

Employee Benefits Carried Too Far

Ennis, Tex. — (UPI) — Mayor Lynn Gehrig, who owns a bag and fibre company, wonders how far he must go with employee benefits.

Some time ago he found he was losing merchandise regularly. Police arrested an employee who was convicted and sentenced to a prison term.

While in jail, the man wrote Gehrig demanding wages for "time" owed him. Gehrig paid.

Now Gehrig has received another letter. The man said he has finished his sentence and has "repaired the damage" by serving his time.

"Now," he wrote, "what about my vacation pay?"

Most of the licorice in the United States candies and flavoring is from Turkey. Roots of the licorice plant go down 20 to 25 feet before they are dug up.

Why Not Scold The Men For A Change?

I keep constantly getting letters from disgruntled women who say, "Why are you always talking about nervous women, complaining women, and sickly women?"

Others say, "Why always this talk about wives who are wrecking their marriage or are acting like spoiled children, or are not loving enough, or are getting fat and unattractive? Why don't you turn on the men occasionally and give them a scolding?"

"Certainly there are lots of paunchy husbands around who are no answer to a maiden's dream; they are anything but loving, and from the point of view of a wife, are a wash-out."

My secretary just handed me a letter from a disgruntled woman in California who says, "Why don't you describe the type of husband who remains pretty much a bachelor after he is married? He contributes nothing to the marriage except some money. What do you think of the man who never shows his wife any affection; who never remembers her birthday or an anniversary; who never remembers to say a kind word about the many things she does to make life more comfortable for him; who never says a word when the dinner is particularly tasty; who never thinks of taking her out for supper or even to a movie, and whose only concern when he gets home is to pat his dinner, look at television and go sound asleep. When he takes a vacation, he goes fishing with no one of his pals."
