

Tornado, Crater Vie In Wednesday Fray

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Medford	4	0	1.000
Grants Pass	6	1	.857
Crater	1	3	.333
Klamath Falls	1	3	.250
Ashland	0	6	.000

This is a week of reckoning for the top clubs in the Southern Oregon conference baseball race.

Medford high, fighting to preserve its unbeaten status in the circuit, takes on Crater here on Wednesday afternoon and opposes No. 2 running Grants Pass here on Friday. Other Friday action will take Crater to Klamath Falls.

While the Black Tornado of Medford is perched atop the circuit, it has a rugged week's work out for itself. Grants Pass, although running second, has recorded six triumphs to Medford's four and has dropped only one game.

GP Completing
Medford still must get over Crater to keep at the head of the standings but the outcome of the loop chase is expected to hinge much on the Friday contention here with the Cavemen. Grants Pass completes its regular loop slate against the Tornado, while Medford will have two dates the following week. Win or lose Friday, the Cavemen still will be in the running for league honors.

The Crater-Medford action Wednesday will be just a single game. On Friday just the first Medford-Grants Pass fray will count in the standings but both Crater-Klamath tussles will go into the standings.

Crater is still in the running for at least a tie for the title but both Klamath Falls and Ashland are out of the race.

Either Tom Laurance or Jerry Anderson will pitch against Crater with Bill Anhorn or Wayne Allen on the hill for the Comets.

Grants Pass whipped Klamath 4 to 1 on Saturday in a conference go then Klamath Falls took the kings-x mix 2 to 1.

Portland State won a twin-bill from Oregon Tech and Eastern Oregon downed Southern Oregon in two out of three games Saturday in the Oregon Collegiate conference.

Portland State got two-hit pitching from Mike Kondos to defeat OTI 2-1 in the first game and then pounded out 11 hits to take a 9-6 victory in the nightcap.

Eastern Oregon and Southern Oregon played three contests at La Grande. EOC won the first game 5-3. It started Friday afternoon and was completed Saturday. Dave D'Olivo hurled SOC to a 2-0 shutout win in the middle game but the Mounties took the final contest 5-4 on a single by Mel Holmes in the eighth inning.

McMurtry Has Sights on TV

Portland—Pat McMurtry of Tacoma, Wash., with a chance at a national television fight next month, meets Garvin Sawyer of New York here Tuesday night in a 10-round heavyweight bout.

McMurtry said he had been offered a TV fight either June 19 or June 26 in New York. He finished tuning up for the Sawyer fight with two rounds of boxing Sunday.

The Nazis melted down an estimated 150,000 German bells in order to help fight World War II, according to the National Geographic Magazine.

Norton, Dumas, Long Women's Golf Eye World Records

By HAL WOOD
Fresno, Calif.—(UPI)—Sprinter Ray Norton, high jumper Charley Dumas and shot-putter Dallas Long went into serious training today as they took dead aim at some new world records in the Coliseum relays which will be held at Los Angeles Friday.

Nearing perfection in their chosen events, this trio of athletes could turn the track and field world upside down with the big crowd at Los Angeles cheering them on.

Norton, particularly, will be taking a shot at the 9.2 second mark in the 100-yard dash — an elusive figure that the boys have been shooting at for a decade.

The spindly San Jose State Negro had the chance to do it Saturday in the West Coast Relays here. But he eased up at the finish line and was clocked in 9.3 — equalling the world record.

"I had no idea that I was running that fast," said Norton after he heard the time for his preliminary. "I'm sure that if I had run all out, I would have come in with a 9.2."

Edged Bobby Morrow
In the finals, Norton was clocked in 9.4 as he nosed out the great Olympic champion, Bobby Morrow of Abilene, Texas, by inches. This race was marred by four false starts, however, and Norton admitted he "tightened up" while waiting.

Dumas, the first man in history to high jump over seven feet (he turned the trick in 1956) did it again with his leap at Fresno. He tried twice more at seven feet, 1 1/2 inches in an attempt to wrest the title from Russia, but failed. The 260-pound Long looks like a cinch to hit a new record mark in the shot put in the not-too-distant future. His best official throw Saturday night was 62 feet, 5 1/4 inches. He took a seventh toss and the 16-pound ball zoomed out 63 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

Long had competed in a meet at Logan, Utah, the previous night, had travelled nearly 800 miles — and still topped the 60 foot mark on four out of seven attempts. Two were foul and one was "only" 59 plus feet.

There was a good pole-vaulting performance, too, from Aubrey Dooley of Oklahoma State with a leap of 15 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

USC Paces Colleges

The open-intercollegiate team title went to the Southern California Striders of Los Angeles with 43 points. USC came next with 36, followed by San Jose State, 29, Occidental 25, Oklahoma State 21 and Stanford 18.

In the collegiate division, USC led with 51 points followed by Occidental with 24, San Jose State 37 1/2, UCLA 35, Stanford 33 and Oklahoma State 32 1/2.

Riddle Winner Over Whitters

Camp White—Nick Cohen pitched four-hit ball and got three hits in four times up here yesterday to pace Riddle to a 3 to 1 win over Camp White in a practice game between two Rogue Valley Baseball league clubs.

Camp White will be host to Southern Oregon college here Wednesday evening.

