

Canadiens Top Hockey All-Stars

Montreal—(UPI)—Andy Bathgate of the New York Rangers broke the 15-year right wing monopoly held by Maurice (Rocket) Richard and Gordie Howe on the National Hockey league All-Star team. Four members of the champion Montreal Canadiens and two Rangers were selected on the team announced today.

The Canadiens, who won an unprecedented fourth straight Stanley Cup championship, were represented on the first team by goal Jacques Plante, NHL scoring champion Dickie Moore at left wing, center Jean Beliveau and defenseman Tom Johnson. Bathgate and Ranger teammate, defenseman Bill Gadsby, rounded out the first team.

Four Detroit Red Wings and two more Canadiens comprised the second team. Toronto, Boston and Chicago all failed to place a single player on either the first or second teams.

Ducks Rally Beat Idaho 7-6

Eugene—(UPI)—Oregon's Ducks rallied for three runs in the ninth inning here Monday to beat Idaho, 7-6, in the first of a two-game Northern division series. The two clubs play again today.

Five singles—three of them of the infield variety—together with an Idaho error and a walk accounted for the runs.

Walt Baranski, Oregon shortstop, was the hitting hero of the game. He slammed out two home runs, a double, single and drew a walk in five trips to the plate. It was his single in the ninth that started the Oregon rally.

The win gave Oregon a 4-1 mark in ND play while the loss was Idaho's fifth against no wins.

Linescore: Idaho 003 100 002—6 11 21; Oregon 100 010 203—7 11 21; Johnson, Bloxum (7) and Shellman; Loy, Springer (5) and Olson.

TITLE BOUT ARRANGED

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Alphonse Halimi, the world bantamweight champion from France, will defend his title against Jose Becerra of Mexico on July 8 in the first event to be held in the new five-million-dollar sports arena here.

Robert Corbin, manager here for Oregon California Theaters, has announced that the Craterian Theatre will participate in television presentation of the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johanson heavyweight boxing title bout. The bout will be staged at Yankee Stadium in New York and tentatively is set for June 25. There will be no home TV.

Corbin is wondering whether interest is sufficient here to present theatre video of San Francisco Giant baseball games here on a regular basis. It's a possibility once Skiatron begins operations—if it can be shown financially feasible here. Admission to the theater for TV viewings of the Giants would be at a lesser rate than to the parks, themselves.

Fans with opinions on whether such TV would pay here should make their sentiments known to this department or to Corbin, himself.

Corbin has pointed out that the theatre system would have to purchase projection equipment, at considerable expense, for such game telecasts, rather than lease it as it has done for fight TV.

Scheduled for playoffs are Roosevelt at Wilson, Lincoln at Jefferson, Oak Grove at Jackson and Hoover at Washington.

Ducks First In Baseball After Win

United Press International The Oregon Ducks eased into first place in the Northern division baseball race Monday with a 7-6 victory over the Idaho Vandals while Washington was dropping a 7-4 decision to Washington State.

Oregon's victory left the Ducks ahead of Washington on percentage. The Ducks did it the hard way with three runs in the ninth. Five singles together with an Idaho error accounted for the runs.

Walt Baranski, Oregon shortstop, was the hitting hero with two homers, a double and a single.

Washington State scored four runs in the third and added three more in the fourth to take Washington.

The Huskies and Cougars meet again today as do Oregon and Idaho. Oregon now stands 4-1 in division play with Washington next at 5-2. Oregon State is 2-2, Washington State 3-4 and Idaho 0-5.

Palermo, Sicily—(UPI)—Neale Frasca of Australia defeated Nicola Pietrangeli of Italy, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, Monday to win the men's singles title in the Palermo international tennis tournament.

Geertsen Takes Over Bat Lead

University of Oregon, Eugene—Norm Geertsen, Idaho's second baseman took over the Northern division batting lead with a .429 average at the end of the second week of play with Don Daniels of Washington close behind with a .417 average.

Gary Snyder of the Huskies, WSC's Arlie Kangas, the leader at the end of the first week of action, and Oregon State's Jerry Droscher round out the top five as the pitchers continued to enjoy considerable success in the early going.

Denny Peterson, the Oregon sophomore, and Ernie Wheeler, Washington's excellent relief man, top the league in victories with a pair each and there are four others with 1-0 records.

Pitchers Tough Most of the teams experiencing trouble collecting base hits again last week as the pitchers tossed three shutouts and gave up only one run in two other games. Oregon's hurlers have been the toughest, allowing their opposition only 10 runs in four games and a .183 batting average.

