Ashland - Portland will meet this week end when the Raiders of Southern Oregon college meet with Portland State and Oregon Tech Saturday afternoon.

This is slated to be a tune-up for the Oregon Collegiate conference meet the following week in Portland.

SOC will again be led by the Baker brothers, Stuart and Clarence, in the sprints while Jack Johnson is the top man in the mile for the Raiders. Johnson was the only winner for the thincads of Southern Oregon last week end against Humboldt State.

The three-way meet will see most of the top performers in the OCC get together led by Oregon Tech's ace hurdler Dick Hoevar and Portland State's distance runner, Len Luken.

Pedro Colley will enter in the discus for the men of SOC. He has posted the top mark in the OCC thus far this year. Colley will also be in the shot put.

The meet will also give the Raiders a chance for some rough competition in the mile relay where they have posted another top mark to date in OCC annals.

Salem Senators Nab Twinbill

United Press International
The Salem Senators are beginning to sound serious about the Northwest league baseball chase.

Wednesday night they turned 4-1 and 3-1 decisions over Lewiston to increase their league lead to a game and one-half.

In other action, Yakima took Wenatchee 11-4 and Eugene nipped Tri-City 4-3.

Ron Fahnstock and Arley Alderman teamed up to tame Lewiston in the opener and in the nightcap Bailey Brem came on in relief to save it.

Brem chucked four scoreless innings after starter Chuck Lybeck was taken out when hit by a line drive.

Eugene tallied three runs in the seventh to edge Tri-City. Carl Voles and Chuck Hiller contributed one-run singles during the uprising. Cal Bauer led Tri-City with two hits.

Ken Bracey, who entered in relief in the seventh, took credit for the victory.

NY Yanks Show Old Robust Look in Beating Athletics

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Patient off critical... ate heartily Wednesday night... may soon be up and around first division.

That's the latest clinical report on the New York Yankees who dined on Kansas City under moon Wednesday night and look ready for tougher meat.

Two victories over the Athletics don't constitute a pennant-clinching, of course, but the Yankees did have that old robust look when they bowled over the KC cousins, 7-4. Their two three-run innings were their biggest rallies since April 21. Their run-total and 12-hit total were their largest in 13 games. And they connected for more than one homer in a game for the first time since April 29.

In all it was enough to demonstrate that the worst is over even if the climb toward first-place contention may be slow and difficult. The Yankees are in seventh place but the fourth-place Chicago White Sox are only two games away and even the first-place Cleveland Indians are only 5 1/2 away.

The Indians slipped back toward the field one full game when they bowed to the Baltimore Orioles, 6-3, the Washington Senators whipped the White Sox, 6-4, and the Boston Red Sox crushed the Detroit Tigers, 17-8, in other AL games. The Milwaukee Braves retained first place with a 5-4 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers, the Chicago Cubs beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0, and the St. Louis Cardinals shaded the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-7, in National league action.

Allison Hits Grandlam
The Yankees wasted no time flexing their muscles. Tony Kubek led off with a homer and doubles by John Blanchard and Gil McDougall plus a single by Bill Skowron routed Bob Grim before a man was out. Norm Siebern greeted Ralph Terry with a double that made it a three-run inning and came back in the next frame to blast a three-run homer after a single by Blanchard and McDougall's double.

Milt Pappas picked up his third win for the Orioles despite a ninth-inning Cleveland rally in which rookie Ray Webster hit a three-run homer off reliever Billy Loes.

Bob Allison's grand slam homer in the seventh inning enabled the Senators to score their ninth win in 11 games and complete their best western trip in 10 years 7-2.

Battle of Homers
The Red Sox beat the Tigers in a battle of nine homers and thus handed Jimmy Dykes his first defeat in his new managerial post.

The Braves completed the first phase of their 1959 schedule exactly even with their 1958 pace—12 wins and 7 losses—when pinch-hitter Wes Covington singled home the winning run in the eighth inning.

Dave Hillman, 31-year-old "hard luck" pitcher, tossed a two-hitter as the Cubs beat the Pirates for the second straight game.

Stan Musial's first homer of the season and 399th of his career and a two-run pinch double by Joe Cunningham were the big blows as the Cardinals rallied with four runs in the eighth inning.

