will speak on the subject "Religion and the Presidency." The meeting, which is interdenominational, is sponsored by local churches and ministers, POAU members, with the cooperation of the Portland POAU Chapter and National Protestants and Other Americans United for the Separation of Church and State. Dr. Laurin, president of the Los Angeles Chapter of POAU, is an American Baptist minister and author of several books. He has spoken widely throughout the nation to church and professional groups on the subject of church-state relations.

Mercury Readings Climb in Oregon

By United Press International
Oregon basked in its warmest temperatures of the year Tuesday and the weather man said it would be that way again today. It got up to 93 degrees at Medford in the southern part of the state and Seaside on the coast had an unofficial 87. Other readings included 89 at Roseburg, 86 at Astoria and Klamath Falls and 84 at Newport. Strong east winds accompanied the sun in the Columbia gorge area.

Oregon Strawberry Crop Over Average

Portland - (UP) - Oregon's 1959 strawberry crop is estimated by the Agriculture Department at 66,220,000 pounds, about 19 per cent above average but 4 per cent below last year. The harvest is scheduled to start in the latter part of this month in early maturing districts and about June 1 in others.
