

Burns Wins Javelin From Mark Holder; GP Nabs Triangular

Central Point—John Burns, took the pole vault with his top clearance of the season, 12-6, and Don Clark won the low hurdles for the Cavemen in the time of 21.2. Other victors for GP were Ken Simmons in the mile, Ron Hoatson in the discus with one of the better counting throws in the district this year, 142-4 1/2 and the relay team. Darrell Williamson took the other first in the tussle, winning the shot put for Crater.

Armstrong's half-mile was the best in the area this season and the times by Cutting in the 220 and Voris in the quarter-mile tie for the best in interschool rivalry.

Grants Pass had eight firsts, Crater four and Ashland two. The three schools will vie with Medford and Klamath Falls next Saturday in the District 6 A-1 engagement at Grants Pass.

Records for the meet fell in the 100-yard dash, won by Marv Terry, Grants Pass, in :10.1, in the 440 run taken by Bob Voris, Ashland, in :52 flat, in the broad jump with Tom Hathaway, Grants Pass, leaping 20-5 and in the 880 run with Jim Armstrong, Grants Pass, rambling in 2:02 even.

Clark Cutting, Crater, took the 220 in a mark knotting :22.6.

Voris Wins Two
Voris was the day's lone clear double winner. He took the high hurdles in :15.6, his best time of the season, and a new Ashland school standard. In addition to taking the shot, Burns tied for first in the high jump with Crater teammate Roscoe Day and was second in the half-mile.

PROSPECT Parade Float Described

By FRANCES RING
Prospect - Prospect was well represented in the Centennial parade in Shady Cove May 2.

The float sponsored by the Community club to advertise the Prospect Hillbilly Jamboree July 25 place second in the sweepstakes division.

The float depicted a hillbilly scene with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maurer, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, Clarence Hedgpeth and Archie McKillop portraying the hillbillies in mountain costume. The ladies were doing manual labor such as sawing wood with an old fashioned buck saw, and washing on a scrub board while the men lay around in hillbilly manner.

Also taking second place in the adult singles division was Mrs. Ben Goodman from Prospect. She portrayed a hillbilly woman.

The Lady Lions featuring a "Late Model A" filled with Lions also came home with a prize. The car was driven by Mrs. Bill Grieve and among those inside were Thelda Bevins and Alta Josephson, both in Lion costume.

"Miss Prospect of 1859," was portrayed by Mrs. McKillop in an authentic black bathing suit of that era.

The second Jamboree meeting was held Friday, May 8, at the Prospect Community club.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Culver and family have moved into their new home at Weeks' orchard. Culver is employed by Weeks.

Charles Ring, who has lived in Prospect for the last five years, has moved to Grants Pass and is working for Bates Lumber company at Merlin.

At a recent school board election, Frank Boothby was reelected to the Prospect school board. Other members of the school board are Gene Burrill, Marjorie Biden, Clarence Hedgpeth and John Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hedgpeth spent Saturday in Roseburg visiting Hedgpeth's sister, Mrs. Beth Boyer, who is ill.

Jimmy Taylor visited friends and relatives here Wednesday and Thursday last week. He is working in Yuba City, Calif. and expects to go to college in Eugene this fall.

New yell leaders elected for the grade school Wednesday are Donna Wilson, Carolyn Valentine, Carole Jewel and Beth Biden.

Loyd Moore is working in Riddle and expects to be joined by his family some time in June. The Moores have lived in this area nearly five years.

A well-child conference will be held at the Community hall Wednesday, May 13, from

Suds Fight Giants for 21 Innings

By DON BECKER
United Press International

It was billed as a seven inning opener, but they never got around to the second game, at Seattle Friday night. Through 21 grim innings, the Seattle Rainiers and the Phoenix Giants battled. The Rainiers finally won it, 6 to 5. None of the fans, those intrepid few who were around at the finish, voiced any complaints when it was prudently decided not to play the second game.

Seattle fans should have known their team well enough to bring provisions. This is the sixth extra inning contest in which the Rainiers have played this season.

Won by Kazak
Last Friday night they had to go 14 innings to beat the Giants 5 to 4.

It was Eddie Kazak who finally won it for the Rainiers Friday night. He belted a sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the lucky 21st to drive in Gale Wade.

