Wedding Held In Ashland

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Eggers are making their home at 307 Hillcrest avenue, Ashland, following their wedding recently at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Eggers is the former Miss Dona Lee Pettit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pettit, 367 Meade street, Ashland. Mr. Eggers is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eggers, Cave Junction.

The Rev. Herschel Hall officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening, March 14.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and overskirt of nylon lace. A seed pearl tiara held in place the lace-edged veil. Her bouquet was of pink roses encircling a white orchid.

As matron of honor, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Lovell Ebnother, wore a ballerina length frock of pink chiffon. Miss Betty Grischkowsky as bridesmaid and little Patti Taylor as flower girl both wore ballerina dresses of pink nylon. They all wore pink carnation headbands and carried matching pink bouquets.

Charles Marchant served as best man and Kenneth Daugherty and Robert Brouillette were ushers. Arrangements of roses and snapdragons banked the altar where the tall candelabra tapers were lighted by Miss Judy Hannon and Miss Donna Lawson.

Mrs. Annabel Davis played the organ music and Mrs. Nancy Kaylor was soloist. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pettit chose a beige brocade taffeta frock with matching accessories. Mrs. Eggers wore a frock of beige with pink accessories. Their corsages were of pink roses.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fireside room of the church. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Floyd Taylor, Mrs. Ray Black, Mrs. Blaine Caldwell and Mrs. Richard Osborn. Miss Diane Gourley was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to Los Angeles on their wedding trip the bride wearing a cream colored suit with rose accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The bride is a student at Ashland High school. Mr. Eggers is a graduate of Illinois Valley High school and attended Southern Oregon college. He is now employed by Consolidated Freightways in Medford.

Phoenix - Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Raymond Troxel are making their home in Virginia following their wedding April 23 at the First Church of the Nazarene in Phoenix. Mrs. Troxel is the former Lois Marie Dysinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dysinger, 116 South Third street, Central Point. Mr. Troxel is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Troxel, Camp Baker road.

The Rev. Martin Lumley officiated at the single ring rites held at four o'clock in decorated church for the event. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white eyelet frock over white satin with pink cummerbund. She carried an orchid on a white Bible.

Miss Linda Dysinger attended her twin sister. She wore a powder blue frock with white accessories and carried a bouquet of lavender and white carnations. Delbert Moore, Medford, served as best man.

Mrs. Lumley played the traditional wedding music. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dysinger wore a pastel green nylon frock with white accessories. Mrs. Troxel wore a pink and white suit with white accessories. Their corsages were pink carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church attended by 50 relatives and friends. Mrs. Eunice Jones, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. She was assisted by Mrs. Bert Langston, both of whom were in charge of the reception. Miss Marian Troxel, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Kenneth Robertson, cousin of the bride, poured the coffee. Mrs. Jerry Barnett was in charge of the guest book and Miss Pauline Jones, both cousins of the bride, was at the gift table.

Immediately following the reception the couple left by automobile for Langley Air Force Base, Va., where Mr. Troxel is stationed. The couple will make their home there until he receives his discharge next year.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a yellow sheath dress with white accessories. The bride is a graduate of Crater High school. Mr. Troxel is a graduate of Phoenix High school and attended Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls.

Short Story Read At Recent Meet

Mrs. A. V. Hardy read a short story she had written about amusing incidents that occurred during an actual journey of a wagon train on the Oregon Trail from Independence, Mo., during the meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.
