

Girl Scout Conference Planned Here Saturday

Approximately 65 Senior Girl Scouts will gather in Medford tomorrow, May 16, the first conference to be held by this group in the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council. Other councils sending delegates include Three Rivers council, Eugene, Oregon Trail council, Ontario, Klamath Area council, Klamath Falls and Bend, and the Lake County council, Lakeview.

Plans for the conference were made and executed by the Senior planning board which is made up of representatives from the 8 Senior troops in the Rogue Valley council. A steering committee of girls from the board and those who have participated in Regional Scout conferences this past year worked out many of the details.

Theme of the conference is "World Frontiers."

Registration will be held in the cafeteria of Medford High school at 8:30 a.m. with the opening ceremonies to begin at 9 a.m. During the morning the girls will have the opportunity of hearing two career talks by professional people. Following luncheon, a panel discussion on co-ed activities will be held with Senior Girl Scouts and Explorer Scouts participating. The group will then be divided into small discussion groups on program for the Senior Scouts.

Visitors and their leaders will be overnight guests of Scouts from Grants Pass, Central Point, Medford and Ashland.

Miss Gail Hayden, Grants Pass, will preside over the opening ceremonies. The Rev. John Powers, St. Mark's Episcopal church, will give the invocation and Mrs. T. R. Lytle, president of the Rogue Valley council, the welcoming talk.

On the morning program Dwight Houghton of United States National bank will talk on "Leaders of Tomorrow" and speaking on careers open to young women will be Mrs. Frances Willett, foods and homemaking; Mrs. Martha Donahue, medicine and nursing; Mrs. Jeanne Gang, social work; Dr. Bill Sampson, Southern Oregon college, teaching.

At the luncheon meeting, with Miss Bonnie Allingham, Medford, presiding, officers of the Rogue Valley Senior Scout council will be introduced. Guests will include Miss Ruth Kilbourn, Girl Scout executive director; Mrs. M. T. Rossi, a past president of the Rogue Valley council; Mrs. E. J. Moir, program chairman; Mrs. Robert LeRoy, field director; Mrs. Elliott Duffy, Senior Scout coordinator; Mrs. Frances Leischner, office secretary; Miss Mia Riaphort, foreign student from Holland and Miss Sissel Frogner, foreign student from Norway.

A panel discussion follows luncheon. Jim Boyd and Miss Maureen McCurdy, Medford, will be moderators. David Ells will represent Explorer Scouts, and Miss Jean DeYoung, Grants Pass, and Miss Judy Sims, Medford, Senior Scouts.

Discussion groups will close the program. Miss JoAnne Merritt, Klamath Falls and Miss Betty Duffy, Ashland, will lead discussion on the five-point program. Miss Meredith Mansfield and Miss Hayden, both Grants Pass, will lead CIT discussion and Miss Mimi Jones and Miss Claudia Hoover, both Medford, will lead service discussions. Miss Jenny Blenkinsop, Eugene, Miss Allingham, Miss Margaret Dotson, Klamath Falls and Miss Duffy will lead discussion on senior opportunities.

Parents In Eugene For Event

A large group of Jackson county parents are in Eugene this week end to attend the annual Junior Week and Mothers Week end activities. The Week's activities began with the Junior Prom last Saturday and will end with Mother's Week end May 15-17.

Junior Week Queen this year is Miss Claire (Bunny) Brissenden, business administration major from Eugene. She was crowned during the Prom and is reigning with her court of four princesses over traditional activities of the week.

A Freshman-Sophomore tug-of-war was held on the millrace Wednesday afternoon, and terrace dance for all students at Erb Memorial Union building Thursday afternoon.

The 32nd annual Mothers' Week end will officially begin this evening with the millrace Canoe Fete. The Fete this year will center about Oregon's centennial celebration, under the theme "Oregon Trail Marks." Floats will depict historical events of Oregon cities. The annual Oregon mothers' breakfast and business meeting will be held in the Erb building at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, with university President O. Meredith Wilson as principal speaker.

The all-campus luncheon, during which a number of campus honorary societies will "tap" new members, will be held on the old campus at 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

A reception for all Oregon mothers will be held in the Museum of Art Saturday from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., sponsored by the Eugene Mothers club. The last major event of the week will be the All-Campus Sing in McArthur Court at 8 p.m. Saturday.

The board of directors of the Oregon Mothers' organization will meet for a no-host breakfast at 9 a.m. Sunday in the university faculty club.

