June Ceremony Planned by Pair

Portland—Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hazelhurst, Portland, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Phyllis Anne, to Gerald K. Eskew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eskew, Gold Hill.

The bride-elect attended Oregon State college where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. She is now employed as a secretary in Eugene. Mr. Eskew will be graduated from the engineering school of Oregon State college in June, his major being production technology, and the wedding is planned for later that month.

Glenda Lea Branch

Engagement Told In Central Point

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Branch, 462 Grand avenue, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Glenda Lea, to Lawrence Lee Wiegele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wier, Yuba City, Calif.

Miss Branch is a senior at Crater High school. Mr. Wiegele, a Navy hospitalman, is stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

A summer wedding is planned.

Open House Set In Central Point

Central Point—The annual open house of Central Point Elementary and Junior High schools will be held Tuesday, April 28, from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. when the various rooms will be open for inspection of children's work.

Following the open house the junior high school band and chorus will give a concert.

Members of the Parent-Teacher association will sell coffee, cake and pie in the cafeteria, it was reported.

Wedding Rites Set for June

Many June weddings are being planned, and among these will be the marriage of Miss Rosalie Johnson to James Allen Cooksey. The rites have been set for Saturday, June 6, at Zion Lutheran church here, and a reception will follow the early evening ceremony.

Miss Johnson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. La Vern R. Johnson, 120 Washington street, Medford. Mr. Cooksey, former Medford resident, is now living in Phoenix, Ariz. A former student at Southern Oregon college, he is enrolled now in Arizona State college, Tempe.

The bride-elect is on the staff of Medford branch, First National Bank of Oregon.

Miss Judith Libbey

Summer Rites Planned by Pair

Ashland—The Rev. and Mrs. Lester S. Libbey, 247 Oak street, Ashland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Lynel Libbey, to Neil Tennyson Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Dodge, Boothbay Harbor, Maine.

Miss Libbey will graduate in June from Ashland Senior High school. Mr. Dodge is a graduate of Boothbay Harbor High school, and Maine Vocational Technical Institute, South Portland. He is an airman second class in the United States Air Force and is stationed at Nellis Air Force base in Nevada.

A June wedding is planned.

Returns to City

James W. Gibbs has arrived in Medford from Tucson, Ariz., where he has been living for the past three years and will again reside here. Mrs. Gibbs and the couple's three children will arrive later.

Mr. Gibbs is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gibbs, 1375 South Columbus avenue, and his brother is Walter Gibbs of the same address.

Couple Married

Phoenix—The wedding of Miss Lois Marie Dysinger and Jerry Raymond Troxel was solemnized Thursday, April 23, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Phoenix Nazarene church with the Rev. Marvin Lumley performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dysinger, 116 South Third street, Central Point, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Troxel, Camp Baker road.

The bride attended and graduated from Crater High school in 1958. Troxel attended Phoenix grade and high schools.

The bride's attendant was her twin sister, Linda Dysinger. Best man was Delbert Moore, Medford.

A reception was held in the church annex afterward with about 50 relatives and close friends attending.

The couple left following the reception for the East where Mr. Troxel will report to Langley Air Force base in Virginia.

DeMolay to Give Flower Degree At OES Session

Central Point—Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a stated meeting Tuesday, April 28, at 8 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, Central Point.

Willis Williams of the Medford chapter and member of Crater chapter of Central Point, will present the DeMolay Flower degree.

Fellowship Luncheon Set Friday

Final plans are underway for the May Fellowship luncheon Friday, May 1, sponsored by Medford Council of United Church Women. All Valley women and ministers are invited to attend the event starting at 12 noon.

Mrs. Everett Faber, president of the council, will preside during the luncheon hour and Dr. George Roseberry, pastor of the host church will give table devotions. Honored during the luncheon period will be women selected from the affiliated churches in recognition of their Sunday school service. Mrs. William Myers will receive names of candidates at Spring 2-7215.

Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and her committee are in charge of luncheon arrangements.

Mrs. Everett Lasher, chairman for the day's program, has announced that the program will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary. Miss Verna Cingcade, teacher of Bible history in schools of the county under sponsorship of the Jackson County Board of Christian Education, will tell of her work and progress being made in classes which she teaches.

A panel will discuss the day's theme "How Much is enough—and 632"? Moderator will be the Rev. H. C. Covert, Zion Lutheran church; Elliott Becken representing the public schools; Mrs. C. E. Chamberlain, Sunday school superintendent; Mrs. Thomas McCommant, the parent; Mrs. Robert Dames, Sunday school teacher; and Mrs. Robert Heide-man, interested person.

Hedrick Junior High students will sing several selections, directed by Carroll Graber. Organist for the afternoon will be Mrs. Gerald Sherman.

Ministers assisting in the afternoon will be the Rev. Raymond Hurn, the Rev. John S. Power, and the Rev. Elvin Tollefson. Proceeds from the luncheon will be given to the Jackson County Board of Christian Education to assist its program.

All interested are invited to attend. A nursery for small children will be maintained.

Perk up tomato juice cocktails with a bit of crumbled or ground basil and garlic powder. Add to taste.
