

LONG-TIME CONSCIENCE—Frank Schoen, 64, of Redwood City, Calif., changed his mind in the courtroom about going back to Nevada to face a 42-year-old murder charge he confessed to last week. Schoen, bothered by his conscience for 42 years, finally turned himself over to police and said he was ready to return to Reno. But after an emotional courtroom plea by his wife Hortense (left), Schoen decided to hire a lawyer and fight extradition. Reno police are not sure just which murder Schoen is talking about.

Shady Cove market is now convalescing at the home of her mother, Mrs. Warren Patterson, in Central Point after spending three weeks in Sacred Heart hospital with virus pneumonia. Mrs. Crank is getting along well now.

Jerry Pennington, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pennington of Shady Cove, was confined to Osteopathic hospital over the week end for treatment of head injuries sustained when he fell from a moving car when the family was returning from a trip to Butte Falls on Saturday. He was released from the hospital on Monday in good condition.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Laura Belvail on the death of her husband, Louis Belvail, on April 28 in a Portland hospital. Funeral services were held on Friday in Medford with interment in Healdsburg, Calif. Mr. Belvais was well known in the area having been a member of the Shady Cove Rotary club and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The sympathy of the community is also extended to Don and Lawrence Sellers of Trail and Mrs. Mary Moore of Eagle Point on the death of their father, Parley Sellers, of Trail at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Moore in Eagle Point last week. Funeral services were held on Saturday in Medford.

Mrs. Floyd Kelley was hostess for the birthday bridge club, at her home in Shady Cove, May 1. Mrs. Max Hawks, guest of honor, received birthday gifts from the members. Mrs. Hawks won first prize for high bridge score, and the consolidation prize was awarded to Miss Pat Hawks. Refreshments were served after the games.

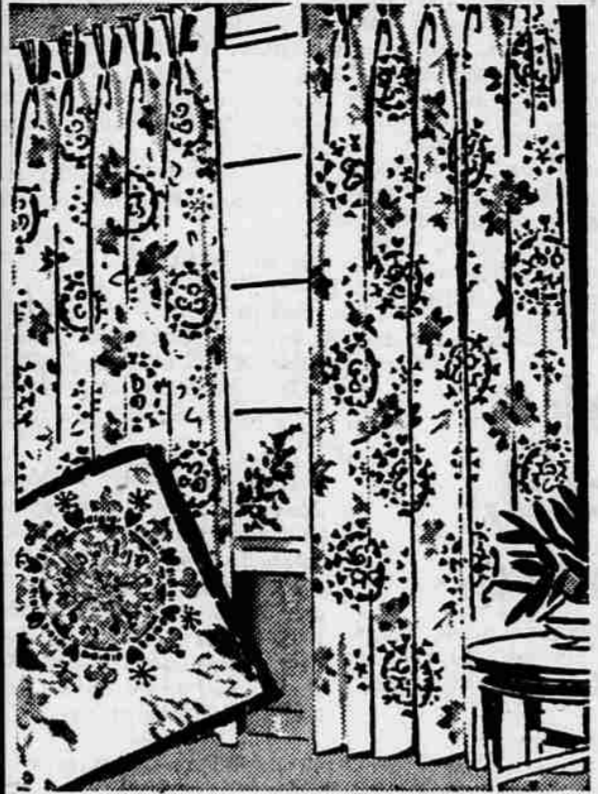

Also attending were Mrs. O. L. Williams, Mrs. Leonard Thompson, Mrs. Carl Hanson, Mrs. Arley Spain and Mrs. Dolf Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams are now back at their home in Shady Cove after spending the winter vacationing in Mesa, Ariz. Since returning they have made a fishing trip to the coast in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Novotny.

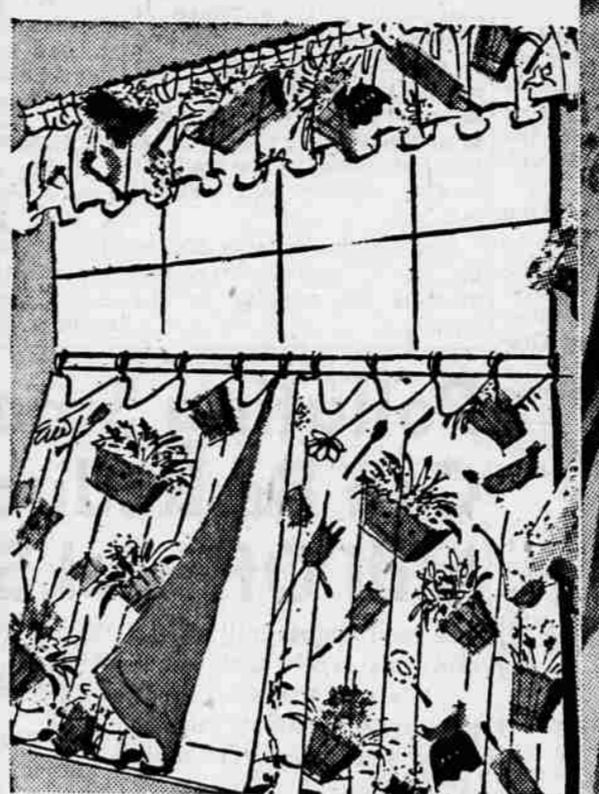

Dale Sawyer of Shady Cove spent last Friday in Rogue Valley hospital in Medford undergoing tests and observation. He went back to work this week and is doing fine.