Peterson tops the pitchers in strikeouts with 114 and has allowed 2.00 earned runs per game. Three of the all-winning pitchers, Wheeler, Clayton Smith of the Beavers and Earle Irving of the Huskies, have not allowed an earned run yet.

Snyder and Grimm Mason of the Beavers top the league in runs batted in with seven each and Mason also leads in home runs with a pair. The leading batters and pitchers follow for games through April 25.

Mud and massive loads stop other trucks—but not this Chevy!

F. F. Kirchner, cement block manufacturer of St. Ann, Missouri, testifies to the handling and pulling power of his V8 Chevrolet 10703 tandem. "Fully loaded we're up over 40,000 lbs. GVW and at most excavation sites we have to move through soft sand and mud with a tremendous strain on the engine, transmission and frame. My driver tells me he always gets through, too, even where other, bigger trucks can't make it. Our Chevrolet tandem performs better under these conditions than any other hauler we've had."

Statements like this are typical of Chevrolet truck owners across the country. Their enthusiasm for Chevrolet's "git-up-and-go" is well founded in fact—they've seen how Chevy tames their toughest jobs in record time; keeps going when others fail.

For your own tough trucking jobs, you'll find Chevrolet has all that it takes, and then some, to get the work done quickly and economically. With stamina to spare, Chevrolet trucks keep on the go day after day. Powerful engines haul maximum loads—hold fuel and maintenance expenses to a minimum. And Chevy's solid build keeps cabs and bodies tight through years of stress and strain.

Derby Field Hinges On 'Churchill Downs

Louisville, Ky.—(UPI)—Whether the Kentucky Derby draws one of the largest fields in its history hinged on the 32nd running of the $15,000 added Derby Trial at Churchill Downs today.

Sixteen three-year-olds, a record field, were entered for this final "do or die" qualifying test of Derby candidates. And to give each and every one of them a true chance to prove his right to run in America's most spectacular horse race, officials split the Trial into two sections for the first time.

Finnegan, winner of the California Derby, headed the first division. First Landing, the 1958 juvenile champion, headed the second.

They are the yardsticks by which rival owners and trainers will determine whether or not to take a shot at the Kentucky Derby, the most coveted prize in thoroughbred racing.

Finnegan ruled an 8-5 favorite to win the first division of the Trial. He faced Hoist Away, Royal Orbit, Mosby, Troilus, Open View, Rico Tesio and Bernmatarr.

First Landing, who has yet to explode this season with the speed and power which crowned him champion a year ago, was a stronger favorite in the second section. He was an even money choice over John Bruce, Quantrell, Duncie, Sundown II, Our Dad, Master Palynch and Steno Bill.

Johnny Longden, who rode in his first Derby 22 years ago and won with Count Fleet in 1943, rides Finnegan. Eddie Arcaro, the Derby riding champion with five winners, rides First Landing.

Claborne Farm's Duncie, at 5-2, loomed the strongest competition for First Landing, owned by Christopher T. Cheney.

Mrs. Jacques Braunstein's Royal Orbit, at 7-2, and Bayard Sharp's Troilus, at 9-2, are tabbed as the strongest threats to Finnegan. The Trial will be settled at one mile, a quarter-of-a-mile less than the survivors will have for gold and glory five days later.

Beavers Nip Sacramento

Sacramento—(UPI)—Howie Reed, righthander down from Kansas City, spun a three hitter Monday night as the Portland Beavers defeated Sacramento 4-0 in the opening game of their Pacific Coast league series.

Reed struck out seven and walked only three. Nini Tornay drove in three runs with a double and single to pace a 10-hit Portland attack off loser Winston Brown and reliever Bill Dailey.

Bob DiPietro got the Beavers into the scoring column in the first inning with a home run. Attendance was 1,524. Tonight Vic Lombardi (2-0) will pitch for Portland here against Noel Mickelsen (1-1).

Linfield, Pioneers Tie

United Press International Linfield and Lewis and Clark were tied for first place in the Northwest Conference baseball race today with 6-1 records.

Lewis and Clark edged College of Idaho 5-4 at Caldwell Monday while Linfield was idle. Pitcher George Heid fanned 12 hitters for Lewis and Clark and gave up but four hits.

In the other league game Monday Whitman edged Pacific 6-5 in 14 innings at Walla Walla. Pitcher Ron Karlson singled home the winning run with his first base hit in two seasons.
