Superior General Visits Hospital

Mother Philippe de Cesaree, Superior General of the Sisters of Charity of Providence, recently completed an official survey of Sacred Heart hospital, following a similar visitation of the houses of California conducted by the Order.

The Superior General left Medford April 27 for Portland and from there will visit the various other houses of Oregon and Washington. Her tour, at this time, will cover approximately a six - month period.

The Order of the Sisters of Charity of Providence conducts hospitals, homes for the aged, grade and high schools in Canada and the United States, in both the east and the west. The general headquarters of the Order are in Montreal, Canada; provincial houses for the Western United States are in Seattle and Spokane, Wash.

One hundred and thirty-five houses are under Mother Philippe de Cesaree's jurisdiction.

Official visitations are made yearly, at which time an opportunity is given the visitor to meet board members as well as with members of the medical staff.

Unique Group Saves Suicides

Boston – (UPI) – At least 410 would-be suicides are alive today, thanks to Rescue, Inc.

This was the report today from the Rev. Kenneth B. Murphy, the Roman Catholic priest who founded the unique organization to discourage self-destruction. He described the activities of Rescue, Inc., at the 10th annual Conference on Alcoholism.

Founded last January as a private, non-sectarian service, Rescue, Inc., has headquarters at Boston City hospital. Anyone contemplating suicide can call the organization's well-publicized telephone number. At the end of the line he will find a sympathetic ear and a reassuring voice. And soon afterward a representative of Rescue, Inc., will visit him.

Father Murphy reported that one-fifth of those saved from suicide were alcoholics.

EASY PAYMENT PLAN

Coalville, England–(UPI)–A man was ordered Tuesday to pay his former wife one penny a year maintenance. He had appealed for a reduction of a $2 a week maintenance because she had remarried.

SITTING in Havana court, Olga Herrera Marcos, attorney, hears sentence of death imposed for informing for Fulgencio Batista police.

Jordan Civil Strife Feared

Cairo–(UPI)–A shakeup in the government of Jordan raised fears today of civil strife, increased Communist influence and a possible attack by Israel should the Reds come into power.

Premier Samir Rifai, 57, known as the strong man of Jordan, resigned Tuesday and was replaced by Hazza Mejali, 42, in a move that brought new attention to Jordan's precarious position in the Middle East.

King Hussein named Majali premier a few hours after Rafai resigned because of ill health. He said there would be no changes of policy, but Middle East diplomats here feared Rifai may have been the only man capable of holding Hussein's kingdom together.

They feared the Communists, already entrenched in neighboring Iraq, could benefit from any upheaval in Jordan and they feared the reaction of Israel in any such event.
