

Traveler Tells Of Hawaii Visit For Travel Club

Mrs. Jack D. Drummond spoke on "A Tourist's Viewpoint of Hawaii" for the Travel Study club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs last Tuesday at her home, 754 South Holly.

Mrs. Drummond, who greeted the group with "Aloha, Aloha," recently returned from a trip to Hawaii. The trip going over was made on the Lurline and the trip back by plane. She described the people as happy, loving folk in what seems to be a melting pot for East and West.

The boat trip from Honolulu to Hilo, the land of wild orchids, proved most interesting. Hilo has 400 inches of rainfall a year.

Mrs. Drummond spoke of Nuhau island, privately owned by the Robinson family, which is the home of hundreds of Hereford cattle. Lanai is owned by the Hawaiian Pineapple company, she said, for use as a tremendous pineapple plantation. Being of Irish ancestry, Mrs. Drummond was invited to a St. Patrick's day Luau, which was held at Hotel Princess Liliuokalani.

The monkey pod factory employs a great many people, the speaker explained, thus giving a large income to the island of Oahu.

Wears Muu Muu

Mrs. Drummond was dressed in a muu muu and leis, and also wore a brecelet made of nuts. She showed different styles of muu muu, a vase, Plumeria perfume, Macadamia nuts, and many pictures of the islands. The highlight of the afternoon was the Hukilau dance, which Mrs. Drummond learned while on shipboard.

Mrs. Willis T. Fasel presented the club with a myrtlewood gavel and block.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Clay M. Lee was reelected president of the club; Mrs. William E. Boone, first vice president; Mrs. Marvin Nelson, secretary; Mrs. Frank L. Stratton, treasurer; and Mrs. Drummond, corresponding secretary. Installation of officers will be at a 1 p.m. dinner May 19, at Tally-ho banquet room.

Mrs. Lee appointed Mrs. Edward C. Root, Mrs. John L. Mansfield, Mrs. Carrie Walters and Mrs. Beryl H. Lyon to have charge of the affair. Guests of the club were Mrs. J. C. Ottinger, first district parliamentarian, and Mrs. Norman Wade, Talent.

Mrs. Vera Backstrom and Mrs. Lee will be delegates to the State convention in Roseburg, May 4, 5 and 6. Mrs. Carol E. Miller, second vice president of General Federation of Women's Clubs, of Washington, D.C., will speak on Tuesday at the convention.

Year's Last Meeting Planned for May 13

Applegate Valley — The regular meeting of Upper Applegate Extension unit scheduled for Wednesday, May 6, has been postponed until May 13, according to the chairman, Mrs. Rolland Smith. The event, the last meeting of the club year, will include potluck dinner and installation of officers.
