Padres and Solons Get Wins Beat Seattle and Spokane

United Press International

San Diego, which figured to be tough this year—and Sacramento, which didn't — are turning the Pacific Coast league race into a two team dogfight.

The California clubs downed foes Monday night in the enemy ballparks and are the only teams in the loop which boast better than a .500 mark.

San Diego parlayed a six hit shutout by Bud Podbielan into a 3-0 win over Seattle. Sacramento's Al Heist singled in Buddy Peterson in the eighth as the Solons downed Spokane, 3-2.

When the evening's work was done, the Solons were perched in first with a 17-8 mark one game ahead of the Pardes. Third place Phoenix was a distant five games off the pace.

The Giants edged Vancouver, 3-2, last night, while Salt Lake overwhelmed Portland, 12-4, in other action.

Two 4-0 Marks

Sacramento hurler Chuck Hickman spent the evening pitching his way into and out of trouble as he earned his fourth win without a setback. He was aided by two double plays and help in the final stanza from fireman Jim Davis.

Dick Philips scored the first Solon run and then drove in the team's second score. Roger Craig accepted the loss and now has a 3-3 record.

Podbielan also has a 4-0 record. He not only checked the Rainiers effectively, but drove in his team's first marker with a third inning single. Jay Hood was the loser.

Phoenix collected two quick runs off Mountie starter Chuck Estrada, but then watched Vancouver sweat in scores in the third and sixth. The latter tally was accounted for by Joe Taylor's seventh homer of the young campaign.

In the ninth, the Giants' Willie McCovey singled home Ben Valenzuela and that was that.

Julio Navarro sparkled in relief and was awarded by getting credit for the win. The fates were less kind to Charlie Beamon who also looked good in relief, but lost his fifth straight decision when the Giants pushed in their ninth inning tally.

Bees Buzz

Salt Lake unloaded 13 hits in the only heavy hitting display of the evening. The Bees muscled home six superfluous runs in the eighth on five hits. Laurin Pepper coasted to the win.

Portland's George Freese clung to his loop home run lead when he smacked round tripper number eight in the fourth frame.

Salt Lake Hurler Tops League

San Francisco—(UPI)—A dandy earned run average of 0.75 put Dick Hall of Salt Lake City at the top of ladder among the Pacific Coast league pitchers today although he had a record of two wins and two losses.

Fred Besana (4-0) of Vancouver and Eddie Fisher (4-1) of Phoenix led with the most wins.

Bobby Locke (2-2) of San Diego had struck out 40 batters in 47 innings to head that department while Don Rowe of Salt Lake (1-1) had walked 26 batters to lead in bases on balls. Figures include Sunday's games.

BETTER THAN PAR

Halls, Tenn. —(UPI)— Cary Middlecoff has been a professional golfer only 11 years but already he is one of the game's all-time greats in money and tournaments won. At the start of 1959, he was third on the money-winning list with earnings of more than $200,000.

WINS COLLEGE TITLE

Princeton, N. J. —(UPI)— Don Norbury of Penn won the Eastern intercollegiate golf championship at Princeton's Springdale course Monday, beating Yale's Mike Phillips, 3 and 2. Norbury played better golf on the back nine to win the title after they each shot 37's on the front nine.

Zalazar Slated For Garden Bout

New York — (UPI) — Victor Zalazar, young Argentine middleweight, will get a main event at Madison Square Garden because of his impressive upset victory over Canadian champion Wilfie Graves at St. Nicholas Arena Monday night.

Teddy Brenner, Garden matchmaker, said today, "I want him for a Garden main event, possibly against Gene Fullmer ex-world champion or Ralph Tiger Jones."

Lanky Zalazar, who weighed 160½ pounds to Greaves' 163, floored blond Wilfie once in the 10th round with a right and had him so helplessly groggy when he rose that the final bell probably saved him from a knockout.

Referee Teddy Martin said he was ready to stop the fight just when the bell rang.

Twenty-two-year-old Zalazar, an 11-5 underdog, won the unanimous decision on a rounds basis: 7-3, 8-2, 7-2-1. However, the Argentine kayo specialist will be out of action for about six weeks because of a six-stitch gash below his left brow, suffered in the fourth round.

