Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THREE STORIES brought home from school by my 12-year-old son, Jonathan:

1. Q. What weighs 1,000 pounds, sings, has four legs, and is yellow? A.—Two 500-pound canaries.

2. Did you hear about the man who fell out of a fourteenth story window but didn't even suffer a scratch? The fortunate fellow was wearing a light fall suit.

3. Kid in class was asked if he knew the meaning of the word bachelor. "I sure do," answered the kid. "It's what my daddy wishes he was."

A phone operator icily informed an importunate college boy, "I'm sorry, sir, but that number has been taken out." "I know damn well she's been taken out," wailed the boy. "What I'm trying to find out is: by whom?"

Bert Wheeler says that automobiles in midtown traffic always remind him of a burlesque chorus on a miniature stage: they're bumper to bumper!

HORNBROOK Supper Set at Grange

By KATHERINE CHAPMAN

Hornbrook—To launch the Little League baseball season which will get underway here next week, the mothers of the boys eligible for the team will give a covered dish supper at the Grange hall Friday, May 15, at 6:30 p.m. At this time, manager George Brautlatch will announce the names of the players and their positions. Sponsor of the local Little League team is the Black Mountain Lumber company of Hornbrook.

The Women's Society of the Methodist church honored the mothers in the community with a Mother's Day tea at the church Thursday. Each mother was presented a corsage, and special honors were given the older mothers. As entertainment, each was called upon to recite a poem, or sing, or play. Oldest mother present was Mrs. Martha Cummins who will be 91 on May 17, and who recited a poem she had learned as a girl. Mrs. Clara Howard also gave a recitation, and Mrs. Zela Elmore played the piano and sang. Several of the "younger" mothers also contributed to the program.

Mother's Day week end brought several visitors to the community. Dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Rose were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Rose and three children of Ashland. Other visitors during the week were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edith Newcomb, also of Ashland, Mrs. Clinton Gano and Mrs. Jack Williams, both of Corning, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vieira, Mrs. Robert Trina and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Cavin and daughter Marcia, all of Hills. Mrs. Vieira, Mrs. Trina, and Mrs. Cavin are all daughters of Mrs. Rose.

At the Louis Miller home, dinner guests were their children and grandchildren, Mrs. R. E. Miller and Elin of Copco, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Miller, and children Mike and Jeanie, and John H. Miller, all of Ashland. On Tuesday of last week, John Miller and Mrs. Grace Dickey of Ashland had dinner at his parents' home. Miller was school principal here about eight years ago, and Mrs. Dickey taught here.

Mr. and Mrs. Reno DeBoroli and children, Terry and Carol, of Klamath Falls spent Mother's Day week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brautlatch. Mrs. Ida Chapman had as her guests during the week end her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates of Napa, Calif., and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Damon of Chemult, Ore.

Thursday visitors of Mrs. Ida Chapman were two nieces from Ashland, Mrs. Dale Jorgenson and Mrs. Bess Hall. Coming over with Mrs. Jorgenson and Mrs. Hall were Mrs. J. Samuelson and son, Ricky, who visited her sister, Mrs. Bob Farmer, and Mrs. Maud Murphy who spent the afternoon with a friend, Mrs. Mollie Cole.

Attending the rodeo in Etna, Calif., on Sunday, May 3, were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lemos, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, Mrs. Bertha Bradley, Frank Ward, Oscar Barnum and daughter, Penny, and Miss Gerry Elmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gowing of Weed, Calif., former Hornbrook residents, visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson.

Mrs. Grace Tyrer returned home last Thursday from Siskiyou General hospital in Yreka, where she had been a patient for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and granddaughter, Linda and Lydia Greene, were among the class of 13 who were confirmed on Mother's Day at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Yreka. Officiating at the rites was Bishop Clarence Haden

Spring Concert Set at Howard School Friday

The annual spring concert of Howard elementary school music department will be held Friday, May 15, at 8 p.m. in the school gymnasium under the direction of E. Ronald Rice.

The concert by the 70-piece band, girls chorus and smaller music groups will complete the year's activities of the music department.

In southern Oregon music contests this spring Howard school groups and individuals took high honors in all classes entered, the school reported. In the solo and small group contest in Grants Pass, a superior rating was received by the trombone quartet composed of Rick Traylor, Dick Breeden, Mike Broomfield and Mike Hurt.

The sixth grade cornet quartet composed of Johnny Engeli, Ed Johnston, Doug Bartholomew and Mike Black received an excellent rating. The seventh grade clarinet quintet composed of Donna Smith, David Hall, Raylene Viers, Marilyn Dawson and Gail Stone, received excellent.

Ronnie Ingram, cornet player, and Gary Momborg, baritone horn, received superior ratings. Greg Elliott received excellent for his saxophone solo.

The band received a superior rating in its classification at the large group contest in Ashland April 24, playing music generally associated with high school efforts, Rice reported.

Friday night's concert will consist of vocal and instrumental numbers with both large and small groups participating. The Parent-Teacher association will have a cake and coffee sale in the cafeteria immediately following the concert. The public is invited.

FROGMEN HUNT BODIES

Cairo—Froglmen carried on the search today for missing in a Nile river boat sinking last week end. The disaster took a known toll of 80 lives. The sunken vessel was refloated Wednesday by salvage crews.

Jr. of Sacramento, who, later in the evening, showed colored pictures of the conference of bishops at Lambeth Palace, London, last summer. With the exception of their daughter, Mrs. R. L. Heflick (Roberta) and her family who live in Riverside, Calif., all of the Greene's children and grandchildren were present at the ceremony. Lydia was the youngest member of the confirmation class.

Graveside funeral services were held at the Henley-Hornbrook cemetery Saturday afternoon for George Edward Carey, 72, who died at his home here on May 6. Mr. Carey had made his home in Hornbrook for the past 10 years. He retired two years ago as SP agent here. He is survived by his wife, Euphemia. A son was killed during World War II. Funeral services were conducted by Howard Masonic Lodge of Yreka.

Newcomers into the community are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hockaday and two daughters, who moved here May 1 from Montague. They are living in Mrs. Grace Quigley's rental property in Henley. Mrs. Hockaday is the former Gretta Peterson, and attended the local grammar school when her parents lived on the Grieve ranch.

Mrs. Bertha Bradley gave a luncheon at her home Tuesday for several friends. They were Mrs. Pearl Freshour and Mrs. Bertha Stipp, both of Yreka, and Mrs. Grace Quigley and Mrs. Minnie Bloomingcamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cummins and daughter, Shirley, and Mrs. Cummins' father, Charles Spearin, drove to Brownsboro, Ore., Mother's Day where they had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen. Mrs. Hansen is a sister of Mr. Spearin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin were Mother's Day dinner guests in Medford of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rukovina.
