

LA Winner Over Cards In Slugfest

Pittsburgh, Pa. — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, leading the National league by a slim margin for the first time in almost two years, paused here for a single game tonight before traveling onto Philadelphia.

Young Don Drysdale from Van Nuys was tagged by the Dodgers to take the mound against Pittsburgh's George Witt (0-2). Drysdale, 22 has a 2-1 record this year.

The Dodgers outlasted the cellar-dwelling St. Louis Cardinals in a marathon 3 hour, 29-minute game at Bush stadium Sunday to score a 17-11 victory and take the three-game series 2-1.

Big Innings
In a wild slugfest that included a five-run and two four-run innings, the Dodgers outbit the Cards 20-16 and clinched the game in the eighth inning when they launched their second four-run frame highlighted by a two-run double by Gil Hodges. It was his third hit of the game.

Rookie pitcher Gene Snyder 28, a southpaw from York, Pa., made his major league debut by hurling the last three and a third innings to get credit for the win. He allowed five hits, walked one and struck out four.

The Dodgers' Charlie Neal slammed out five hits for as many times at bat.

Big Mike Golf Victor

Las Vegas — (UPI) — There were thousands of gamblers trying to get rich in Las Vegas during the week-end but the big winner turned out to be a "pore" boy from Durham, N.C.

Mike Souchak, who confesses he "lost" $2.75 playing the slot machines, picked up the $10,000 first prize for winning the seventh annual Tournament of Champions.

And he got another $12,000 or so as his share of the giant Calcutta pool.

Souchak had a 281 score in the high winds that prevailed over the Desert Inn Country club course—two strokes better than Art Wall.

Gene Littler, the three-time former champion, finished with a strong 71 for third place at 285, worth $3,000. Julius Boros, defending champion Stan Leonard and Doug Sanders ended in a three-way deadlock for fourth at 289.

Linfield Keeps Front Position

United Press International
Linfield stayed in first place in the Northwest conference baseball race over the week end by sweeping a doubleheader from Willamette, 10-4 and 12-3.

Lewis and Clark kept on the Wildcats' heels by taking two from Whitman, 6-1 and 6-5. Linfield is 6-1 and Lewis and Clark 5-1.

Linfield has a one-half game edge over the second place Pioneers.

In other action Pacific and College of Idaho split. Pacific took the first game, 7-3, but C of I came back to take the nightcap, 3-1.

Orioles Lick Yankees in Pair; Los Angeles on Top in National

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Paul Richards says the sky is the limit for his Baltimore Orioles and who's going to argue with him after a week-end sweep that has the Yankees off to their worst start in five years?

Richards had a right to crow a bit Sunday because his Orioles swept a doubleheader from the Yankees, 5-4, and 3-2, and thus dumped the world champions into the second division. With seven losses in 13 games, the Yankees have made their poorest start since 1954 — when they failed to win the American League pennant.

The Orioles themselves are tied with the Chicago White Sox for second place one game behind the Cleveland Indians. The White Sox cooled off the Indians Sunday by beating them, 6-5 and 5-2, as Early Wynn and Billy Pierce doubled in spades as pitching and hitting heroes.

First in History
The Orioles, who won a three-game series at Yankee Stadium for the first time in their history, pushed over two runs in the ninth inning to take the first game and then got a dazzling knuckleball performance from Hoyt Wilhelm in the nightcap. Along the way, Richards also managed to "out-think" Casey Stengel by tossing 20 players into the opener and also bunting on the wet grass after a 16-minute interruption caused by rain.

The Washington Senators nicked the Boston Red Sox, 2-1, and the Kansas City Athletics edged the floundering Detroit Tigers, 4-3, in the other American league games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers took over first place with a 17-11 win over the St. Louis Cardinals, the Cincinnati Reds outslugged the Milwaukee Braves, 11-10, the San Francisco Giants beat the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies bounced back from a 9-2 loss to the downed Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-5, in National League activity.

Hurls Five-Hitter
Jim Finigan tied the opener with a ninth-inning pinch single and Brooks Robinson then singled home the decisive run to beat Whitey Ford in relief. Wilhelm was the whole show in the nightcap, limiting the Yankees to five hits and striking out eight while scoring his second straight win. Wilhelm's knucklers were working so well that Baltimore catcher Gus Triandos tied an American League record by being charged with four passed balls.

Wynn doubled with the bases filled during a six-run third inning rally. Then Pierce pitched an eight-hitter, doubled home two runs and scored himself after a ninth-inning triple to win the second game almost single-handed.

Roy Sievers and Jim Lemon hit homers for the Senators and Bill Fischer scattered nine Boston hits.

Bob Cerv's third-inning homer which centerfielder Harvey Kuenn lost in a fog turned out to be the winning run for the Athletics who handed the Tigers their 12th defeat in 13 games.

Dodgers Lead League
The Dodgers soared into first place for the first time as a Los Angeles entry by scoring four runs in both the eighth and ninth innings. Charlie Neal went 5-for-5, Carl Furillo had four hits and Gil Hodges drove in five runs with three hits.

The Reds, who hadn't beaten Warren Spahn for almost two years until Saturday, did it for the second time in 24 hours when Johnny Temple doubled in the ninth and scored on Frank Robinson's sacrifice fly.

Jackie Brandt's seventh-inning homer was the decisive blow for the Giants who beat fireballer Glen Hobbie. Jack Sanford tossed a four-hitter and fanned four in winning his third game.

Dick Groat's first grand slam in the majors led the Pirates to their opening win but then Dave Philley and Willie Jones homered to gain the Phillies a split.

