HORNBROOK RC Drive Is Successful

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN
Hornbrook — Hornbrook went "over the top" of the 1959 quota for the Red Cross drive, according to Mrs. Ed Smith, local chairman. Canvassing the town besides Mrs. Smith, were Mrs. Henley Clawson and Mrs. Frank Carozza, and covering the Henley district, Mrs. L. C. Walsh. The drive was completed last week.

Mrs. Lester Nye, Mrs. L. C. Walsh and Mrs. Harry Chapman drove to Ft. Jones Thursday where they spent the afternoon with Mrs. Laurant at their new home, "Hilltop House."

Mrs. Loren Cummins attended a luncheon meeting Saturday at Delta Kappa Gamma, national teaching sorority. The luncheon was served in the employees' lunch room of the McCloud River Lumber company at McCloud. Guests were then taken on a tour of the company's tree farm, where each was given an envelope containing two Ponderosa pine tree seeds. On each envelope was printed "Membership card welcoming you to the tree farm of the McCloud River Lumber company. The dues are the planting of these Ponderosa pine tree seeds. Plant them in this area."

Hornbrook Boy Scout Troop participated in the area Camporee held last weekend on Indian Creek, four miles from Ft. Jones. Those attending were Scoutmaster Harley Baker, Senior Patrol Leader Mike Barnum, Loren Howard Cummins, patrol leader; Mike Turnbow, patrol leader; Bruce Goodman, Darrel Jones, Bill Jones, Douglas Bennett, George Chadwick, Randy Peters, Steve Farmer, Danny Metzger, and Laurant Paine Jr. of Ft. Jones.

In the grammar school baseball game Friday, April 17, Hills beat Hornbrook by a score of 3 to 0, in a game exceptionally well-played on both sides. On Friday, April 24, Hornbrook traveled by school bus to Horse Creek for a ball game. Horse Creek extended an invitation to the Hornbrook team to come early and have a lot lunch with them in their school cafeteria, which the local youngsters accepted.

On Sunday, April 19, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watt and Mr. and Mrs. Dwan Hammer drove to Mt. Shasta where they attended a party given by the Shrine club at the Mt. Shasta Ski Bowl lodge. About 200 guests, all local members of Ben Ali Temple of the Shrine of Sacramento, attended a steak dinner at the lodge.

Mrs. Ward Pert and daughter, Dawn, of Stockton, Calif., have been visiting for the past 10 days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth. On Sunday, April 19, they celebrated Killingsworth birthday at the home of another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas and children, in Yreka.

Other guests were another daughter, and a son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Killingsworth and children, all of Hills. On April 22, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas became parents of a son, John Everett, at the Siskiyou General hospital in Yreka.

Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp was hostess for the Women's Society of the Methodist church at her home Thursday, April 23. Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Henley Clawson, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth.

Plans were made for the annual cake and apron sale which is held the Saturday before Mother's Day at the T. Jones store. The Mother's Day tea, to be held May 7 at the church, will honor all senior mothers in the community.

A family night dinner will be held Wednesday, April 29, at the church at 6 p.m. This will be a potluck dinner, followed by a community hymning. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. They are president, Mrs. Henley Clawson; vicepresident, Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth; secretary, Mrs. Harry Chapman; and treasurer, Mrs. Ardon Burns.

The next regular meeting will be held May 14 at the home of Mrs. George Braut-lacht.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp on Tuesday were Wayne Wyatt and his fiancée, Miss Earlene Obenshain, both of Central Point, Ore. Wyatt is a brother of Mrs. Bloomingcamp's son-in-law, Dick Wyatt of Medford, and was home on leave from the Air Force.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivon Howard drove to Medford Thursday where they met Mrs. Edna Myers who arrived on the plane from Fullerton, Calif., to visit them. Mrs. Myers is a friend of the Howards.

Guests of the Howards due to arrive on Friday were Mrs. Howard's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burwash. They are enroute by car to their home in Champaign, Ill., after traveling for the past two months in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowe and Mrs. Gus Larson were shopping in Medford Tuesday.

Daylight Saving Confusion Starts

By United Press International
The sun set an hour later in most eastern and midwestern states east of the Mississippi river during the week end following the annual switch to daylight saving time.

The eastern states, plus California and Nevada in the Far West, set their clocks ahead one hour at 2 a.m. local time, Sunday. The "fast" time will continue into September or October.

Most of the South and West remained on standard time.

PROSPECT Scouts Plan Entry

By FRANCIS RING
Prospect — Prospect Boy Scouts, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Weldon Downing, are planning to enter the Scout circus in Medford May 16. They plan a building project, possibly a bridge or tower, Scout officials said.

An overnight hike is planned May 23. Boys joining the Scouts recently at a Troop meeting were Rex Boothby, Arthur Andresen, Jerry Wilson, Alvin Karjala, David Pierce and Ernie Setzev.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Poole and Charles have bought the Harold Hickson property and expect to be in their new home by Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Stone are moving from Medford to their home at Prospect where the Poole's have been living. The Harold Hicksons have bought a new mobile home and will be staying in the Prospect area.

Mrs. Roy Vaughn is seriously ill at her home on Red Blanket rd.

The Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley of Shady Cove had Sunday dinner here with the Rev. and Mrs. Boyd Powers and sons, Boyd Jr., and David.