The PCL record for extra inning games is 24 strikes. San Francisco beat Oakland 1 to 0 in that marathon contest back in 1909. And Portland and Sacramento battled to a 1 to 1 tie in 1911.

Pioneers Split Games

By United Press International

Lewis and Clark and College of Idaho split a Northwest Conference baseball doubleheader here Friday. The Coyotes won the opener, 14-0, and Lewis and Clark came back to take the nightcap 7-2.

The split gave Lewis and Clark a 9-2 record in conference play. College of Idaho now has six wins and five losses. The second game was shortened to five innings because of a heavy downpour.

Ted Talbot paced the Coyotes in the opener with a double and two singles for three runs batted in. Ken Ackerman hurled a three-hitter to gain the win. In the second game, the Pioneers were led by Gerry Stickley, who doubled with the bases loaded. Jim Richards, winning pitcher, aided his own cause with a bases-empty homer in the third.

The Whitman-Linfield game at McMinnville and the Willamette-Pacific game at Forest Grove were postponed because of rain.

Portland Buys Jim Westlake

Portland—The Portland Beavers have announced the purchase of left-handed hitting first baseman Jim Westlake from Buffalo.

Westlake had been sold by Sacramento to Buffalo but refused to report. He has been playing semi-pro baseball in Sacramento. He has a lifetime batting average of .283.

He is a brother of Wally Westlake, who once played outfield for Portland.

Grant Stars Top Records In Track

Portland—Mel Renfro and Ted Abram of Grant turned in record performances to highlight the qualifying round of the Portland Interscholastic League track and field meet at the rain-dampened Madison High school field Friday afternoon.

Renfro paced the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.4, bettering the record of 15 flat first registered by Ernest Warren of Lincoln in 1951, matched in 1957 by Don Milligan of Jefferson and matched again last year by Renfro.

Abram ran the mile in 4:23.3, bettering the mark of 4:24 set four years ago by Roger Stout of Grant.

Renfro also ran the 180-yard low hurdles in 20.1. He ran the event in a record 20 seconds flat last year.

At the team level, next Friday night's PCL meet looks like a duel between Jefferson and Grant. Each school qualified 20 entrants for the finale next week. Cleveland qualified 11, Roosevelt and Washington nine each; Benson and Wilson, seven each; Lincoln and Madison six each, and Franklin four.

Epics of Sportsmanship Noted for Hall of Fame

By HAL WOOD
United Press International

Palm Springs, Calif.—In March of 1956, John Landy was well on his way to a new world record in the mile run in the Australian track and field championships at Melbourne.

A rival, Ron Clarke, stumbled and fell in front of Landy. The Lanky champion, instead of gunning past, stopped to help the fallen foe, thus losing a chance for his world mark.

But with the act, Landy made the Sportsmanship Hall of Fame, a body organized in 1943 and just coming to the attention of the public in recent years.

The Sportsmanship Hall of Fame was organized by E. P. Coleman, onetime very successful Texas and Arizona high school coach but now in business for himself as manager of the swank Firecliff Lodge in Palm Desert, Calif. Love of Game

"We organized this hall of fame because we believed there was too much emphasis on winning in the sports pages of the nation," says Coleman. "For the outstanding act of sportsmanship each year, a panel of 50 sports writers around the country gives a plaque."

The sportsmanship hall of fame is growing, but not by leaps and bounds. It has sponsors, but not enough. It would like a building in which to place plaques and other items involved in a great act of sportsmanship.

Here are some of the great acts of sportsmanship that have been honored by this hall of fame:

In the 1925 national open golf championship, Bobby Jones stopped play during the final round and asked that he be penalized a stroke. He had moved his ball slightly in addressing it. Nobody saw the ball move except Jones. Willy McFarlane beat Jones by a single stroke for the championship.

Perry Moss, onetime University of Illinois quarterback, interrupted a football game with Iowa, at risk of a penalty to his own club, to direct attention of officials to the grogginess of a rival Iowa lineman. If the play had gone on, the lowman might have been seriously hurt.

Baron Pierre de Courbetin, founder of the "modern" Olympic games. A man who believed if the youth of the world could be brought together in sports there would be no better way to promote respect and understanding.

