

OSC Host To Ducks In Track

Corvallis—(UP)—Oregon and Oregon State clash here Saturday in a track and field meet. The Frosh and Rooks meet in another dual test at the same time.

The mile, two-mile, relay and all field events will be conducted simultaneously among varsity and freshmen.

Oregon is a heavy favorite but Coach Sam Bell said he expected OSC to make its best showing in years.

Jacobs Leading Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City—(UP)—Upstart who evoked "Who's he?" comments in the opening round of the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open strove grimly today to hold leads against a determined but baffled band of the game's finest players.

Big money players, spraying shots into every nook of the tree-bedeveled Twin Hills Country Club course, founded Thursday in a wake of sub-par rounds by neophytes and poorly paid oldtimers.

Biggest surprise was the six-under-par 66 posted by 23-year-old Tommy Jacobs, Whittier, Calif. And a veteran who has never won a tournament and hasn't made the official money list this year—Pete Mazur, Buffalo, N. Y.—came in second with a 67.

Stan Musial Hits Home Run No. 400

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International Hey ma, that man's here again! You know which one, Stan (The Man) Musial, the fellow they said was gone for good.

All that talk about Musial being through resulted from his pitiful start this season, but the 38-year-old Cardinal slugger kept insisting that's all it was—all talk.

By way of proving his point, he smashed the 400th homer of his career in the ninth inning Thursday night to beat the Cubs, 4-3, and elevate the spirits of the last-place Cards somewhat even if he couldn't lift them in the National league standings.

The homer, struck off reliever Don Elston, was Musial's second in as many games and made him the sixth man in major league history to reach the 400 bracket.

The five who hit more were Babe Ruth (714), Jimmy Foxx (534), Mel Ott (511), Lou Gehrig (492) and Ted Williams (482).

Musial's wallop traveled more than 400 feet and capped a game in which home runs accounted for all the scoring.

Two homers by Jim Marshall and Ernie Banks seventh of the season gave the Cubs a 3-0 lead but St. Louis tied the score in the sixth inning on George Crowe's pinch three-run homer. Reliever Howie Nunn shut out the Cubs over the last three innings for his second victory.

Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia, 5-4, in 10 innings, and Los Angeles nipped San Francisco, 2-1, in the only other NL game scheduled.

Baltimore took over undisputed possession of second place in the American league with a 10-1 triumph over Washington, and Detroit licked Boston, 3-1, in the only two games played in that circuit.

The Pirates won their game from the Phils much in the manner the Cards did from the Cubs. Only instead of Musial, Ted Kluszewski did the honors when he stepped up and hit Jim Owens' first pitch in the 10th inning for his first homer of the year.

Norm Larker, subbing for Gil Hodges at first base after the Dodger veteran pulled a muscle in the third inning, belted a two-run homer off Jack Sanford in the fourth and that was all the Dodgers needed as Stan Williams set the Giants back on six hits.

Rookie Jerry Walker of the Orioles snapped the three-game winning streak of the Senators when he stopped them on five hits. Baltimore, on the other hand, rapped out 17 hits off loser Pedro Ramos and three relievers.

Gaspar Ortega Bout Favorite

Syracuse, N. Y.—(UP)—Odds-makers and the post record say tonight's televised 10-round welterweight fight between Gaspar Ortega and Russell Stitch should be a close one.

Ortega, full-blooded Indian from Mexicali, Mexico, rules a 6-5 favorite over the Louisville, Ky., church elder he decided in February by a single point.

Crater Entertains In Triangle Fray

Central Point—A number of interesting rivalries are anticipated here Saturday when the Crater High field will be the scene of the only Class A-1 track competition in the area.

Crater will be host to Ashland and Grants Pass in a triangular skirmish. The meet will start at 2:30 p.m. and is part of the program for "Jewett Days." Activities today and tomorrow in School District 6 honor Superintendent and Mrs. H. P. Jewett who retire from their faculty posts after this school year.

Feature contest could turn out to be the javelin in which Glenn Winningham, Grants Pass, national record holder, and John Burns, Crater, are chief entrants. Winningham's record throw was 225 feet 6 1/2 inches. Burns has a top heave of 202-3 and has been right behind Winningham on occasion.

Weight Rivalry There could be keen competition also in the weights. Crater has Darrell Williamson and Glenn Cole in these events and Ashland has Art Kisers. Grants Pass contenders are Roger Hoatson and Lyle Miller in the discus and Steve Bennett and Montgomery in the shot.

Williamson and Kiser each have defeated the other. Hoatson finished in front of discus entries from Crater and Ashland in the Rogue relays and ahead of Comets in the Grants Pass Rotary meet and appears to have the best heave in southern Oregon. In the shot Bennett finished in front of Williamson and Williamson ahead of Montgomery in the Rotary.

Ken Simmons, Grants Pass, is favored in the mile but there was indication here this week that Nathan Parrish, Crater, is tuning for an upset. A battle in the quarter-mile is foreseen between Bob Voris, Ashland, and Larry Johnson, Grants Pass.

