

Two Events Scheduled

Two events are on the calendar this week for Medford Sojourners club. Wednesday, May 13, 25 members will travel to Klamath Falls to be guests of the Klamath Falls Sojourners club at a Medford day luncheon. Thursday, May 14, there will be a regular dessert luncheon, meeting and cards at 12:30 p.m. at the Girls Community club.

The trip to Klamath Falls is a traditional exchange event and will be held at 12:30 p.m. at the Pelican club. A bus has been chartered for transportation and members are requested to be at the depot by 8:45 a.m. There is still space for a few more passengers on the bus and those who wish to make reservations may do so by calling Mrs. Elmer Ness, Spring 3-4308.

Mrs. Dwight Crozier, Sojourner president, will preside over Thursday's meeting. Inactive and prospective members are cordially invited. A prospective member is any woman who has lived in Medford or vicinity for two years or less. The hospitality chairman, Mrs. Dee Wood, Spring 3-5649, may be called for information.

Ashland Woman Named President State Mothers

Mrs. Charles Forrest, Ashland, was elected president of the Oregon State College Mothers' club at the group's annual meeting and campus visitation at OSC last week end. She succeeds Mrs. D. G. Dick, Portland.

Mrs. Philip Schroeder, Klamath Falls, was elected vice-president and Mrs. E. F. Kirkwood, Salem, treasurer. Mrs. J. K. Roe, Corvallis, was re-elected secretary.

Mrs. E. M. Stansfield, Medford, was re-elected district representative from District 5, which includes Jackson county.

Miss Diane Meyers, Roseburg, was announced winner of the Miss OSC title. She will be the official student hostess for the college.

Local members of the club report that 21 full tuition scholarships of $252 each - a total of $5,292 - were awarded. Among the winners was Miss Marilee Chisholm, Medford.

The Medford club provided money for one scholarship. Two honor scholarships went to Walter K. Stoeffler, Shedd, and Miss Jacquelyn Wright, Portland.
