Hedrick Junior High

By Nancy Duncan

Princesses and princes selected for the ninth grade dance this week end were princesses, Vicky Enders, De Etsa Lawson, Mary Milne, Sandra Bates, Jacque Ayres, and Bonnie Lowry. Princes chosen were Charles Allen, Mike Wickersham, Scott Eaton, Jack Richardson, Chuck McNair and Nick Gier.

Eighth and ninth grade boys who went on a science trip Friday with science teacher Monte Kounz in observation of Conservation Week were Paul Bauer, Terry Todd, Chuck McNair, Jim Gault, Jeff Knoppe, Jim McCoy, Gary Ingram, Don Anderson, John Gilbertson, Ray Graves, Darrell Stockton and Garner Hauptert. They left wearing hiking boots, carrying snack lunches, and looking like mountaineers instead of Hedrick students.

Boys chosen to represent Hedrick at Friday's track meet were seventh graders Jim Henry, Walter Verstrate, Larry Hackett, David Collins, Jeff Hiatt, Bob Mills, Steve More, George Dames, Tom Schoppert, Nick Rasmussen, Scott Cunningham, Steve Lewis and eighth graders Roy Ross, Jerry Stratton, Bill Corbin, Dan Miles, Tom Metz, and Gibb Mitchell.

Vocal instructor Carroll Graber's period five music class sang for a meeting of the PTA last Wednesday. The group consists of Kathy Allen, Deanna Arnold, Becky Barlow, Bob Bailey, Jack Richardson, Janet O'Sullivan, Patsy Thompson, Leslie Van Gordon, Fred Thompson, Paul Bauer, Larry Berg, Lanny Bostwick, Charlotte Brown, Dick Byrd, Tom Deakins, Sharon Dixon, Nancy Duncan, Jarl Dyrud, Phyllis Felkner, Mike Gannon, Sue Hall, Robert Heide, Jim Henson, Susan Flett, Lynn Kinney, Wendy Hunter, Bonnie Lowry, Clarence Lamp, Ellen Montgomery, Norman Olson, Alden Stewart, Frank Schuchard, Deanne Strong, Dick Swan and Renny Vowell. Sandy Shugart and De Etsa Lawson were accompanists. The group has plans to sing at Howard school on May 14, and at Hedrick's open house on May 21.

Louis Hunt, master of ceremonies for the eighth grade annual assembly invited the student body to "travel around the United States to observe other junior high schoolers at play and at school."

The "let's pretend trip" was made in a "balloon." The first act on the imaginary voyage saw calypso dancers Peggy Riechers and Vicky Toennings perform. A trip to Texas found a burlesque of "Gunsmoke" entitled "Mr. Grillon" enacted by Susan Filatreau, Janet Eddy, Valerie Bevel, Linda Morse, Sharon Mellish and Janice Johnson.

Gibb Mitchell, looking like a transplanted Jamaican, drummed rhythms from his bongo drums. A trio, Sharon Sites, Joyce Felder and Marion Anderson sang "I Wonder." "Mid-Westerners" Nancy Acord and Willetha Eubanks explained and demonstrated how to cure hiccoughs. A Scottish air was danced by Susan House, Francis Besonette and Janice Johnson. The circuit through New York provided sophistication in music from Scott Carpenter's piano offering "Prelude in C Minor."

Janet Eddy presented a humorous sketch of television advertising. The student body, still "en route," heard a band consisting of Warren Olson, Dick Johannsen, Rilla Kaye, Don Herder, Chuck Coffman and Jim Lesseg heard a number of selections interspersed by gags and buffoonery. The "entourage" was well-comed in their return to Hedrick by a song from the eighth grade septet, Janet O'Sullivan, Patsy Thompson, Leslie Van Gordon, Deanna Arnold, Phyllis Felkner, Ronda Reynolds, and Deanne Strong. Advising the eighth graders in their assembly presentation was Mrs. Susan Helm.

A standing ovation greeted Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Jewett as they entered the gym on the arms of Venola Hutchinson and Richard Hammersly at the all-school assembly Friday, May 8, in honor of the Jewetts.