Boone Decides He Will Play
Kansas City, Mo. -UPI—Ray Boone, former Chicago White Sox first baseman who balked at being traded to Kansas City, was in an A's uniform today.

Boone, a 10-year major league veteran, joined the A's Wednesday night after saying he would quit baseball before playing for Kansas City.

Boone went to the A's in a trade Sunday for first baseman-outfielder Harry Simpson.

The White Sox said they were prepared to pay Kansas City cash to keep Simpson, but Boone changed his quitting plans after talking with Sox co-owner Bill Veeck.

Yankees Tussle Dodgers Tonight at Los Angeles; Campanella To Benefit

By HENRY RIEGER
Los Angeles -UPI—The largest crowd in baseball history, at least 90,000 persons, was expected tonight for an exhibition game between the Yankees and Dodgers, but they'll pack them in at the Coliseum principally to pay tribute to Roy Campanella.

Campanella night is a benefit for the injured catcher, formerly the National league's most valuable player and one of the most popular payers in either league.

The contest also marks the in-season West Coast debut of the world's champion Yankees.

It was a busy day for the Dodgers, beaten 5 to 4 Wednesday by Milwaukee, who fly here tonight from San Francisco after a regular league game with the Giants.

All reserved and box seats, some 82,000, were sold by this morning. At 6 p.m. tonight, another 10,000 distant "bleacher" seats go on sale at 90 cents each.

The all time record for a major league game is 86,288, for the fifth game of the 1948 World Series between the Braves and Indians in Cleveland.

All pass lists were suspended tonight, including those for working baseball writers.

Campanella, critically injured when his car spun out of control and crashed on an icy street in January, 1958, is restricted to a wheelchair but will attend the game and make an appearance. He will share in receipts from this game and another in New York between the two teams next season.

Campy Now Coaching
Campanella is an advisory coach for the Dodgers, and his assistance is credited with improvement of the Dodger catchers, John Roseboro and Joe Pignatano. Campy also has been earning money to meet heavy medical and family expenses by doing radio commercials.

The Yankees flew here from Kansas City for the game, and will participate in a pre-game ceremony tonight which will include Los Angeles city and county officials, as well as National League President Warren Giles.

Braden of Tillamook, both 93 years young. A. L. Snyder of Albany writes that he just passed his 94th birthday and in his own words, "My eyes are still good, and so am I."

The senior member among these enthusiastic anglers is George Wyatt, 1220 E. 9th Street, The Dalles. George Wyatt at 99 is just one year away from celebrating his centennial birthday.

Triple Mantle Chance Gained By Shoemaker

Los Angeles -UPI—Jockey Willie Shoemaker says he is glad for the chance to win horse racing's "Triple Crown" by signing to ride Broodmare Stable's Sword Dancer in the May 16 Preakness.

Shoemaker returned home here for his engagements at Hollywood Park following his victory aboard Tony Lee last Saturday in the Kentucky Derby.

The jockey said he would ride at Hollywood Park until May 15, then fly to Maryland for the Preakness. He will return here after that race and go east again in June to ride Sword Dancer in the Belmont Stakes—third leg of the Triple.

Tomy Lee will not compete in the Preakness or Belmont but if Shoemaker wins on Sword Dancer it would be a jockey's "Triple Crown."

Tornado Baseballers To Oppose Ashland; Crater Goes to GP

Southern Oregon conference baseball teams hope Jupiter Pluvius will be kinder this week end.

Last week's entire slate of four doubleheaders involving league teams was a victim of rain. Three twinbills with first games only counting in the standings are on the schedule this week end.

Medford will go to Ashland and Crater to Grants Pass on Friday. Klamath Falls journeys to Grants Pass on Saturday. The later action is make-up for play postponed last week.

Non-loop contention is set for Saturday for Medford's Black Tornado. It will be host to Yreka, Calif.

Long Lay-Off
If the weather permits, Crater will end the longest lay-off in the circuit—3 1/2 weeks. The Comets called off April 24-25 rivalry because of sickness on the squad and the rain, of course, idled them last Friday and Saturday. Wet grounds prevented make up with Klamath last Tuesday.

Medford was the only SO conference school to get in any baseball last week end. It played at Weed, Calif., on Saturday.