The late coach Tad Jones of Yale warned his players that Charlie Buell of Harvard, was playing with an injury. "The first player who roughs Buell will come out of the game and off the field," Jones told his players. Buell played the entire game and Yale lost.

Of such deeds is sportsmanship built, and commemorated in the Sportsmanship Hall of Fame.

Trustee Board At Ohio State Against Bowl

Columbus, Ohio.—(UPI)—Ohio State university, long known as a football power, Friday voted to withdraw the powerful Big Ten from the most glamorous of all football tilts, the Rose Bowl contest.

The university trustees voted 5-0 to support its faculty, which instructed its representative to vote against renewing the agreement to send a Big Ten team to the Pasadena classic.

The Big Ten will take up the matter of renewing the contract at its May 22-24 meeting in Ann Arbor, Mich. Six of the 10 members must vote to renew the contract but five schools were expected to vote against renewal, thus killing the agreement.

The Ohio State faculty has

Medford Subdues KF Pel Cindersmen

Medford high track and field forces overpowered Klamath Falls 81-23 and 40-13 in a dual meet on the Klamath oval Friday.

Black Tornado spikers took first in 11 of the 14 contests, tied for first in another and swept the broad jump and discus.

Don Peek and Leonard Griggs of Medford and Bob Drace of Klamath Falls turned in the leading efforts in a meet hampered by 20 to 40 miles per hour winds, rain and cold.

Peek produced an answer for critics by his :09.9 time in winning the 100-yard dash. He had been accused by some last Tuesday of getting a head or rolling start in :10 flat time against Grants Pass.

At Klamath he had a poor start. While the wind was at his back, the blow was reported not so hard at the time. "We're proud of it," coach Dean Benson said concerning the fast time.

Griggs ran the 220 in :22.6, his second fastest time of the season. Drace got the only firsts for Klamath, winning the high and low hurdles in :15 flat and :20.3 and setting a Pelican record in the high jump.

Mike Murray won both the shot and discus for Medford with his 131 feet 9 1/2 inches, his best in the discus this year. Koch won the javelin in addition to tying in the high jump.

Other Tornado winners were Ron Reich in the quarter-mile, Bruce Hill in the half-mile, Ray Smith in the mile, Skip Bennett in the pole vault and the crew of Peek, Phil Humphreys, Reich and Griggs.

Weather situation particularly hampered the relay. Robert Hamilton, :21.9, and Bill Charley, :22.6, in the low hurdles, and Tom Bortis, 46-6 1/4 in the shot put, turned in their bests of the season.

RESULTS:
100—Peek, M.; Story, K.; Egge, K.: :09.9.
Mile—Smith, M.; Dahlstrom, M.; Sprout, K.: 4:54.6.
High hurdles—Drace, K.; Santo, K.; Ayres, M.: :15.
440—Reich, M.; B. Griggs, K.; Vincent, K.: :34.4.
High jump—Tie first, Koch, M. and Drace, K.; Lewis, K.: 5-8.
Broad jump—L. Griggs, M.; Sieg, M.; Koch, M.: 20-11.
Javelin—Koch, M.; Phillips, K.; Ryan, M.: 171.
Low hurdles—Drace, K.; Hamilton, M.; Charley, M.: :20.3.
Discus—Murray, M.; Nored, M.; Connolly, M.: 131-9 1/2.
Shot put—Murray, Bortis, M.; Santo, K.: 55-10 1/2.
220—L. Griggs, M.; Story, K.; Humphreys, M.: :22.6.
880—Hill, M.; Cofman, K.; Rix, M.: 2:10.2.
Relay—Medford (Peek, Humphreys, Reich, Griggs): 1:36.4.
Pole vault—Bennett, M.; Olvera, K.; tie third, Harvey and Lingren, M. and Bianchi, K.: 11 ft.

Young Swimmer's Body is Recovered

Vale—(UPI)—Douglas Crabb, about 15, drowned Friday here. His body was recovered in the Malheur river at the mouth of Willow creek.

Four other teenagers reported they had been swimming with Crabb. The said he dived into the creek and failed to surface.

Spain's Costa Brava — the "wild coast"—lies in the shadow of the eastern Pyrenees. The people cultivate land settled by ancient Iberians, Phoenicians, Greeks, and Romans, and pillaged by Visigoths, Normans, Saracens, and Barbary pirates.
