Seen for England

Wildred Furness, chairman of the Regional Coal Utilization Council, said the sprayed-on colors also would make the coal dustproof.

Building Program Listed at College

Ashland - Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, said this week that more than $500,000 in new construction on the campus is planned during the fiscal year starting July 1.

Largest item on the $400,000 dormitory for 123 students. It will be constructed to handle either boys or girls as the need arises.

The dormitory will be located east of Indiana st. between Madrone and Oregon sts. Bids will be called this summer and construction is scheduled to start later this year. The building will be ready for use by the fall term in 1960.

The Britt student center and remodeling in Suzanne Holmes hall will cost about $125,000, Dr. Stevenson said.

The ballroom in the Britt center will be finished, and four classrooms will be constructed in the basement.

Funds for the construction will come from a revenue bond issue of the state board of higher education, Dr. Stevenson said.

IT'S 'PROFESSOR TRUMAN'

Washington - (UPI) - Former President Harry S. Truman, who has lectured at a number of universities in recent years, said he'd been given a new academic title during his three-lecture course at Columbia university. "The boys up at Columbia call me 'Professor Truman of the Electoral College of 1948,'" he told an audience Thursday night.

Medford Woman
Buys Plaza Cafe
At Public Sale

Ashland - Mrs. John Compagnoni, Medford, who purchased the equity of Ralph and Doris Schulte in the Plaza cafe this week, plans to reopen the cafe as a Chinese and American food restaurant in a few days.

Mrs. Compagnoni purchased the equity in the cafe this week at a public auction by the internal revenue service, which closed the cafe earlier this month because the Schultes failed to pay withholding and social security taxes.

The Medford woman's bid was the only bid submitted for the equity and property as a whole. She said she has acquired the services of Hande (Henry) Wong and Ying Koon Woo as chefs.

Bid on Two Groups

Bidding started on two groups of items. One was the equity in the fixtures and furnishings, some of which had conditional sales contracts, according to Revenue Agent Erle Gray, Medford. The other item was canned supplies, candy and cigars, against which there was no obligation.

Mrs. Compagnoni submitted the only bid on the fixtures and furnishings, at $1,000, but three bidders started on the canned supplies, candy and cigars. The Medford woman submitted the highest bid.

Gray then asked for bids on the property as a whole, and Mrs. Compagnoni's bid was the only one received. The equity was sold to her since her bid on the entire unit was more than the total bids on the two items offered separately.

Gray said the treasury department is not looking for Schulte, although Ashland police have issued a missing person's call for him at the request of friends. He has been missing since the time the cafe was closed.
