. Jo Culbertson and John Smock.

Seventh grade parents were hostesses for the refreshments period.

In addition to her church work, Mrs. Cook served on the executive board of the Los Angeles Council for Non-Governmental Organizations Accredited to the United Nations, is a former president of the Santa Ana YMCA and was international relations chairman of the Riverside branch, American Association of University Women.

Xi Mu Chapter To Meet Tonight

Xi Mu chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Anna May, 3444 Forest avenue. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Cecil Davis.

The general program topic will be "The Doing of Things" as a follow-up for the last meeting's topic "The Saying of Things." It will be divided into three sub-topics: "House and Home," "Civic Responsibilities," and "Service Activities." The president, Mrs. Treavell Turpin, acting as moderator, will call on members to give their opinions on these topics and to discuss their actual experiences in "doing" in regard to the topics.

Members have been asked to bring "white elephants" for a sale, the proceeds to go to the cancer fund.

The last meeting of Xi Mu chapter was held April 8 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Stoddard, 132 Winema Way. Refreshments were served by the co-hostess, Mrs. W. G. Slater.

Players To Stage Mystery

Ashland - Agatha Christie, popular writer of mystery novels, is the author of "The Mousetrap," the play to be presented Mother's weekend, May 7-9, by the SOC Players.

This is one of Miss Christie's novels which has proved to be exciting theatre fare. Others have been the often-produced "Ten Little Indians," and the newer plays "Witness For the Prosecution," "The Suider's Web," and "Towards Zero."

"The Mousetrap" is a dramatization of "Three Blind Mice" and tells the story of a group of strangers stranded in a boarding house during a snow storm, one of whom is a murderer. The suspects include the young couple who run the house (James Boyd, Medford, and Swan James, Klamath Falls); a spinster with a curious background (Dorothy Lewis, Klamath Falls); an architect who seems better equipped to be a chef (George Brown, Applegate); a retired army major (William Black, Ashland); a strange man who claims his ear has overruled in a drift (James Cunningham, Malin); and a fault-finding older woman (Dorothy Deckard, Rogue River).

Another character in the story is a policeman who arrives on skis (William Gregory, Medford).

This is the first mystery presented by the SOC Players in a number of years. The last was "Kind Lady," presented during the 1955-56 season, according to Dr. Dorothy Stolp, director.

Two members of the cast are serving as assistants, Dor-Black, Medford, Neal Green, Central Point, is in charge of scenery construction.

Department Officer Visits Medford Tent

Mrs. Della Bisbee, Portland, department press correspondent for the Daughters of Union Veterans, was a visitor at the last meeting of Elta Duell Hubbs tent here. Mrs. Bisbee was en route home after spending the winter in Palm Springs, Calif.

At the next meeting, set for April 28 at 10 a.m. the group will sew for Camp White veterans. After a sack lunch at noon, a business meeting and initiation will be held.

Washington PTA Sponsors Event; Program Given

Washington School Parent-Teacher association sponsored a chili supper and entertainment on April 17 at the school.

Caesar Muzzioli entertained the group with dinner music. Mr. Muzzioli, who owns and operates the School of Accordion in Medford, is planning on taking 78 pupils to the accordion festival in Portland in June. Last year 15 students won prizes, pupils from three states competed.

A girl's trio composed of Rosemary Doolen, Sue Baker, and Coleen Barr sang for the guests. Pam Gilkinson was at the piano, and Bob Sheldon played the guitar.

Three members of the faculty, Loren Soderland, Claude Silverwood and Robert Sage, principal, portrayed what future PTA members would look like 100 years from now.

A "green thumb" store sold house plants, which was of special interest to the women. A clown went down the halls handing out balloons to the children.

Brownie and Girl Scout troops displayed scrapbooks. Brownie Troop 103, with Mrs. Paul Kurovsky as their leader, won first prize for the best scrapbook. The theme of the scrapbook was on Holland. Mrs. Haden Dorsey's troop presented a scrapbook on Hawaii which won honorable mention. The various troops are currently studying the countries they will represent at the May Festival May 26 on Medford Senior High school ball field.

In the gymnasium there was popcorn to buy, a fortune telling booth, and a fish pond. Mrs. Fred Walker and Mrs. Robert Butler's classes painted the fish pond scenery.

Italian drop candles decorated the tables and many wore Oregon Centennial costumes. The association made approximately $250 which will go to help meet the budget. Approximately 500 attended.

Rogue-Elk Unit Elects Officers

Trail-Mrs. Albert Esten is the new chairman of Rogue-Elk Extension unit. Officers were elected at the April meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Fred Morgan in Trail. Mrs. Roy Nolan was assistant hostess.

Other new officers are Mrs.

Kenneth Lacy, first vice-chairman; Mrs. Roy Nolan, second vice-chairman; Mrs. Frank Dolenshek, secretary; Mrs. Morgan, corresponding secretary.

The program topic was "Distinctive Foods," with Mrs. Lacy and Mrs. Randal Axtell as project leader.

Scouts, Leader Auxiliary Guests

Members of Girl Scout Troop 163 and one of their leaders, Mrs. Glen Bessonette, were guests of the American Legion auxiliary for the last meeting.

The girls reported on a recent visit made to the Oregon legislature. They watched both the Senate and House of Representatives in session. They also visited the Oregon School for the Deaf, and an Indian school.

The troop is sponsored by the auxiliary, which gave a little financial help for the trip. However, the greatest part of the money the girls earned themselves.