MAIL TRIBUNE, Medford, Or. Friday, May 15, 1959

Mrs. T. R. Lytle, Medford, president of the Rogue Valley Girl Scout council, will be one of the morning speakers for a conference of Senior Girl Scouts to be held in Medford tomorrow. With delegates from four other councils, this will be the first such conference ever held here.

Medford Bethel Elects Officers

Election of officers was held at the last meeting of Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters. Honored Queen Lynda Knips presided.

Elected were Miss Barbara Gordon, queen; Miss Marcia Barrell, senior princess; Miss Jacqueline Mee, junior princess; Miss Teresa Six, guide; Miss Jane Ward, marshal.

Installation will be held Saturday, May 23, at 7:30 p.m. at the Pythian building.

At the same time, the new guardian council will be installed by Oregon's grand guardian, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Independence, Ore., and the grand associate guardian, Walter Johnson, Portland.

Mrs. Viola Turner will be installed guardian, and Albert Brown, associate guardian.

Practice for Bethel officers and choir will be Friday, May 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Plans were made to attend a meeting of Southern Oregon Guardian council at Kerby, Sunday, May 17. Cars will leave at 12 noon.

Plans also were made for a visit to Bethel 56, Shady Cove, Thursday, May 21, for Friendship night. Cars will leave the Pythian building at 6:30 p.m.

Robes for the officers and choir may be picked up at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Harold Gordon, through Saturday night.

Refreshments were served by Heather Rode, Patricia Brewold, Pamela Roberts, and Carol Slater, and their mothers.

All square dancers are invited and potluck refreshments will be served. Douglas Decker and guest callers will call squares.

Units Hold Extension Festival

Applegate Valley - The look of an economics section of a county fair resulted from the combined festival of two extension units of Applegate valley held recently at the Applegate school gymnasium. Labeling the event "A Century of Homemaking," the women combined centennial exhibits with hobbies and homemaking projects taught in extension work.

A skit presented by the "Sewing Susans," 4-H sewing group, showed the activities of 4-H youngsters since the early beginning of 4-H work. The skit was arranged and narrated by Sandra Brewster, junior leader. Old time pictures were shown by Charles Elmore of community groups and range seeding sponsored by the lower Applegate Grange over 20 years ago. Early day photos of Medford and high school graduation there were shown by Mrs. John Black.

Mrs. Dora Krouse had charge of registration, and 4-H boys were in charge of parking.

A unique exhibit arranged by Mrs. Chester Kubli included a postal display of envelopes bearing old time postmarks and cachets. A large back ground map of early day postoffices of the Applegate valley was drawn by Robert Sorber. J. R. Hoffman exhibited wooden wedges used in bucking timber which he has manufactured for a number of years.

Chairs made on Thompson creek 65 years ago by Jede Caldwell were exhibited, and numerous other antique items included butter molds, school books, a ledger from the Kubli and Bolt store of the 1850s, quilts, and many other items.

A floral display of pink dogwood and potted plants was from the Parker nursery, and Hug Free exhibited jewelry and Southern Oregon's stones from the Ken Paine rock shop.

Among the many home-making exhibits were furniture refinishing, upholstering, pie and bread making, lamp shades, ACWW, and many others.

VFW District 7 To Hold Meeting

District 7, Veterans of Foreign Wars post and auxiliary, will hold a convention here Sunday, May 17, in VFW hall, 42 North Front street.

Officers will practice at 10:30 a.m. and a potluck dinner is set for 12 noon. Everyone is to take table service. The district president requests that all officers be in uniform.

On the dinner committee are Mrs. B. B. Ramsey, Mrs. Ben Allison, Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, Mrs. Russell Zundel and Mrs. Jack Brummond.

Auxiliary members will meet Saturday at 9 a.m. to prepare the hall for the convention.

West Side Event Set for Tonight

The annual hobby show of West Side school will be held at the school this evening beginning at 6 p.m. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. E. Y. Bullard and Mrs. J. L. Shute, and proceeds will go to the library fund.

All students of the school will display their hobbies. A refreshment stand will serve hamburgers, hot dogs, "fries," dessert, coffee and soft drinks. Also planned are television, movies for the children, horseshoe games and a plant sale.

L.O.U.
New York - (UP) - Millions of American mothers will become "engaged" this May, marking one of the most romantic and widespread Mother's Day gift trends of the season, reports the Jewelry Industry Council.

This new trend, giving mother an engagement ring, is reported by jewelers from coast to coast. It stems from the fact that nearly 22 per cent of American mothers never received engagements rings.
