

Library Applies for Loan of Bookmobile

An application for the loan of a state-owned bookmobile and a grant of funds for staffing, stocking, and operating it during a two-year demonstration period was submitted to the trustees of the Oregon State Library this week by the trustees of the Medford Public Library and Jackson County Library.

The letter of application reads in part, "Whereas the total population of Jackson county is now estimated to be 72,000, of which only 40,600 persons dwell within incorporated towns served by public libraries or county library stations, we estimate that a bookmobile would bring library services within convenient reach of 31,400 additional persons."

Tentative Outline

Accompanying the letter is a tentative outline of seven tours to be made at two-week intervals by the traveling library with its 2,200 volumes. One of these would make stops on the South Stage rd., at Griffin Creek, at intervals throughout the Applegate area and at Provoit. On its return it would stop in the Oak Grove and West Side school areas.

A second tour would make stops in the Camp White area and go on to serve residents of the Brownsboro and Lake Creek areas. A tour is planned to serve residents of the Fern Valley, Wagner and Anderson Creek areas, Lincoln and Pinehurst.

Other Tours

Other tours would take the bookmobile up Highway 62 to Trail, Cascade Gorge and Prospect, returning by way of the Laurelhurst rd., through the Table Rock and Sams Valley country to Meadows school, Wimer and Willow Springs.

The longest tour planned is the one that would include stops at Blackwell hill, Table Rock, Sardine Creek, Rock Point, Evans Creek, Foothills chapel, Galls Creek, Millers Gulch and Kane Creek.

Space does not permit listing all stops planned on any of the routes mentioned.

If the grant should be awarded this service would be maintained by state and federal funds for a two-year period. At the end of that period Jackson county, through its county court, would have the option of discontinuing the project or of continuing it with county support. In the latter case the bookmobile and all books purchased during the demonstration period would become the permanent property of the Jackson County Library.

Receive Such Projects

Many other Oregon counties have already received such projects, including Clackamas, Tillamook, Linn-Benton, Malheur and Coos. Deschutes, Klamath, Douglas, Multnomah and other counties have given bookmobile service with their own funds. A previous application made by the Jackson County library was rejected because it lacked supplementary indications of interest from individuals to be served by the project. The present application is accompanied by a number of letters from residents of rural areas desiring a bookmobile demonstration for Jackson county.

Additional letters might be useful in obtaining the award for Jackson county, Miss Helen Webster, library director, suggests, since the state library is interested in knowing how great the interest is among the readers who would benefit from the traveling library service. She will be glad to forward any letters received.

SPECIALIST—A home laundry specialist, Miss Luci La Fontaine, San Francisco, will be at the Montgomery Ward appliance department Wednesday, May 6, to conduct a laundry clinic. Miss La Fontaine is the western regional home economist for Calgon water conditioner products. She will assist housewives with their washing problems of the new fabrics and particularly in regard to wash 'n' wear clothing.

Medford Students Win in Election

Eugene—Two Medford men attending the University of Oregon have won positions on the student Senate in a recent all-campus election. They are Frank Albert and Michael Sterns.
