City Department Requests Pared, Duff Reports

The proposed budget provides for no increase in Duff's own salary.

"In developing this budget," Duff stated in his letter, "it has been necessary to contain most departments at their present level and to defer for future consideration many necessary expansions of departments."

"It was also necessary to postpone many worthwhile projects which would render more complete and efficient service. This curtailment has been effected with a minimum dilution of the program services of the departments."

Duff noted the city's continuing population growth, which, he said, increases "service demands that tax the facilities of all departments."

"The July 1, 1958 census estimates indicated a population of 25,274 within the city. Undoubtedly the 26,000 population mark has been passed since that time."

Duff said the preliminary budget reflects "some greater emphasis on parks and recreation this year." Specifically, it provides salaries for the parks and recreation director, a part-time clerk, and recreation leaders.

In the capital improvement category, it includes the $75,000 from the Jackson County Housing authority for construction of the proposed West Jackson st. swimming pool, and $2,300 for development of a park area at that location.

Boyd explained to other budget committee members that their responsibility is to run through the 78-page document and mark any item of a questionable nature for discussion. "We try not to get picayunish," he said. "Our job is to establish a policy."

The committee agreed to hold their first work session next Friday evening. They expect to meet at least once a week during the coming month.

Committee members include the eight members of the city council plus eight citizens. These, besides Boyd and Mrs. Houghton, are Carl Dawson, Galen Knox, Tod Tibbitt, Aubrey Loper, Tony Manno and Tom Rickard.

American Telephone showed a loss of nearly 2 points at its low. Steels balanced off small gains and losses. Tobacco fell 2 points or more on publicity given the Arthur Godfrey lung-cancer operation and the addition of more taxes on cigarettes in New York.
