Eagle Point - Illinois Valley High nipped Eagle Point 12 to 11 at Cave Junction yesterday in a wild Rogue league baseball mix.

Meads singled home the tying and winning runs in the bottom of the seventh inning.

Eagle Point had an 11 to 8 margin when IV came to bat in the seventh. Pitched Ron Weidman walked three of four Cougar batters he faced. Steven Geren came to the mound with one out and the bases loaded. He walked two runs in. Then Meads socked his single.

Thirteen walks and three hit batters given up by pitchers proved more disastrous to the Eagles than their nine errors. IV chukkers gave up 11 bases on balls.

Eagle Point had the biggest inning with seven runs in the top of the fourth for a 10 to 4 gap. The counters were on six walks and hits by Duane Anderson, Dusty Gerbing and Robert Osborn. The Cougars cut it to 10 to eight with three runs in the bottom of the fourth and one in the fifth canto. EP tallied once in the top of the seventh.

Geren hit a solo homer for the Eagles in the third inning. The Eagles play Rogue River at Eagle Point Friday afternoon and Illinois Valley will entertain Glendale.

Bob Turley Rescues Yankees In 3-2 Nod Over Kansas City

By FRED DOWN

United Press International
It was Bob Turley to the New York Yankees' rescue in their hour of need - just as it was last October in the World Series.

Turley, who won two games and saved a third in the Yankees' great Series comeback, played the "all American Boy" again Tuesday night when his brilliant relief pitching enabled the world champions to end their five-game losing streak with a 3-2, 10-inning victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

The triumph - a thriller in which Turley struck out the side in the last of the 10th after an opening pop-fly double by Hector Lopez got the Yankees back in the win column but was too much of a personal victory to indicate the champions actually have shaken their slump. Turley, who has scored the Yankees' only two victories since April 22, stopped a four-game skid April 29 but the New Yorkers promptly lost five more in a row.

Play Longest Game
The American League's pitcher of the year in 1958, Turley has only a 3-3 record this season but the Yankees have scored a total of four runs in his three defeats.

The Yankees' struggle to end their astonishing slump overshadowed the longest game of the year so far - a 16-inning battle in which the Milwaukee Braves beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-2, and went back into first place in the National league. Hank Aaron, who's known a little World Series glory himself, broke it up with a 400-foot double that scored Eddie Mathews from first base four minutes before a tie-producing curfew was due.

The league-leading Cleveland Indians walloped the Baltimore Orioles, 9-1; the Detroit Tigers downed the Boston Red Sox, 8-3; and the Washington Senators defeated the Chicago White Sox, 6-3 in the other American league games. The Cincinnati Reds beat the San Francisco Giants, 5-2; the Chicago Cubs whipped the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-3; and the Philadelphia Phillies rallied for an 8-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in the other National League activity.

Leppio Hits Grand Slam
Aaron doubled home the tying run for the Braves in the seventh inning of their four-hour and 47 minute game and Don McMahon and Bob Rush limited the Dodgers to only one hit for the next eight innings before Hammerin' Hank came through again.

Lefty Don Ferrarese pitched no-hit ball until the seventh inning and finished with a four-hitter for the Indians who backed him with a 12-hit attack.

Ted Lepcio, traded by Boston last Saturday, hit a grand slam homer against his former mates as the Tigers made it three straight victories under new Manager Jimmy Dykes and Jim Lemon, Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew paced Washington's 13-hit attack that tagged White Sox ace Billy Pierce with his second defeat.

Don Newcombe pitched a five-hitter and Frank Robinson hit a three-run homer as the Reds knocked the Giants out of first place.

George Altman's upper-deck homer at Forbes Field was the big blow for the Cubs as Pittsburgh's Bob Friend suffered his fifth straight setback, and Ed Bouchee's bases-filled single climaxed a five-run ninth-inning rally that enabled Philadelphia's Dick Farrell to win his first game since Aug. 8. Cardinal Manager Solly Hemus suffered his first ejection during the heated game.

Committees Face Legal Problem in Considering Minor League Troubles

By JOHN GRIFFITH

New York - (UPI) - The law won't let him go as far as he might like, but Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick is trying to pump television money and more players into the minor leagues in an effort to keep them alive.

Frick, calling these two items the problems that "are killing the minors," appointed separate committees Tuesday to look into each of them and see what can be done.

But, as the twin committees faced their work today they found their first problem is legal - because baseball has not yet been granted the exemption from anti-trust laws that Frick believes the game desperately needs to survive in its present form.