It was the South American's 16th victory in 19 bouts, and it was his first win on a decision. His 15 previous triumphs were on knockouts.

Wilfie suffered his 12th defeat in 38 starts.

Jayvees Nip E. P. 15-2

Medford Jayvees trounced Eagle Point 15 to 2 yesterday on the Medford home diamond.

Medford was aided by 14 walks and two men being hit by pitchers. Biggest blow for Medford came in the second inning when Bob Quinney hit a triple with the bases loaded. That frame was also the high scoring one for Medford with a total of eight runs racked up.

Medford's Jayvees play their last game when it meets Ashland next Monday.

Burnette High Man

William O. Burnette was high scorer with a total of 357 points during the indoor shoot held by the VFW Rifle club in the National Guard armory Friday night.

Eugene Thigpin and Stan Sears shot 345s followed by Richard Wright with 337, Dave Schults with 334, Terry Burnette with 306 and Lawrence E. Burnette with 274.

The next and last indoor shoot of the season will be held in the armory Friday, May 22, at 8 p.m., it was announced.

First VFW club high power practice shoot will be held on the Camp White range on Saturday, June 13, starting at 6:30 p.m. All shooters are invited to compete in the club matches.

Moscow, Ida.—(UPI)—Washington clobbered Idaho 105-26 in a makeup Northern division track and field meet Monday.

GOLF'S GREATEST SHOT

Augusta, Ga.—(UPI)—Gene Sarazen generally is regarded as the man who hit the greatest single shot in golfing history. That was in the 1935 Masters tournament when he holed a 230-yard spoon shot for a double eagle on the 15th hole en route to winning the event.

U.S. Golf Team High In Practice

Muirfield, Scotland — (UPI) — Even golf-wise Scottish observers were impressed today by the latest practice scores turned in by members of the United States Walker Cup team.

Harvie Ward of San Francisco, Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor of Pomona, Calif., Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, O., and Ward Wettlaufer of Buffalo, N.Y., each turned in par 72 scores Monday in preparation for the cup matches starting Friday.

Wettlaufer, a 23-year-old Hamilton (N.Y.) college student, was proud of his practice round.

"Man, this is the finest course I have ever seen," he said. "It's got everything. We have nothing like it in America. I've never played on better turf. The ball just sits up for you."

Four other members of the U.S. team — Deane Beman of Bethesda, Md., Tommy Aaron of Gainesville, Fla., Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., and Bill Hyndman of Abington, Pa. — posted 75's in their latest tour around the Muirfield links.

"They're coming along," grinned U.S. captain Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, Okla. "I guess by Friday we'll be in as good a shape as we can be."

Jets Beat Miami 2-1

United Press International

Lynn Lovenguth, a leading pitcher for both the Rochester Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs in past seasons, is well on the way toward reaching the same pinnacle for the Columbus Jets.

The 35-year-old righthander picked up his fifth victory of the International league season Monday night when he set down the Miami Marlins on six hits for a 2-1 victory.

The Jets scored both of their runs in the top of the seventh, and after weakening for a run in the bottom of the same frame Lovenguth recovered to protect the slim lead. Columbus made the most of its opportunities, getting to starter Jim Archer and reliever Art Kay for only three hits.

In the other games played, the Richmond Virginians scored four times in the top half of the 13th inning to defeat the Cuban Sugar Kings, 5-1, and the Red Wings scored early and late to beat the Buffalo Bisons, 6-2.

CLOSE TO THE GAME

Youngstown, Pa. —(UPI)— Arnold Palmer, the top money winner on the pro circuit in 1958 with earnings of $42,607, loves the game so much he is locating his new home right next to the Latrobe Country Club golf course—just so he can get in all the practice he wants when not on tour.

Dupas Will Fight Scott Wednesday

New York — (UPI) — Welterweigh contenders Ralph Dupas of New Orleans and Charley Scott of Philadelphia will fight at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night in the only TV bout on this week's boxing schedule.

Although Dupas is ranked second by the National Boxing association, and Scott seventh, betting is at "even money." Scott, coming along rapidly, was impressive in his last two bouts, both with Isaac Logart. He outpointed the Cuban and on April 3 stopped him in the third round.