Many awards and plaques were presented to Jewett. Among them were Quill and Scroll membership and a plaque by Sherry Koelner, the first paper of the May 8 issue of Crater Comments by Principal Arthur Straus, past-president of the 1958-1959 Constellation by editors Sally Carr and Rosalie Hewitt, a mosaic table from the art classes by Ker-man Bennett, and a plaque for his educational services by student body president Richard Hammersly. The Quill and Scroll was renamed the H. P. Jewett chapter, of Quill and Scroll.

Among the numbers the varsity choir sang was one entitled "H. P. Jewett." With words written by the choir members, the song was sung to the tune of "Gary, Indiana" from "The Music Man." The choir also sang "Now Thy Grateful Praises Bring" and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes." Senior Margaret Taylor also gave a resume of Jewett's life.

The Girls league sponsored Mothers Day Tea will be held Monday, May 11, in the Crater gym.

With the theme "Memories Are Made of This," the tea will feature a modeling show with the fashions being furnished by Burelson's and Leon's. Models for the show are seniors Jean Governor and Sharon Anderson; juniors Karen Larson and Wanda Smith; sophomores, Sheila Neidermeyer and Mary Ann Mason; freshmen, June Hopkins and Sue Cummings; little girls, Julie Cummings, Shirley Coffman, and Nannett Ferrell; teachers, Francis Willett, Sharon Meany, and Helen Broadbeck.

Chairmen for the Tea are general chairman, Sharon Coffman; decorations, Sandra Ghelardi and Julie Ashton; invitations, Mary Savage; program, Sherry Koelner; style show, Vernola Hutchinson; clean-up, Diana Cummings and Charlotte Bush; entertainment, Patt Hurt; refreshments, Glenda Branch; card tables, Linda Doran; card table decorations, Terri Turner; and chairs, Margaret Pendleton.

The new Future Teachers or America officers for next year were elected May 7. Because of a tie vote, the office of librarian was revoked on May 8.

They are president, Nancy Schwes; vice president, Alice Croxton; secretary, Kathy Straus; treasurer, Byron Rominger; historian, Carolyn Leonard; and librarian, Janice Owens.

The finalists in the student body elections held Thursday, May 5, are yell queen, Rebecca Ferrell; business manager, Steve Howell and Harry Bartley; treasurer, Patti Straus and Judy Kimmey; secretary, Connie McDonough and Lea Taberna; vicepresident, Charley Warren and Nathan Parrish; and president, Bob Gardner and Don Ryan.

The finalists for members of the yell squad are Joan Skov, Mary Lee Rowden, Sharon Thompson, Lynn Malot, RAYANNE GREENE, Lea Taberna, Bernadine Sharp, Melba Tucker and Dave Parker. Tryouts to be given before the student body will be held Tuesday, May 12.

With the theme "Arabian Nights," the Junior-Senior Prom has been set at May 16.

Stereophonic music will be provided.

General chairman for the prom will be Marilyn Hixson. Other committee chairmen are Joan Skov, table decorations; Patsy Charley, favors; Lea Padgett, invitations; Patti Straus, crowns; Nathan Parrish, floor plan; RAYANNE GREENE, entertainment; Carol Myers and Kathy Straus; KENNY GEBHARDT, construction; Clark Cutting, secret committee; and Beverly Little, throne.

Princesses for the prom have not yet been chosen.

Senior Sandra Ghelardi was chosen the April Girl of the Month. She is active in yell squad, Medical Minded Maids, speech, and is treasurer of the senior class.

Her disk will be presented to her at the Mothers' Day Tea.

Initiation of new members was observed at the history, economics and civics association's Monday meeting.

Election of officers was also on the agenda. Those receiving offices were Paul Moore, president; Dick Peterson, vice president; John Lacy, commissioner of records; Diane Mohr, commissioner of activities; and Elaine Jennings, commissioner of membership.

Applications were open this last week for the annual Girls' league scholarship. Linda Smith received it last year.

By Friday, 10 girls had signed up, although the deadline is May 11 at 3:15 p.m. A letter of application must be submitted, along with a statement of financial status and two recommendations.

A scholarship committee consisting of four teachers and two students will choose the winners.

Seniors were subjected to Iowa tests for two days, May 4 and 5. The tests were given to the various groups in classrooms by teachers who regularly teach senior classes.