Cohen struck out 16 and walked two yesterday while Don Sanford and Jack Brown, chugging for CW, fanned five and nine respectively. Ayres hit two for four and Dick James two for five for Riddle and Don Wendt two for four for the Whitters. Leftfielder Havron "robbed" Wendt of another hit with a sensational catch.

Palmer Leads Oklahoma City

Oklahoma City—(UPI)—With a nervous eye on the weather, officials of the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf tournament sent it into the final rounds today with Ligonier, Pa., strong man Arnold Palmer holding a two-stroke lead through 54 holes.

The scheduled finals Sunday were interrupted by a heavy rain and the threat of a tornado.

Palmer took a 54-hole total of 204, which was 12 under par, into the final round. He had overtaken early leader Tommy Jacobs, Whittier, Calif., who led through the first 36 holes, then took a one-over-par 73 Saturday and trailed Palmer by two strokes at 206 going into the finals.

Behind these two, at 208 after 54 holes, were Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill., and Bob Goalby, Chrystal River, Fla. Oklahoma insurance salesman Glen Fowler was next at 210 through 54 holes.

Dodgers Start Series at Home

Los Angeles—(UPI)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, returning home after a long road trip that saw them capture 9 out of 17 games, including Sunday's thriller from the San Francisco Giants, go against the Philadelphia Phillies tonight in the Coliseum.

The Phillies will be here for a two-game series ending Tuesday night, to be replaced by the Pirates for the following two nights. With a day off Friday, the Dodgers will play the champion Milwaukee Braves Saturday and Sunday.

SPORTS

Strange Role Of Loser for Davis Cup Star

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Davis Cup hero Alex Olmedo is in a strange role today—that of a loser.

The Peruvian University of Southern California student lost in both the doubles and singles finals Sunday as upsets prevailed in the 73rd annual Southern California sectional tennis championships.

Mike Franks, a UCLA graduate student who led the Bruin tennis team last season, turned the trick in the singles, dumping the top-seeded Davis Cup star, 6-4, 3-6, 0-6, 12-10, 7-5, in a marathon three-hour match.

Olmedo lost another when he and Franks, both dead-tired, teamed in the doubles. Noel Brown, Santa Monica, and Hugh Stewart, Pasadena, topped them, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, in a match shortened because of the marathon Franks and Olmedo played earlier.

Jordan-Moyer Fight Will Be At Race Track

Portland—(UPI)—Promoter Tommy Moyer said today the 15-round welterweight title bout between Denny Moyer and champion Don Jordan would be held outdoors at the Portland Meadows race track on July 10.

It will be Portland's first championship fight.

Moyer said he chose the race track site because of a reasonable rental fee and ample parking facilities.

Pines Tourney Won By Ziske

Southern Pines, N. C.—(UPI)—Joyce Ziske of Milwaukee, Wis., put together a six-under women's par 70 Sunday to claim her first tournament victory since 1956, worth $97.50 in the first annual Southern Pines Invitation Open golf championship.

Miss Ziske, 14th ranking money winner last year, turned in a steady 69-71-70-210 that gave her a three-stroke lead over her closest challenger on the rain-dampened Mid-Pines Club course.

Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., first-round leader who slipped behind Miss Ziske on the second 18 holes, finished in a tie for second place with Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., at 213 that earned them $683.50 each.

WEAKER—Former Secy. of State John Foster Dulles, already suffering from cancer in Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, has contracted a "mild case of pneumonia," his physicians have announced, and his condition is described as "somewhat weaker." This picture, made in 1958, is the latest official portrait of him to be released by the State Department.

Iraq Will Get British Planes

London—(UPI)—Britain announced today it has agreed to send military aircraft to the Iraqi government of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

Minister of State for Foreign Affairs John Profumo told Parliament Britain has agreed to the shipment of a "limited number" of twin-jet Canberra bombers "if financial arrangements could be made."

The government also informed the Iraqi government that it was ready to authorize negotiations for the delivery of "a reasonable quantity" of other arms, including tanks, Perumo said.

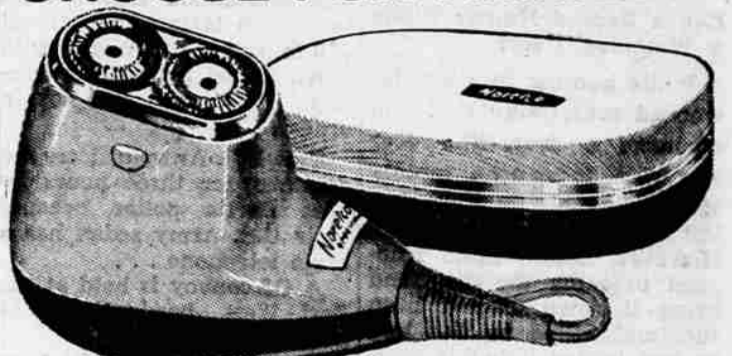

He said negotiations for the arms shipments are now being made in Baghdad between Iraqi officials and the British ambassador.

The decision to supply the arms was apparently made after a flurry of secret exchanges between Britain and Middle East countries.

The project of Iraq falling under Communist domination was believed to have been a prime consideration of the decision.

BALKS AT CUT
Detroit—(UPI)—The Detroit Tigers were hopeful today that pitcher George Susce would change his mind and report to their Charleston farm club in the American association. Susce was cut from the roster Saturday as the Tigers got down to the 25-player limit and announced he was heading home to Wellesley, Mass., instead of Charleston.