Beavers Tip WSC Team
Corvallis — (UPI) — Oregon State did something Saturday it had not been able to accomplish in 38 years—beat Washington State in track. The Beavers edged the Cougars, 66-65, in a Northern division dual meet.

Oregon State was without the services of broad jumper Darrell Horn who was out with a pulled leg muscle.

Washington State piled up 10 first places to Oregon State's five but fell behind in seconds and thirds.

John Simpson and Don Ferguson placed 1-2 in the mile with Simpson setting a new OSC record with a time of 4:15.7, breaking a standard set in 1920 by Grant Swan.

Cliff Cordy won the quarter-mile for the Beavers.

PILOTS TOP OSC
Corvallis — (UPI) — University of Portland downed Oregon State 6-1 in tennis Saturday.

SEATTLE WINNER
Portland — (UPI) — Seattle University whipped Portland's Pilots in a baseball twin bill Sunday, 16-7 and 4-3.

Owl Cindermen Subdue Raiders
Klamath Falls — (UPI) — Oregon Tech defeated Southern Oregon 74-57 in track Saturday.

SURGERY FOR THOMAS
Boston — (UPI) — World high jump champion John Thomas was expected to undergo plastic surgery in his injured "jumping" foot today with the outlook for full recovery "good." The lanky Negro youth mangled the foot—the one that springs his record-shattering leaps—in an elevator accident at a Boston University dormitory about five weeks ago.

WORKING OUT—Red Sox batting star Ted Williams goes through his first workout of the '59 season at Fenway Park, Boston. Williams has been sidelined so far this year, with a pinched nerve in his neck.

Red Raider Baseballers Will Tussle OTI Tuesday

Ashland — Southern Oregon college and Oregon Tech are slated to round out rivalries in baseball action tomorrow when they collide for the third time this year on the SOC diamond at 3 p.m.

The Raiders took the first game with OTI by 5-1 mark but the Owls bounced back to take the second in a 12-inning marathon last Tuesday in Klamath Falls 5-4.

At present the Raiders are riding on top in the Oregon Collegiate conference standings with a 4-1 record.

Raider Coach Ted Schopf has a choice of four starters among Don Vannice, Kermit McLemore, Dave D'Oliveo and Tom Speelman to pitch the game.

Tony Rausch, who went the distance against the Raiders last week, did not see action over the week end and he may be the choice of OTI Coach Ralph Carr.

Catching and leading the Raider hitters will be Jim McAbee, who is sporting a .425 average in the 11 games the Raiders have played.

In the outfield it will be LeRoy King in center, Phil Sword in right and either Ray Weinholt or Eldon Francis in left.

Chuck Nevi will be at third base, Gordie Carrigan at short, Jim Dietz at second and Larry Maurer at first.

This is only the beginning of a big week of baseball for the Raiders. They meet Portland State in a single game Friday on the SOC diamond followed by a doubleheader on Saturday. Sunday the Raiders play Humboldt State on the same field in two games to make a total of five in three days for the Raiders.

Cheese has been a staple food for more than 4,000 years.

Mountie Pitcher Hurls No-Hitter Pfeiffers Roll Record

United Press International
A no-hit, no-run game by righthander John Wilmarth of Eastern Oregon highlighted Oregon Collegiate conference baseball action over the week end.

Wilmarth's no-hitter came in Portland as EOC won the first game of a doubleheader. He struck out six and walked two during the seven inning game. Portland State won the second game 11-10.

Oregon College of Education defeated Oregon Tech twice at Klamath Falls, 5-3 and 12-4 in other league action.

PINCH-HIT WELL
Baltimore, Md. — (UPI) — In a pinch, call on the Baltimore Orioles. As a team, Baltimore pinch hitters have connected safely 15 out of 33 times this season for a .455 average.

Whitey Lockman, formerly of the Giants, has been the most productive with three hits in four times up.

St. Louis — (UPI) — They were tearing down the lanes and taking over the record books today at the American Bowling Congress headquarters.

The 72-day meet closed Sunday with the Pfeiffer Beers of Detroit and their team captain, Ed Lubanski, accounting for two all-time marks.

The Pfeiffers bowled a 3,234 total which replaced the 3,234 scored by the Birk Brothers of Chicago in 1938 and which had been the highest team total in the 56-year history of ABC tournaments until their strike spree.

Lubanski wrote his name in the new record book with a 2,116 all-events score which replaced the previous high of 2,088 rolled by Jim Spaulding of Louisville, Ky., at Fort Worth, Tex., in 1957.

Next year's ABC tournament will be held in Toledo, Ohio.

GONZALES VICTOR
Cleveland, Ohio — (UPI) — If there were any doubts about Richard (Pancho) Gonzales' ability to beat Aussie Lew Hoad, they were gone today. The bronzed Californian walked off with his seventh straight world pro tennis crown and $2,200 in prize money here Sunday with a convincing victory over former Davis Cupper Hoad in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, and 6-4.

Edstrom Sparks OO

Eugene — (UPI) — Dave Edstrom took three firsts and four seconds good for 27 points here Saturday to lead Oregon to a 90-34 dual track meet win over Idaho.

Edstrom, the fourth-ranked decathlon man in the world, captured the low and high hurdles, the broad jump and placed second in the shot, high jump, javelin and discus.

Eight of Oregon's top men, including all its milers, were in Des Moines, Iowa, competing in the Drake relays.

It was the 23rd consecutive Northern division dual meet victory for Bill Bowerman's Oregon team.
