

Seniors Honored

In a setting of glittering stars, Medford High school held the annual Junior-Senior Prom Saturday, May 9, in the school gymnasium. Queen of the Prom was Miss Marsha O'Sullivan. She was escorted into the room and received her crown of white carnations from Dale Forsee, president of the Student Body. Pictured following the coronation are (left to right) Arnold Wolfe, president of the Order of M, Princess Patricia Newbry; Robert Pond, Boys' league president, and Princess Judy Lambert; Keith Berg, vice-president of the Junior class and Princess Jeanne Warnock; George Ice, Student Body vice-president, and Princess Tresa Mee; President Forsee and Queen Marsha; Princess Delia Robinson and Robert Hamilton, president-elect of the Student Body; Princess Linda Lowry and John Frohnmayer, Junior class president; Princess Mollie Barker and Larry Anderson, Senior class president.

Pretty Eugenie Vermeulen attended the Junior-Senior Prom last Saturday with Ted Stampfer, and the two pose here in a star setting.

Each May a formal banquet is sponsored by church groups in honor of graduating seniors of the area. The 1959 dinner was at the Medford hotel, and among those who helped plan the event were (left to right) Dean Goddard, First Baptist church; Miss Rita Miller, Medford Friends church; Miss Peggy Gilbert, First Baptist; Miss Beverly Todd, Central Point Community Bible church, and Miss Mary de Place, First Baptist.

Students who helped with preparations for the St. Mary's Prom included (left to right) Marvin Frazier, Student Body president; Tom Tomjack, general chairman for the event; Miss Kathy Elbert, who worked on the decorations; Tom Hersant and Miss Lynne Parsons, co-chairmen of decorations. Sea shells, fish nets, floats and diving figures provided the dance setting.