At London tonight middleweight Randy Sandy of New York was to try to prove that his widely disputed decision over Dick Tiger, British Empire champion, on March 19 was deserved.

They meet in a return 10-round bout at London's Wembly Arena. Their March fight was at Liverpool, England.

On the Sandy-Tiger card, Dave Charnley of England will try to take the British Empire lightweight crown from Willie Toweel of South Africa.

This, too, is a return bout. Toweel outpointed Charnley at London in July, 1957; but Charnley has improved so much since then he will be favored Tuesday.

Tuesday—London—Randy vs. Dick Tiger and Dave Charnley vs. Willie Toweel. Portland, Ore.—Pat McMurtry vs. Garvan Sawyer. Richmond, Calif.—Billy Murray vs. Chico Cerino. San Jose, Calif.—Louis Molina vs. Kildo Nuenez. Caribou, Me.—Yvon Durelle vs. Tinker Picot.

Wednesday — Chicago Stadium—Charley Scott vs. Ralph Dupas (TV).

Thursday—Spokane, Wash.—Terry Lewis vs. Wayne Womchil.

Friday—Nothing scheduled. No TV fight.

Saturday—Hollywood, Calif.—Boots Monroe vs. Kid Iraquato.

Giant Tickets Can Be Ordered From Chipman

Tickets for home games of the San Francisco Giants again are available in Medford, it has been announced. Harry Chipman has been named ticket representative for this area for the second year.

Chipman advised those desiring tickets to allow at least 10 days from the time the order is placed for delivery of tickets. He may be contacted at SPring 2-6141 or SPring 2-2974.

Grant Coach Heads League

Portland —(UPI)— Paul McCall, basketball coach at Grant high school, was named athletic director for the Portland Interscholastic league Monday night.

McCall succeeds Ed Ryan, who earlier was named assistant secretary of the Oregon School Activities Association.

Petrehm's Gang Wins Trapshoot

Pete Petrehm's Crap Shooters blasted to the championship of Gary Shaw in the Elks club trapshooting tournament.

They added 20 points to their total on Sunday, eighth and final day of the meet, and won going away with 123½ points.

Other final totals were Dick Phair's Swivel Hips 103, Harold Reichstein's Fuelers 79½ and Frank Perl's Feather Dusters 14.

Henry Niedermeyer was top gunner for the eight shoots with a 97.2 bird average. He broke 50 straight again Sunday. Number of targets thrown on the eight Sundays for the Elks was 13,200.

All Firsts

The Crap Shooters took first places in all three categories of Sunday tourney activity with attendance of 11 gunners, total score of 438 and high five count of 229. Swivel Hips were next with all second points. They had nine shooters, a 382 total and 227 high five for 12 point total. Rest of the points, eight, were gained by the Fuelers with an attendance of five, 197 total and 195 high five.

The Feather Dusters had three shooters on hand and 133 points.

Other high local shooters in average in the Elks meet were Paul Culbertson 94.4, Max Kulbe 94, Gene Hunt 93 and Charles Skeeters 92.5. Tony Hoover, Grants Pass, had 94.3 and L. K. Byrd, Ashland, 95.

There were 28 shooters last Sunday. Aubrey and Sander broke 48 of 50, and Ed Pease and Kulbe each 47.

NAMESAKE

Louisville, Ky. —(UPI)— Ole Fols, a prominent three-year-old colt, was named in honor of Frank Folsom, chairman of the Board of the Radio Corporation of America.

Hicke MVP In Hockey

New York —(UPI)— Bill Hicke of the Rochester Americans, the American Hockey league's top scorer, today was named the circuit's outstanding rookie for the 1958-59 season and will receive the Dudley Red Garrett memorial trophy along with a check for $300.

The 21-year-old Hicke was a unanimous choice for the award, polling 30 points in the balloting by the writers and broadcasters in the league's six cities. Art Stratton of the Cleveland Barons was second with 14 points.

Glendale Victor in Rogue Loop

Glendale—Glendale high has won its second straight Rogue league baseball crown.

The toga was cinched last week end with a 6 to 2 win over Illinois Valley.

The Pirates are now 5-0 in the league and wind up next Friday against Eagle Point, who are twice beaten and hold second place. Eagle Point won 1 to 0 from Rogue River last week end.