Band and orchestra seniors were honored at a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mirick, May 4. The seniors participated in lawn games and were fed hamburgers.

On May 4, William Abbott and Glenn McCullough, local life insurance men, attended Mrs. Van Scoy's sociology classes. They showed two films entitled "How Life Insurance Operates," and "How Life Insurance Policies Work." The two men answered questions asked by members of the class. The sociology classes have been studying insurance for the past two weeks.

Certain members of the Future Nurses of America club went to Rogue Valley hospital May 6 for the organizational meeting of the local chapter of "Candy Strippers." This is a national organization of volunteer hospital workers who are selected through their interest in the work.

Ten girls from the group from MHS will be selected for national membership.

Model houses designed and built to scale have been on display in the main hallway. Eighth and ninth grade art students whose work was shown were Larry Muir, John Maass, Ken Morris, Larry Sorum, Carl Washburn, Gilbert Quitt, Tom Semple, and Bob Darby.

Egg-shell mosaics, creative art designs from crushed and dyed egg-shells, were displayed by Marilyn Biehn, Larry Byrne, Gary Dawson, Ann Rix, Carol Borwn, Jack Reavis, Diana Koemel, and Larry Simonds.

Plans are developing by seventh grade students and advisers for the sixth grade visitation day on May 29.

DAR history tests will be given to outstanding seventh grade students from the history classes Monday. Thirty-three students were selected for the test on a basis of scholarship, attitude, application, and response. Those who score the highest will have their names engraved on a plaque. The test covers our American history from Columbus' time through the Civil War period.

In celebration of Oregon Conservation week, selected science students were taken on a field trip through the Butte Falls, Prospect area. Dale Bates accompanied the students and Joel Gregory attended as the school paper representative. Students were shown the various ways the natural resources of the state are conserved and used.

Caroline Edwards, JoDell Hertager, Caroline Denyer, and Donna Johnson have been named to the majorette squad for the high school for next year.

The 1958-59 student council has offered a number of amendments to the McLoughlin Junior High constitution. The amendments will be read and discussed during the home room periods next week. Voting will be held during the following week. The amendments concern mainly student body elections and the qualifications for students holding office.

DeLake Motorist Accident Victim

Oceanlake—UPI—Alexander Nelson, 42, DeLake, was killed Sunday in a one-car accident when the car he was driving overturned on Highway 101 near here.

Two other men were injured and another escaped injury.

Dave Freeman, Otis, suffered two broken legs and other injuries; and Don Wells, 24, also Otis, suffered a neck injury, according to state police.

A fourth man, William Andrew Gall, Rose Lodge, owner of the car, was not injured.

Tragedy Marks Graham Broadcast

Sydney, Australia—UPI—A man listening to a broadcast of evangelist Billy Graham's sermon on love of God and man went berserk Sunday night, stabbed a woman to death and critically wounded two other women.

Graham was unaware of the tragedy which occurred in the church hall at Katoomba, 60 miles west of Sydney. At the time Graham was addressing a crowd of 150,000 persons assembled in Sydney's two biggest arenas.

The sermon was carried by landlines to church halls in dozens of country towns, including the one at Katoomba where the stabbing occurred.

Logansport, Ind.—UPI—Logansport high school track coach Fed Kinder, 37, walked the 23 miles home from Kokomo, Ind. as he'd promised his squad he would do if they won their second track title. Kinder confessed: "I didn't think they would win."

Fisher To Get Divorce Tuesday

Las Vegas—UPI—Eddie Fisher, 30, will divorce Debbie Reynolds Tuesday and immediately marry Elizabeth Taylor.

The singer's six weeks' residency necessary for a Nevada divorce was up today, but his attorney, David Goldwater, said the divorce action wouldn't be filed until Tuesday.

Fisher and Miss Taylor will be wed in a private ceremony at her rented $500-weekly ranch on the outskirts of this gambling resort and will leave immediately for a European honeymoon.

It will be the second marriage for Fisher and the fourth for Miss Taylor. Her previous husbands were hotel heir Nicky Hilton, English actor Michael Wilding, and the late Mike Todd who was killed in March, 1958, in a plane crash.
