

Mrs. Delsoe Re-elected Chairman

Phoenix-Mrs. Warren Kelsie was re-elected chairman of the Phoenix Home Extension unit at a recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harry Cole, 2211 Houston road.

Also elected were Mrs. Murel Thompson, vice-chairman; Mrs. L. M. Rutledge, secretary; and Mrs. Walker Caldwell, treasurer.

Mrs. Kelsie and Mrs. William Wroe were project leaders and demonstrated new ideas for distinctive foods. Mrs. Kelsie was presented a pin for serving the past year as chairman.

Mrs. Thompson was appointed as delegate to attend the annual officer training meeting in Corvallis May 5 through 7. The name of Mrs. Curtis Stockstill was submitted to work on the Jackson county board.

Mrs. J. O. N. Poling reported on the committee planning the homemakers festival on the theme "Bustles to Bikini." Committee members include Mrs. Kelsie, Mrs. Ray Hendrickson and Mrs. Harold Smith.

Three members of the unit have been appointed chairmen of various committees to assist with festival plans. They are Mrs. G. G. Smith and Mrs. W. T. Biddle, name tags for Phoenix unit; Mrs. L. M. Rutledge, display; and Mrs. Caldwell, clean-up chairman.

The festival is planned at the Phoenix First Presbyterian church, Wednesday, May 20, at 1 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Tod Davison Cornell

Cornell-Henson Wedding Held Recently in Montana

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held April 17 in Glasgow, Mont., when Miss Jonna Lou Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henson, 2000 Westerlund drive, Medford, became the bride of Tod Davison Cornell, son of Mrs. Adeline Cornell, Los Angeles, in a ceremony held at St. Matthew's Episcopal church.

The Rev. Robert H. Owen officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening double ring ceremony. White stock and tapers decorated the church for the ceremony. August Isben was soloist and Mrs. O. M. Grina played the traditional organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Chantilly lace gown over satin styled on princess lines. Her fingertip length veil was held by a crown of lace and seed pearls and she carried a laven-der orchid on a bride's Bible, a gift from her maternal grandmother.

Mrs. Harold Jensen, Glasgow, was matron of honor. She wore a champagne colored satin sheath dress with yellow rosebud corsage. Flower girls were Karen and Betty Owen.

Lt. Col. Ivan Duncan of the Glasgow Air Force base served as best man. Ushers were Markus Papke and Douglas Smith.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Mrs. Duncan cut and served the tiered wedding cake and Mrs. William Rupert poured the coffee. Miss Judy Jensen was in charge of the guest book and Miss Marigall Jensen assisted.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Henson wore a grey suit with flowered hat and black accessories. Mrs. Cornell chose a pink and grey silk print with black accessories. Their corsages were of pale pink carnations and red rosebuds.

The couple traveled to Havre and Great Falls, Mont., on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a tweed suit with red accents and black accessories. They will make their home in Glasgow, after June 1.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and is a student at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, where she is majoring in sociology. She is a member of Adignos, junior academic society and Sacajawean, women's service honor group. Mr. Cornell, an airman first class in the United States Air Force, formerly attended Lewis and Clark college. He is currently stationed at Glasgow.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. Jensen was hostess for a rehearsal luncheon.

Mrs. Cornell, mother of the bridegroom, traveled to Medford where she met Mr. and Mrs. Henson and the three motored to Glasgow.

Royal Neighbors Select Ashland 1960 Host City

Mrs. Carl Dalkenburg, Ashland, was elected 1960 convention district orator at the 27th annual district convention of the Royal Neighbors of America held in the Klamath Falls IOOF hall April 29. Mrs. N. S. Hepburn, Klamath Falls, district orator, presided at the business meeting.

Other officers elected to serve at next year's convention, to be held in Ashland, were Mrs. Tom Mee, Medford, vice orator; Mrs. Alex Cammock, Klamath Falls, chancellor; Mrs. C. A. Hartwell, Ashland, recorder-receiver; Mrs. Ardel Reeves, Klamath Falls, marshal; and Mrs. E. O. Graham, Jacksonville, assistant marshal.

Installation ceremonies, with Mrs. Mae E. Logan, Portland, past state supervisor, as installing officer, were held at the convention. Mrs. Elsa Walker, Medford, district deputy, served as ceremonial marshal, and Mrs. Virginia Duvall, Vancouver, B.C., state supervisor, was assistant marshal.

Convention roll call found 12 members present from Ashland, 17 from Medford, 10 from Jacksonville, 18 from Klamath Falls and one from Grants Pass. Salem and Portland camps also were to be represented.

Klamath Falls Mayor Lawrence Slater delivered a welcoming address to the convention.

