

Filling out dance programs during an interlude at the annual Gold and Green ball held April 18 at Lincoln school gymnasium are Clinton Phelps, Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Darl Gleed, and Mr. Gleed. The annual event is sponsored by the Mutual Improvement association of the Klamath stake, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

day Saints, and was attended by nearly 100 couples. Mr. Gleed, superintendent of the MIA for the stake, was general chairman of the dance. Mrs. Phelps was in charge of decorations which included the gold and green flowers visible in the background.

Gold and Green Ball Held By MIA Here on Saturday

April Showers rained violets at the annual Gold and Green ball held April 18 at the Lincoln school. Inverted umbrellas and violets hanging from the ceiling transformed the gymnasium into an outdoor scene for the dance sponsored by the Mutual Improvement Association of the Klamath stake, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The theme of "April Showers" was further carried out by a hill scene on one wall which included blue birds and daffodils. The entire hall was fenced in by a simulated brick wall.

During a floor show Alvin Lisbonne, Grants Pass, sang "April Showers" and an all-girl original waltz was presented by ten members of the Ashland ward. The number was originated by Mrs. Norman Klavano and Mrs. James Millward.

Eight members of the stake were recognized for their work and participation in Gleasers class of the MIA during the year. They included Mrs. Clinton Phelps, Medford; Mrs. Clayton Hassell and Mrs. Norman Klavano, both Ashland; Mrs. Alvin Lisbonne, Grants Pass; Mrs. Howard Bingham and Mrs. Donna Crocker, both Klamath Falls; and Mrs. Albert Facey and Mrs. Glen Heighet, Etna, Calif.

A large rainbow, which decorated one side of the gymnasium, ended on the orchestra platform which was the pot of gold. The church orchestra was directed by Douglas Stewart.

Attending the semi-formal event were members from Medford, Grants Pass, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Yreka and Etna wards of the church. Nearly 200 persons attended the ball.

Darl Gleed, superintendent of the MIA for the stake, was general chairman of the dance. Mrs. Phelps was in charge of decorations; Mrs. Klavano, refreshments; and Mrs. Ronald Phair, Klamath Falls, dance programs.

Three Grand council of Pythian Sunshine Girls will be held in Medford next year. The announcement was made at the recent 1959 meeting of the council in Eugene.

At the state meeting Tallisman Rosebud council of Medford was named the council to have made the most progress during the year having initiated 18 members.

Nine local members and four counselors from Medford attended the meeting in Eugene. They included Miss Cecelia Fichtner, Miss Mary Anne Brooks, Miss Mary Carol Copeland, Miss Lanae Bostwick, Miss Barbara Kadin, Miss Nancy Kadin, Miss Evelyn Anderson and Miss Stotlar. Counselors attending were Mrs. Harry Bryant, Mrs. Dan Kadin, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bostwick. Miss Layle Bostwick, royal princess of the council, was unable to attend due to illness.

Miss Fichtner was elected grand royal prelate and Miss Brooks, charity of the local council, was charity in the initiation at the grand council.

Delegate Named By Altrusa Club

Mrs. Edith Baker was selected Medford delegate to the 12th District conference of Altrusa clubs at a meeting Thursday night. The conference will be held May 15-17 at Pasco, Wash. Mrs. Baker is a charter member of the local group, which was organized in 1952, and was its first president.

Hostesses for the meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. Maisie Daily, were Mrs. Lucine Miles and Mrs. Edna Mole. Presiding over the refreshment table were Mrs. Wallace Haskins and Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Haskins, vocational information chairman, read excerpts from a speech by William Allen, president of Boeing Aircraft, on "What Russian Capability Should We Fear the Most?" Mr. Allen believes it is their dedication, because no parallel exists for it in this country, he said. Mrs. Haskins also read portions of an article in the Altrusa Magazine, in which the organization salutes NATO on its tenth anniversary.

Dorothy Stolp Play Director

Ashland-Dr. Dorothy Stolp of the Southern Oregon college speech department is director of the spring quarter play, "The Roundup," which will be presented May 7-9 and 9 during the Mother's Week End.

"The Mousetrap," a dramatization of Agatha Christie's "Three Blind Mice," tells the story of a group of strangers, one of whom is a murderer, who are stranded together in a boarding house during a snow storm.

This is the first mystery presented by the SOC Players since "Kind Lady" was presented during the 1955-56 season.

Dorothy Deckard and William Black, two members of the cast, are serving as assistants to Dr. Stolp. Neal Green is in charge of scenery construction. Students may earn points for membership in Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics honorary, by working on the production staff which is not complete yet.

Douglas Stewart, director of the church orchestra that played for the Gold and Green ball held April 18, plays the piano (above) while Mrs. Norman Klavano (left) of Ashland and Mrs. Clayton Hassell, also Ashland, watch. Lincoln school gymnasium was transformed into an outdoor setting for the annual dance held by the Mutual Improvement association of the Klamath stake, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Zontians Conduct Installation

Installation of officers of the Zonta clubs of Medford and Grants Pass was held Thursday at a dinner at Mon Desir. The joint meeting of the clubs has become an annual affair, alternating between the two cities.

Opening the evening, the new officers of each club were presented with corsages of gold carnations.

Mrs. Bonnie Wilson, retiring president of the Medford club, was toastmistress. Mrs. Nina Wilson, outgoing president of the Grants Pass club and Mrs. Wilson gave resumes of their clubs' activities especially the service projects for 1958-59.

Mrs. Elsie Butler installed the officers for both clubs. Taking office for Medford's Zonta club were Mrs. Eloise Winkler, president, Mrs. Ethel McIntyre, vice president, Mrs. Evelyn Graham, secretary, and Mrs. Gertrude Blind, treasurer.

Mrs. Ethel Tennant and Miss Hazel Swayne were installed as new board members.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Brown were presented with Zonta's past president's pins. Mrs. Jean Fish, Mrs. Jean Hart and Mrs. Ilean Grigsby comprised the committee in charge of the evening.

Miss Elma Gockley, registrar of Boise Junior college in Idaho and district governor of Zonta clubs, was a guest in Medford Monday evening. She was honored at a dinner at the Medford hotel, followed by a gathering at the home of Mrs. Hazel Platts. Miss Gockley discussed plans for the coming district conference in Vancouver, B. C., in October, spoke of the growth of the Amelia Earhart fund to help women in the field of aviation engineering, and of other organization matters.

Miss Gockley was accompanied to Oregon by Mrs. E. Brecount, Boise, and the two were registered at the Flycatcher motel, operated by friends of Mrs. Brecount.
