Blanket Shorts—An electric blanket was burned and a hole burned in the mattress and other bedding as a result of a short in the blanket early this morning at the home of Mrs. Ruby Hallett, 11 Tripp st., firemen reported. They were called about 1 a.m.

Visitation Day Set At Phoenix School

Phoenix—The annual first grade visitation day will be held at the Phoenix elementary school Friday, May 15, for students entering first grade next fall, according to John Myers, principal. Parents are requested to bring their children to the primary building at 1 p.m. Friday and leave them until 2:30 p.m.

The visitation day is planned so that children will have a chance to familiarize themselves with the school and teachers, Myers explained.

Portland—UPI—Tall Jean Speck, who will be 18 next Monday, Wednesday was named Rose Festival princess for Girls Polytechnic high school. Jean, at 5-8, is the tallest princess chosen so far.

Senior Center Won't Be Disturbed, City Tells Local Council

The Rogue Valley Council on Aging has been assured that Medford city officials have no present plans to disturb the Senior Activity center on East Jackson st.

This assurance was expressed last night by City Manager Robert A. Duff and members of the city parks and recreation commission in response to a letter from Frank J. Glonning, chairman of the council on aging.

Glonning stated the council was "very much dismayed" over a statement made by Mark Goldy, a developer of the Medford shopping center, before the city planning commission April 9.

National Senior Citizens Week To Be Observed Here

Observance of National Senior Citizens week will begin in Medford with an open house Sunday, May 17, from 1:30 to 5 p.m. at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson st., according to John Gribble, chairman.

Two other events are scheduled during the week, Gribble reported Thursday at a meeting of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging.

A picnic barbecue will be held at the Camp White domiciliary grounds Wednesday, May 20, when domiciliary 50 plus club members will entertain the Medford 50 plus club and guests. The event will begin at 11 a.m. with the picnic lunch at 12 noon.

Friday afternoon, May 22, the Medford 50 plus club will hold openhouse at the Episcopal Guild hall during their regular meeting from 12:30 to 4 p.m. Edward Eick will be in charge.

Special Invitations

The five Granges in the valley which will meet during the week have been asked to issue special invitations to all older citizens of their communities to attend open Grange meetings. They include Eagle Point, Belyville, Gold Hill, Rogue and Upper Applegate Granges.

Other Granges are being asked to schedule similar meetings during the rest of the month, Roscoe Roberts announced.

A need for cars to take nursing home patients on short garden tours during the week was reported by Mrs. C. D. Earhart. Persons who would like to participate by providing transportation are asked to contact Mrs. Chester Guehes, Spring 3-2713, or Gribble, Spring 2-5932.

Obituaries

A requiem mass for Mary L. Mitchell, 85, who died yesterday at her home at 1023 Maple Park dr., will be offered by the Rev. William McLeod at Sacred Heart Catholic church at 10 a.m. Friday. Recitation of the Holy Rosary will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Conger-Morris funeral home. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mrs. Mitchell was born Dec. 7, 1873, in Winniecheek county, Iowa, and married Nov. 25, 1896, at Lennox, Iowa, to Hugh Mitchell, who survives. She had lived in this community for the past 33 years.

Surviving besides her husband, are one son, Paul Mitchell of Medford; four daughters, Mrs. W. J. Crow of Wenatchee, Wash., Mrs. Allen Walker, Jerome, Idaho, Mrs. L. L. Peabody, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Ray Minter of West Sacramento, Calif.; eight grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

D. C. MILLS

Funeral services for D. C. Mills, 53, of Blue River, who died today in Lebanon, will be read by a Christian Scientist Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in Conger-Morris funeral home. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mrs. Mills was born Nov. 30, 1905, in Red Bluff, Calif. For the past 28 years he had been a construction inspector for the corps of Engineers, most recently stationed at Blue River on the McKenzie river.

Survivors include his wife, Ellen; two sons, William Mills, Lebanon; and D. C. Mills Jr., Eugene; a daughter, Mrs. Marie Hendrickson, Portland; a step son, Brad Berggren, Blue River; and a brother, Frank Dowling, Red Bluff.

Steels, Metals Push Industrials Higher

New York—UPI—Steel shares and metals lifted industrial stocks to a new record high today.

Steel issues ran up 1 to more than 4 points. Autos reached new highs in General Motors, Chrysler and Ford but their overall gains were small. Chemicals were mixed as profit taking came into DoPont after two days of sharp rise had carried it up more than 12 points. Alcoa jumped on predictions by its president that production will rise 20 per cent.

Hospital Day Is Observed Locally

Emphasis on "Students Interested in Fields of Medicine" was the theme carried out in observance of National Hospital Day, May 12, at Sacred Heart hospital.

Forty-eight students and supervisors, representing Talent, Phoenix, Jacksonville, Crater, Eagle Point, St. Mary's of Medford and Medford High schools attended the program.

The lectures and demonstrations began at 1 p.m. with the demonstration of the hypothermic blanket and electronic-phalagrum procedure given by Dr. Mario Campagna. This was followed by an X-ray exhibit by Dr. Duane Gillum, a discussion of requirements for X-ray technicians, and their future in the medical field was given by Ron Jacob of Oregon Technical Institute.

A film on cyto-technology was given and physical therapy machines demonstrated.

Providence Guild members escorted students to the lecture rooms and served refreshments, courtesy of Jorgensen's and Coca Cola bottling works. Foster's Pharmacy supplied information and samples to students interested in the field of pharmacy.

Former Resident Dies in Redlands

Lester E. Smith, who lived in the Applegate as a boy and later worked as an engineer for both Jackson county and the city of Medford, died at his home in Redlands, Calif., early this morning, relatives reported. Death was said due to a heart attack.

Smith is survived by his wife, Helen, former owner of The Town and The Craterian Beauty shops here, two brothers, Glenn Smith, Rich, and Everett Smith, Redlands, and a sister in Napa, Calif.

The Smiths lived on Valley View dr., before moving to Redlands.

Industry sources estimated that more than 50,000 swimming pools were built this year, of which 36,000 are residential or backyard pools.