Visiting friends and relatives here last week was Mrs. Joyce Ring and son, Melvin, of Gold Beach. They left Prospect Saturday and went to Medford where they visited Mrs. Ring's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison.

Robbie Sharp spent Friday, April 17, in a Medford hospital while undergoing minor surgery.

Word was received here recently of the death of Floyd Cunningham in Klamath Falls, Cunningham is a former resident of Prospect. Attending the funeral on Friday from here were Mrs. Eloise Phipps, Maude Arant, and Waldo Nye.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ring Jr., Saturday, April 18, were the Rev. and Mrs. William Reeve and Ken of Medford.

Maude Arant has returned home after a 10-day visit with relatives in Albany, Ore.

The Prospect Parent Teachers association has expressed appreciation to those who contributed help and food to the turkey dinner and made it a success.

Georgene Ring was guest of honor at a party on her 7th birthday, April 21, at the home of Mrs. Hope Hedgepeth. Her mother told a favorite story entitled, "Willie the Mouse," and games were played, including a fish pond where everyone could fish for gifts.

Those attending were Ronnie Ross, Kim Gray, Opal and Ida May Wyatt, Susan Holt, Edward, La Rue, and Brenda Adams, Mary and Sue Beck, Shirley, Susie, and Judy McLaughlin, Jerry, Jackie and Buddy Parton, Sandra Walters, Darwin Cloud, Ellen Robinson, Rickey Krell, Ruby and Frannie Sharp, Jerry Scriven, Bonnie Bliss, Junior and Bobbie Mitchem, Laurie Sweet, Mary Ring and Jay Downing. Assisting with games, refreshments and transportation were Mrs. Geneva Mitchem, Mrs. Jerry Downing, Mrs. Maxine Parton, Mrs. Hope Hedgepeth and Patty Ring.

Returning home Wednesday night from a Nazarene Sunday School and Young People convention were the Rev. George Fitch, Donna Struck, Jill Hedgepeth, Paul Rogers, and Wallace Nye. The convention was held in Roseburg Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and was climaxed with a banquet Wednesday evening.

Returning from Oklahoma last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wyatt and children and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pruitt. Mr. and Mrs. Pruitt stayed here only a few days and returned Sunday to Oklahoma where Mrs. Pruitt will stay with her father, who is ill.

Den 2, Cub Scout, Pack 19, went fishing at Dey's Trout Farm Thursday. Each of the boys caught a fish with Jimmy Rogers winning a prize for the largest fish. Boys attending were Terry Parton, Jimmy and Glen Cloud, Ronald Bastiani and Stewart Carico. The boys were accompanied by their den mother, Mrs. Bastiani.

The Prospect Lions auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Lee Hoag Wednesday, April 22. Plans for the Jamboree were discussed. Those attending were Carolyn Harding, Velma Harding, Velma Chapman, Thelda Bevins, Alta Goode, Edna Clevenberg, Carleen Maxwell, Margaret Greive, Tommy Greive and the hostess, Lee Hoag.

RESORT GETS 'PRESENT'—London (UPI)—Russia has a May Day surprise in store for residents of the Black Sea resort town of Sochi—a television station. A Moscow broadcast heard here Sunday said the new station would begin broadcasting May 1 as a "present" to Sochi.

GRANDVIEW Visitors At Stokes Home

By LILLIAN KNIGHT
Grandview — Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb of Arcadia, Calif., spent the week end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stokes and son, Charles, sister and brother-in-law of Lamb. They also visited with relatives in Central Point and other places in the valley. Monday they made a trip to Crater lake before returning to their home.

Visiting over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Yocom, were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pixler from Yreka, Calif.

Harvey Gwinn and his brother of Yreka, Calif., have been working on their house on Roberts rd. which up to now, has been unfinished. They are now sealing it, putting in hardwood floors and plumbing.

Robert Stokes has purchased the interest of the late John C. Malone of Watkins and Malone, real estate agents.

Ray Jones, brother-in-law of Mrs. Ray Chamberlin, who was injured Wednesday while working on the new Sears building on East Jackson st., is still on the critical list at the Rogue Valley hospital. He received a broken back, broken pelvis, other broken bones and injuries.

Godfrey To Enter Hospital Today

New York (UPI)—Arthur Godfrey is scheduled to enter Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center after lunch today which has forced him to take an indefinite leave of absence from his radio and television programs.

Godfrey flew here Sunday in his private plane from his Virginia farm where he went to rest for a week after learning he faced probable surgery for the chest growth.

Godfrey said he had been free for six days of the pain which led to the discovery of the chest growth. It had previously felt, he said, "like you swallowed a piece of steak you forgot to chew."

Wyatt Earp Home Looted on Ruse

West Los Angeles (UPI)—Burglars lured the houseboy of Hugh Wyatt Earp, away from his employer's home Sunday, then broke in and stole clothes, jewelry, liquor, and his shootin' irons.

The houseboy, Stig Hoglund, said he received a telephone call ordering him to appear at a police station to take care of a traffic ticket. Police told him the call was a phony, but by the time he got back to the house he found it had been ransacked.

Stolen were two automatic pistols, 20 sports shirts, 12 pairs of slacks, assorted jewelry and several bottles of champagne.

Lens, France, is the center of a rich coal district.