As the law now reads, any attempt by the major and minor leagues to restrict television of games could make baseball guilty of monopoly. Similarly, the matter of "who controls how many players" also is fraught with peril.

Two Bills Pending
A bill to rid baseball of these legal worries was introduced in Congress last year. It would have exempted certain business practices of

Oregonians Tied in ND

By JOHN GRIFFITH

Corvallis - (UPI) - Rain caused cancellation of the Oregon State-Washington baseball game Tuesday, leaving OSC tied with Oregon atop the Northern Division standings with a 5-2 mark. Washington is 7-3.

Under conference rules the game cannot be made up when the two teams meet later this month in Seattle.

Washington has four remaining games - all at home. Oregon and Oregon State are on the road for their remaining contests except for one at home against each other.

Indian Start May End Long NY Domination

By JOHN GRIFFITH

Milwaukee, Wis. - (UPI) - Mickey Vernon, the Milwaukee Braves' lean arrival from the American league which he called home for nearly two decades, feels the Cleveland Indians' fast start could mean the end of Yankee domination in the junior circuit.

While not predicting a pennant for the Indians - for whom he hit .293 a year ago - rounting out the Yankees, Vernon said the "other clubs have gained confidence because of what's been happening to the Yanks."

"It's hard to remember when the Yankees have started so poorly. Given that psychological edge, all the clubs in the league might turn Yankee killers. In the past, they've had only one or two challengers. This year, even the Senators, my old club, look good."

Vernon was a first base start at Washington for many years, winning the league batting title twice. He put in a year at Boston and two at Cleveland before being traded to the Braves at the start of this season.

Sacramento Boosts Margin To 3 Tilts

By DON BECKER

United Press International
It's beginning to look as if Sacramento's high flying Pacific Coast league bubble is made of reinforced plastic.

The Solons increased their league lead to three games on Tuesday night as they whipped Seattle, 5 to 3. Tabbed as strictly also-rans prior to the season's opening, the Solons have so far shown no signs of cracking.

In other PCL action, Vancouver made it two in a row over Salt Lake by a 5 to 0 count and Spokane stopped second place San Diego, 5 to 0. Rain cancelled the Phoenix-Portland contest.

Eight pitchers took the mound in the Sacramento-Seattle game. Rainier manager Freddie Hutchinson used five fingers. PCL veteran Jim Davis, who came on in the sixth

FEWER COWS-MORE MILK

By JOHN GRIFFITH

Chicago - (UPI) - Fewer cows will produce the nation's milk in 1959, according to the American Feed Manufacturers Association. Output will match 1959 production, but the more than 19 million cows to be milked represent a two per cent decline in the cow population. The greater yield is credited to favorable prices and heavier grain feeding.

Giants Bill Long Home Park Stand

By JOHN GRIFFITH

Cincinnati - (UPI) - The San Francisco Giants have a chance to make a bid for dominance in the fierce National league pennant scrap Thursday when they open a lengthy home stand against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Giants, who ended their first eastern swing with a 6 to 6 record after losing to Cincinnati 5 to 2, Tuesday night, play 21 of their next 24 games at home.

In San Francisco, the Giants have a definite edge. In addition to last ticks, they figure to be better able to take advantage of the friendly winds that blow the ball toward the left field seats at Seals stadium. All the Giants' regular powermen, except Willie Kirkland, swing from the right side of the plate. But, of course, this is only a paper advantage.

That was the impression of one of New York's better known men - about - boxing after studying the solid, round-chested challenger who will try to wrest the world heavyweight title from Floyd Patterson on June 25.

"He's the best short-puncher I've seen since Jack Dempsey," said Siegal, whose various activities once included managing fighters. "The difference is: Johansson fights from an upright stance, and Dempsey fought from a crouch - with a bob and weave."

Patterson is favored at 14-5 to snap Johansson's professional string of 21 straight victories. Siegal said those odds will shorten considerably before the fight, "after the sports writers see the Swede in training a few times and begin to realize that Patterson will be very lucky if he doesn't get knocked out."

Hunting Rule Hearings Early

By JOHN GRIFFITH

Portland - (UPI) - The State Game commission said hunting regulations for 1959 would be set two months earlier than usual.

A bill signed by Gov. Mark Hatfield, in Salem Monday gave the commission authority to choose its own hearing dates to set hunting seasons. Previous statutes made hunting hearings mandatory in July.

Public hearings will be held May 22 and June 5 with final regulations after the second hearing.