Far East Slides Will Be Shown By Col Meiring

Colonel H. J. Meiring, who recently returned from several months' travel in India, Malaya, Siam, Hongkong and Japan, will show colored slides taken on this trip to the Arm Chair Travel group at the Senior Activity center, Monday, May 4, at 1 p.m.

Dr. Frank Roberts, who is in charge of the series held each Monday at the center, reported that the pictures of Col. Meiring's will be especially interesting, as many of them will be of native villages in the interior. Because the center is small, interested persons are advised to come as early as possible to obtain good seating.

At last Monday's meeting, when the group "traveled" to Lebanon and Syria, with Dr. and Mrs. Bert Elliot as guides, the center was filled to capacity.

Open Monday
Mrs. Jud Greenman, hostess, and Dr. Roberts, leader, will open the center at 12 noon each Monday to accommodate early arrivals. Books and magazines from the large collection now at the center can be taken out during the social hour following the showing.

Persons having pictures of South America, Central America and Mexico, which they would be willing to show, are asked to contact Dr. Roberts at Spring 2-2674. A series of pictures of United States national parks has been requested.

Other activities at the center each week are oil painting each Tuesday, 1-3 p.m.; wood carving, Wednesday, 1-3 p.m.; dance review, Thursday, 10-12 a.m.; orchestra, 1-3 p.m. and shuffleboard games, Saturday morning.

The center is closed each Friday in order that all seniors can attend the social meetings of the fifty-plus club held at the Guild hall, Episcopal church, from 12:30 to 4 p.m.

Sorority Alumnae Meet For Dinner

Rogue Valley alumnae of Pi Beta Phi, social sorority, met for a Founders Day dinner last Tuesday night at the Medford hotel. The occasion marked the 92nd anniversary of the sorority's founding by 12 women at Monmouth college, N.J., April 28, 1867.

Mrs. Billy D. Blackstone, Medford, retiring president of the club, presided. She gave a brief biographical sketch of each of the founders of the nation's oldest fraternity for women. Officers elected for 1959-60 are Mrs. Elliott McCracken, Ashland, president; Mrs. John Caulkins, Phoenix, vice president; Mrs. Manfred W. Olson, Medford, secretary; and Mrs. Harold W. Sexton, Medford, treasurer.

Outgoing officers include Mrs. Blackstone, Mrs. McCracken, Mrs. Caulkins, and Mrs. R. J. O'Sullivan, Medford. Arrangements for the dinner were made by Mrs. M. Donald McGeary, Phoenix, and Mrs. Caulkins.

Christie Mystery Will Be Presented Mothers Week End

Ashland - "The Mousetrap," a mystery play by Agatha Christie, will be presented by students at Southern Oregon college during Mothers week end May 7, 8 and 9.

Miss Swan James plays the role of Molly and James Boyd, her husband, Giles. Others who perform as occupants in a one-time monastery include George Brown, Miss Dorothy Lewis, Bill Gregory, Miss Dorothy Dechard, Bill Black and Jim Cunningham.

Tickets will be on sale at the college information office and at the door.

Mrs. Helen D. Baugh (left) founder and national chairman of the Christian Business and Professional Women's Councils, will speak at the Mother-Daughter banquet of the local council at the Jackson hotel Pioneer room Monday at 6 p.m. Miss Mary Clark (right) national chairman of Christian Women's Clubs of America, also will be on the program. Mrs. Baugh is national vice-chairman of the Christian Women's Clubs. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. G. F. Caldwell, MURdock 2-4482, or Miss Hazel Hansen, SPing 2-4539.

Caroline Barnett Bride Of James Arthur Byrns

Gold Hill - Miss Caroline Ruth Barnett, route 1, box 62, became the bride of James Arthur Byrns, route 1, box 95, in a ceremony held April 25 at the New Age church, Eagle Point.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Barnett, Albany, and Mr. Byrns is a son of Mrs. Winnie J. Byrns, Gold Hill.

The Rev. D. E. Millard officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 45 relatives and friends. Mrs. Millard played the organ wedding music and Mr. Millard was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white tulle gown over taffeta in ballerina length and her fingertip length veil was held by a headdress of white flowers. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Barbara Barnett, Albany, attended her sister. She wore a light blue nylon ballerina length frock and had a corsage of red and white carnations.

David B. Parker, Gold Hill, served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the banquet hall at the church. Mrs. Walter Hoeflin, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. William Davis, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted by Mrs. Rolen Rosecrans, aunt of the bride.

Miss Margaret Corder, Albany, was in charge of the bride's book.

The couple will make their home in Gold Hill following a wedding trip to northern California. For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue gingham suit with the corsage from her bridal bouquet.
