Wedding Of Interest In Medford

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held April 19 in Torrance, Calif., when Mrs. Marjorie Skeeters Hopkins, Redondo Beach, became the bride of Theodore Martin W. Sax, Manhattan Beach, Calif. The bride, member of a well-known southern Oregon family, had lived in this area all her life until moving to California a few years ago.

Dr. Earl Barnum of Palos Verdes officiated at the 1:30 o'clock afternoon wedding held at the home of Alvin Pena, son of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her son, wore a powder blue lace suit and a corsage of forget-me-nots and pink rosebuds. Her jewelry included a strand of pearls and earrings, gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. C. A. Pena attended her mother-in-law and Moe Sax, served as best man for his brother.

Flower girl was Cathy Ann Pena, granddaughter of the bride.

Members of the immediate families attended the rites. Following the wedding a reception was held at the Pena home attended by 75 relatives and friends.

The couple are making their home at 3612 Maple street, Manhattan Beach. They plan a wedding trip in June to points in the Rogue River valley, Portland and Seattle.

The bride attended Southern Oregon college and was formerly a Girl Scout executive and camp director here. She is a teacher in the Torrance schools. Mr. Sax attended the University of Oregon and the University of California and is manager and buyer of the American Motors Rambler agency in Manhattan Beach.

Mother and Son Return to City

Ms. William Barlow and son, Michael, arrived at the Medford Airport Friday, April 24 from Ludwigsburg, Germany where they have resided since last September. Mr. Barlow remained in Germany where he is on duty with the U.S. Army.

Enroute home Mrs. Barlow and her son visited between plane schedules in Portland with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitlock, also former Medford residents.

Mrs. Barlow, the former Miss Sharon Whitlock, was met at the airport here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitlock and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Quinn, Gold Hill.

Tea Held At Library

National Library Week activities at the Medford Public library closed April 17 with a tea and tour of the library during the afternoon.

In charge of arrangements were Miss Mary Pat Lucy and Mrs. Edwin Gebhard.

Mrs. Ron James was chairman for the tea with Jayettes pouring for the event. Among those participating were Mrs. Donald Lue, Mrs. Calvin McKibben, Mrs. Earl Potruff and Mrs. Charles Henry.

Short book reviews were given by Mrs. L. D. Buono, Mrs. George Johns, Mrs. Elmer Ness, and Mrs. D. P. Phillips in the fireplace room and tours of the departments were conducted by Mrs. Una B. Inch, Mrs. Charles Freeman, Mrs. L. D. Inskeep, Mrs. Kenneth Baker, and Miss Aline Mann.

Pearsons Attend Wedding of Son

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pearson, 25 Stewart avenue, returned this week from Carson City, Nevada, where they attended the wedding of their son, Robert, to Miss Helene Deltis, of that city.

The bride is a graduate of Carson City High school and the Presbyterian School of Nursing, San Jose, Calif. Mr. Pearson is a graduate of Medford High school and is studying towards a masters degree in science at the University of Nevada in Reno where the couple are making their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keaveny, San Diego, have left the valley after spending several days with Mr. Keaveny's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Keaveny, Jacksonville. Both Mr. and Mrs. Keaveny are pilots, and Mrs. Keaveny has flown in the All-Woman Transcontinental Air races four different years, winning fourth place one year with a Cessna 182. She learned to fly at Montgomery field in San Diego in 1954, and is chairman of the San Diego chapter of the Ninety-Nines. The couple will leave soon for Europe where they will spend several weeks on a motor tour of the British Isles and the continent. (Kenn Knackstedt photo).

Anniversary Observed

Fifty relatives and friends were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bourne when the couple observed their twentieth wedding anniversary with open house at their home at 3825 Calhoun Road, Sunday, April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Bourne were married on an Easter Sunday, April 9, 1939, at the Methodist Episcopal church, Yreka, Calif., with Rev. Edwin E. Malone officiating. Mr. Bourne is a retired orchardist.

Mrs. Inez Hayse, who was Mrs. Bourne's matron of honor, and C. I. Bourne, brother of George Bourne, who was best man were among those present to help celebrate this occasion.

The couple have two daughters, Mrs. R. L. Isaacs Jr., Jacksonville, and Mrs. Beverly Reynolds, Phoenix, and seven grandchildren.

Mrs. Isaacs cut and served a wedding cake which was made by Mrs. L. O. Pendland.

Mrs. Reynolds received the anniversary gifts.

A niece, Mrs. Don Cearley, nee Carolyn Bourne, of Del Rio, Texas, was in charge of the guest book.

Pouring coffee was Mrs. C. I. Bourne, sister-in-law of Mr. Bourne.

Attending the punch bowl was Mrs. Inez Hayse.
