

Clatter Box for a Toddler

Jane McHenry

Here's an easy-to-make pull-toy that two-year-olds will love. Just fill an oatmeal box with a handful of dried beans, buttons, shells, or marbles. Pierce a hole in both the top and bottom of the box large enough to run a string through and seal the lid with cellophane tape. Tie the ends of the string to make a big loop so the little person who receives your gift can pull it after him and enjoy the fine clatter it makes. You might paint the box and, when it is dry, paste on bright pictures from magazines or leftover wallpaper.

LET'S DRAW A BUFFALO

Ann Davidow

Gone are the days of long ago
When herds of shaggy buffalo

With the Indians on the range Roamed those green and grassy plains.

The meat and hides of buffaloes
Made much food and many clothes.

Today in buffaloes we lack,
Let's draw a few and bring them back.

This is a quiet version of "Follow the Leader." One player is chosen to be IT for five minutes, or whatever time limit you wish to set. The rest of the players must imitate exactly what IT does during the time limit. Then another player is chosen to be IT. Here are a few things IT might do.

1. Giggle
2. Wave to someone
3. Clap hands three times
4. Nod head
5. Wink each eye
6. Pretend to cry
7. Bark, or meow, or moo
8. Salute
9. Comb hair
10. Sing

Stick, Stone, or Shell Hop

Frances W. Keene

Here is a more strenuous form of hopscotch, because it involves almost continuous hopping. Lay 10 sticks, large stones, or big clam shells in a row about one foot apart. To play, you hop on one foot over each stick, stone, or shell until the last one is cleared. Then, still on one foot, pick up the 10th stick and hop back to the starting place with it, still hopping over the objects left on the ground. If this is done without touching a stick or touching the ground with the other foot, you repeat the trip, collecting at the end the ninth stick; continue, if you can, until all the sticks are picked up. If a player misses, the next one takes over and hops till he misses.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.