The GP Cavemen are team favorites on the basis of their good depth, a lot of fine talent and previous meet outcomes. Coach Ed Knapp of Crater said that the track should be fast on Saturday, if the rain holds off.

Dairy Maids Will Begin Northwest League Slate At Eugene on Saturday

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids make their debut in fast league competition this week end but will oppose a familiar rival.

The Maids, 1958 state champions and sponsored by the Milk Producer's league, tangle with Eugene McCulloch Chain Saw at Eugene. Games will be at 7:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday. They will be openers in the Northwest Girls' Major Softball league.

Four other games are billed for the week end in the circuit. American Seattle will be at Vancouver, B. C., both days and American Linen will play at Salem on Saturday and meet the Evr Lind Florists at Portland on Sunday.

League information lists the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids as an Eagle Point club but their roster pretty well represents the Jackson county area.

Culbertson Cops Class in Shoot

Duane Culbertson, Medford, was second in Class B 16-yard gunning with a 98 in the Roseburg spring trapshoot.

The 16-year-old high school junior who has been shooting for a just a year was among the top four scorers in the event. His win in Class B moved him into Class A for his next action.

The shoot was a Pacific International Trapshooting registered event.

Nuich Gains Gross Honors in Tourney

John Nuich with 74 in the low handicap division and Curt Butterfield with 90 in the high handicap class were low gross winners Wednesday in the Medford Kiwanis club golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club.

Nuich was followed by Bill Clark with a 79 and Butterfield by Paul Mitchell with a 93.

Frank Perl with a 70 and Bob Voegtly with 74 got net honors in the low handicap group. Net prizes in high handicap went to Dr. Abner Clark with a 75 and Harry Barker with a 77.

Under the Caloway system Darl Gleed took low net with 76.

Eugene Hurler Has One-Hitter

United Press International If Bob Bolin of Eugene could have gotten by that first inning, he would have had it made.

Bolin, Eugene righthander, took his first Northwest League victory of the season Thursday night as Eugene blanked Tri-City 4-0 and he missed a no-hitter by a whisker.

Bolin gave up a double to Dick Satalich with two away in the first frame and was untouchable the rest of the way. He fanned six, gave up eight walks but his teammates came up with three double plays to keep him out of mischief.

Bolin also wielded a heavy bat as he belted a two-run homer in the seventh.

Giant Clubhouse Shows Gloom

San Francisco—(UP)—Gloom was king in the Giant's clubhouse as they prepared for tonight's game with the Los Angeles Dodgers and there was a good reason—the team is losing it's "sock in trade."

"I'm thinking about going back to the platoon system, also. I'll get as many left-handed hitters in the order as possible when a right-hander is working and go with the right handers when we face a southpaw."

Which means that a solid facade of right-handed swingers was on tap for tonight's contest when the Dodgers' McDevitt (1-0) faces Johnny Antonelli (3-2) in a clash of southpaws.

RETURN TO MINORS Milwaukee—(UP)—The Milwaukee Braves today returned outfielder Jim Pisoni to the Richmond club in the International league. The Braves had drafted him from Denver of the American association.

HOPPS ADVANCE

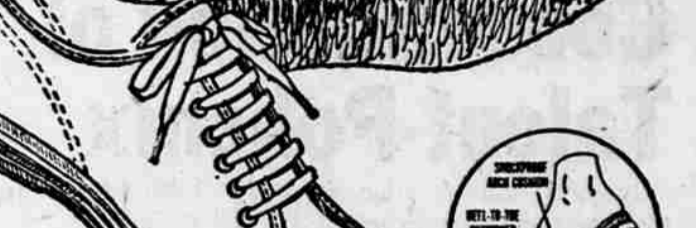

Rome, Italy—(UP)—Janet Hopps of Seattle, Wash., sole American survivor in singles play in the Italian international tennis championships, faced Sandra Reynolds of South Africa today in a quarter-final match in women's singles. Miss Hopps gained the quarter-final round by defeating Anne Belini of Italy Thursday, 6-4, 7-5.

REDS OPTION PITCHER

Cincinnati, Ohio—(UP)—Mike Cueller, a left handed pitcher who worked a total of only four innings this year with the Cincinnati Reds, has been optioned to the Havana club in the International league, subject to 24-hour recall.

About 32 million Americans are overweight and trying to reduce.

McBee, Dietz Top Raider Baseball Club in Batting

Ashland—Two Jimmys, McAbee and Dietz, lead the Southern Oregon college baseball statistics with McAbee pounding a massive .461 and Dietz hitting .395 to lead six batters over the .300 mark.

Outfielder Phil Sword is sporting a .333 average and LeRoy King is whacking the ball at a .327 clip while Larry Maurer is just over .300 with a .301 average.

McAbee also heads in runs scored with 21 and Sword and King lead the runs batted in department with 16 each. Sword also is tops in home runs with three and doubles with five.

Teamwise, the Raiders are hitting at a .275 clip and averaging over five runs per game.
